UNIVERSITY OF ARKANSAS RAZORBACKS

Since moving into Bud Walton Arena 11 years ago, Arkansas has ranked among the nation's top 15 in attendance average each season. UA was No. 13 last season, and second in the Southeastern Conference, with an average of 14,792.

INSIDE THE NUMBERS UA HOOPS

Arkansas' 2003 recruiting class was ranked No. 7 in the country by the Recruiting Services Consensus Index and Hoop Scoop, and No. 10 by CNN's I.com. Last year's class includes, from left: Vincent Hunter, Ronnie Brewer, Olu Famutimi and Preston Cranford.

Arkansas' 2004 recruiting class is ranked No. 13 in the nation by Rivals.com, No. 15 by Athlon Sports and No. 16 by Hoop Scoop. This year's class includes, from left: Dontell Jefferson, Darian Townes, Sammy Munsey, Steven Hill and Charles Thomas. (Not pictured: Marcus Monk)

In head coach Stan Heath's two years, the Razorbacks have a 100 percent graduation rate. In that time, eight Razorbacks have completed their eligibility and all eight have earned degrees.

The Razorbacks will appear on television 20 times this year, including three nationally televised games on ESPN and one on CBS.

Arkansas' six Final Four trips, 27 NCAA Tournament bids, 39 NCAA Tournament victories and 24 conference championships all rank ninth-best in the nation.

Since 1977, Arkansas has recorded 21 20-win seasons and earned 22 NCAA Tournament bids.

TRADIT

Arkansas earned Final Four trips in 1941, 1945, 1978, 1990, 1994 and 1995. UA has earned a total of 27 NCAA Tournament bids and won 24 conference championships. All three totals rank ninth-best in the country.

IONS

Fans have "Called the Hogs" for 142 wins in 178 games since moving into Bud Walton Arena in 1994. Arkansas has ranked among the top 15 in national average attendance every year since.

Ronnie Brewer is one of four Razorbacks who have earned freshman All-America honors and one of nine to make the SEC all-freshman squad. Arkansas has had 21 All-America selections, 22 All-SEC selections in 12 seasons and 22 NBA draft selections since 1978.

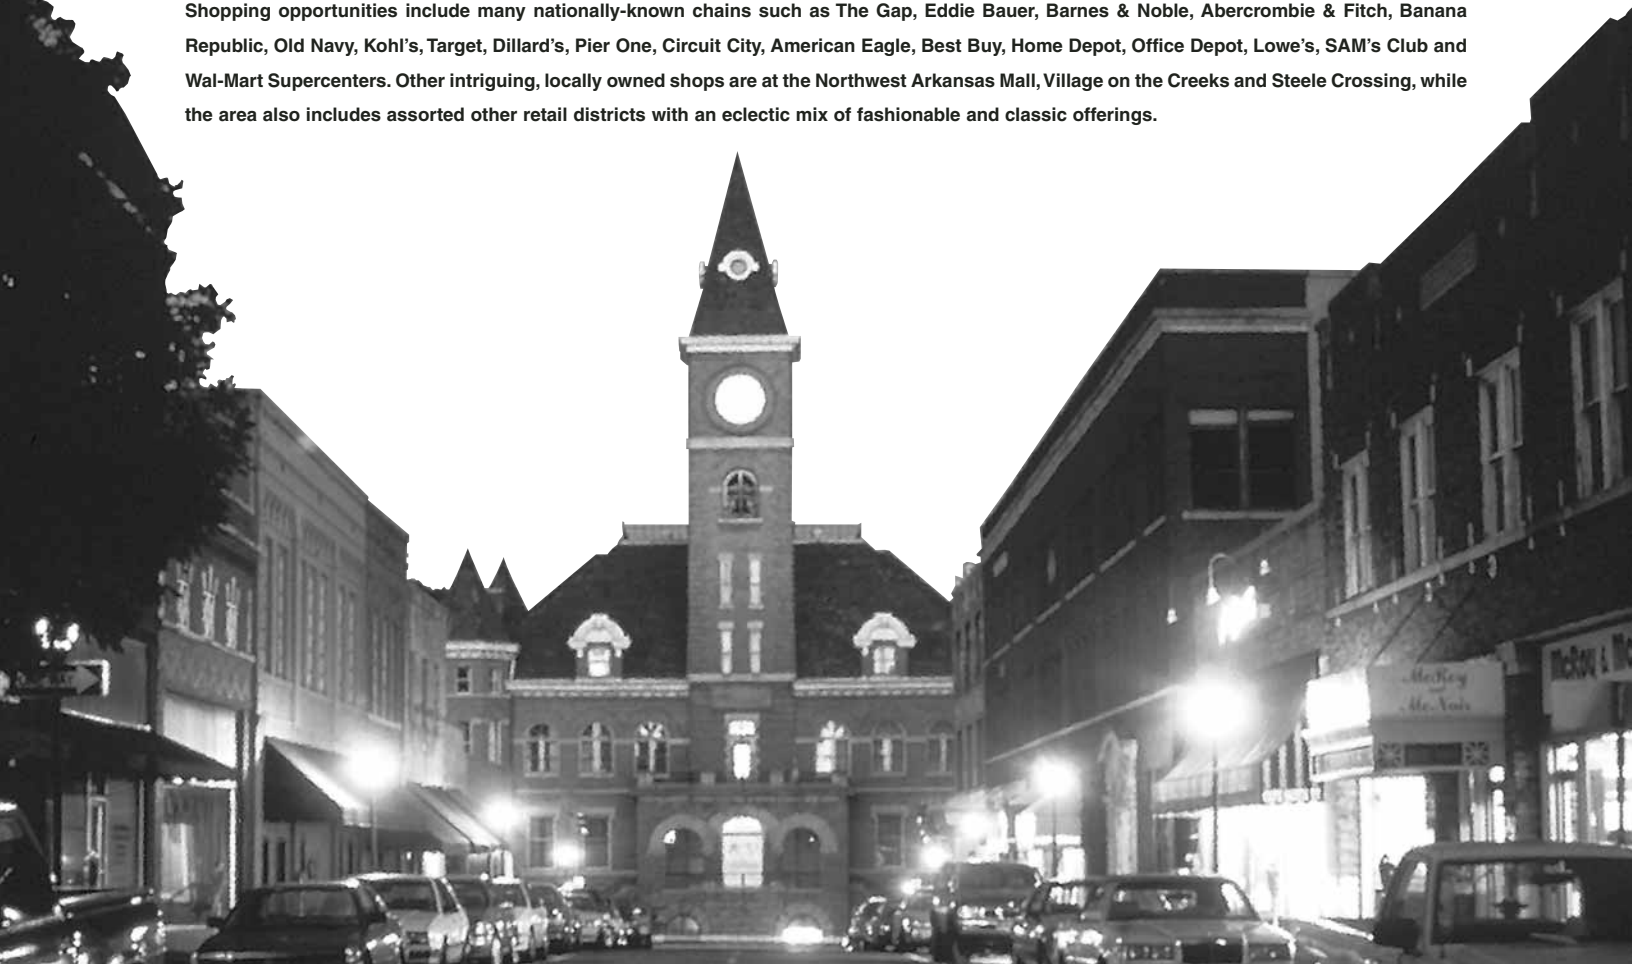

USA Today has listed Northwest Arkansas as one of the 10 fastest growing areas in the country. The area serves as home to Fortune 500 companies such as Wal-Mart, J.B. Hunt and Tyson Foods. Fayetteville is ranked by Forbes magazine as the 23rd-best place to live in the nation. Forbes also ranks Fayetteville No. 3 in the nation for "best places for business and careers" among cities with a population of less than 300,000.

NORTHWEST ARKANSAS

Shopping opportunities include many nationally-known chains such as The Gap, Eddie Bauer, Barnes & Noble, Abercrombie & Fitch, Banana Republic, Old Navy, Kohl's, Target, Dillard's, Pier One, Circuit City, American Eagle, Best Buy, Home Depot, Office Depot, Lowe's, SAM's Club and Wal-Mart Supercenters. Other intriguing, locally owned shops are at the Northwest Arkansas Mall, Village on the Creeks and Steele Crossing, while the area also includes assorted other retail districts with an eclectic mix of fashionable and classic offerings.

The nearby Buffalo River in the Ozark National Forest was America's first nationally designated scenic river. Partners for Livable Communities, an offshoot of the National Endowment for the Arts and a Washington-based non-profit group, christened Fayetteville one of 30 of the country's "most livable" towns in April. Fayetteville's inclusion was based on a mix of positive lifestyle ingredients, from job creation and park space to schools and below-average living costs. Fayetteville, it said, is "a city poised to greet the new millennium with a wide, southern-style smile."

The Northwest Arkansas metropolitan area, according to the Santa Monica-based Milken Institute, ranked first among the nation's top 200 metro areas in economic performance for 2002. The report stated: "While this may seem surprising to most of America, it isn't for the metro area's retail/distribution anchor, Wal-Mart." The report went on to say the growth is "more than just Wal-Mart, though. A wide agglomeration of suppliers, partner-firms, such as IT-intensive logistic firms and J.B. Hunt, are located there."

The Walton Arts Center, on Dickson Street in Fayetteville, has played host to recent performers such as Bill Cosby and B.B. King, and touring productions of "A Chorus Line," "Evita" and "Chicago."

Every year, former Razorback All-American and current Philadelphia 76er Corliss Williamson puts on a clinic in Little Rock for area children. He is the benefactor of the "Corliss Williamson Charitable Fund," which aids several organizations throughout the state.

As a player, Oronde Taliaferro was recruited by Stan Heath. Now Taliaferro is a key recruiter for his former coach.

Stan Heath and his staff have landed recruiting classes ranked No. 13 in the nation by Rivals.com and No. 16 by Hoop Scoop this year, and ranked No. 7 by Hoop Scoop and the Recruiting Services Consensus Index in 2003.

In addition to Rashard Sullivan, Ronny Thompson has Vincent Hunter, and newcomers Steven Hill, Charles Thomas and Darian Townes to work with in the post.

HEAD COACH STAN HEATH

Baby steps could turn into giant strides for head coach Stan Heath and his staff in 2005.

After showing steady improvement in his first two seasons, the Razorbacks could have a breakout year in Heath's third year at the helm.

When he became Arkansas' 10th head basketball coach on March 28, 2002, he inherited a team returning just 25.1 points and 16.8 rebounds a game from the previous season.

Despite an all-freshman backcourt, the Razorbacks enthusiastically bought into Heath's system and the results were evident. Heath's emphasis on defense resulted in UA holding opponents to 66.5 points a game, the lowest total since 1988 when the Razorbacks limited teams to 64.9 points. The biggest difference was on the boards. After ranking 12th in the Southeastern Conference in 2002 with a -8.7 rebounding margin, 10th with 8.0 offensive rebounds and 11th with 32.1 boards per game, Arkansas was the top rebounding team in the league with 38.0 per game.

The Hogs were also first with 14.54 offensive rebounds a game and third with a +5.5 rebounding margin.

Heath's second club was the eighth-youngest in the nation, based on players contributing quality minutes, but the Hogs continued to take steps in the right direction. The win total increased by three but there were many other signs the program is heading in the right direction. From 2003 to 2004, UA showed marked improvement in the team statistical categories of scoring, three-point percentage, free throw percentage, assists, turnovers, turnover margin, blocked shots and steals, among others.

Heath's coaching has a lot to do with those gains, but his recruiting is also a factor as he and his staff continue attracting several of the top players from across the country.

The 2003 class, which included Ronnie Brewer and Olu Famutimi, was ranked No. 7 in the nation in the Recruiting Services Consensus Index and by Hoop Scoop, and No. 10 by CNNSI.com.

Heath and his staff earned praise last year for signing Al Jefferson, one of the most highly recruited players in the country. Jefferson signed with Arkansas during the fall recruiting period but was selected by the Boston Celtics with the 15th pick in the first round of the 2004 NBA Draft.

Even though Jefferson will not suit up for Arkansas, his signing made inroads with other recruits nationally and this year's Razorback class is still ranked No. 13 by Rivals.com and No. 16 by Hoop Scoop.

The 2003 class raised Arkansas' overall athletic ability. The 2004 class gives UA an inside presence with size in the form of 7-0 Steven Hill, 6-10 Darian Townes and 6-7 Charles Thomas.

Heath came to Arkansas after a record-setting season as the head coach at Kent State University. In 2001, his first year as a head coach, he led the Golden Flashes to a 30-6 record and to the Elite Eight in the NCAA Tournament.

Before going to KSU, he was an assistant for five years under Tom Izzo at Michigan State. He helped the Spartans advance to the Final Four three straight years (1999, 2000, 2001), win the 2000 national title, make another appearance in the Sweet 16 and go a combined 132-37.

On March 19, 2001, Sports Illustrated featured "five college coaches waiting in the wings." Heath was on that list, along with assistant Leonard Perry of Iowa State, Florida assistant John Pelphrey, head coach Jeff Ruland of Iona and Hofstra assistant Jay Wright.

A month later, he was the head coach at Kent State.

Under his guidance, the Golden Flashes won the Mid-American

What Michigan State Head Coach Tom Izzo Says About Stan Heath

"In his five years at Michigan State, he was a part of four straight Big Ten championships, three straight Final Fours and a national championship, so he has a blueprint and an understanding of what it takes to be successful. He took over a Kent State program that had high expectations, yet he found a way to exceed the expectations by winning championships and advancing to the NCAA Tournament Elite Eight."

"Stan has a great basketball mind and relates very well with kids. He's a people person, while also being well organized with an understanding of what he needs to do to accomplish his goals."

Conference regular-season and tournament titles, and came within a victory of reaching the Final Four before falling to Indiana in the South Region finals.

Along the way, Kent set school and MAC records for wins (30), breaking the record of 29 set by Ball State in 1989; became the first MAC team to reach the Elite Eight since Ohio University in 1964; recorded a league-record 21-game winning streak, including a 17-1 mark in conference play; beat three ranked teams in the NCAA Tournament, including No. 20 Oklahoma State, 69-61, No. 8 Alabama, 71-58, and No. 9 Pittsburgh, 78-73 in overtime, before losing to Indiana, 81-69; went 12-0 at home with an average attendance of 4,928, Kent's best since 1970; led the MAC in scoring defense (64.0 ppg), scoring margin (+11.9 ppg), field goal percentage defense (.418), rebounding margin (+5.0 rpg) and assist-to-turnover ratio (1.24) while also ranking second in three-point field goal percentage defense (.326) and turnover margin (+2.78); and suffered its five regular season losses by a total of 15 points.

Individually, Heath's 30 wins ties for the third-most by a first-year head coach in NCAA Division I history with John Warren of Oregon (1945). Only Bill Guthridge of North Carolina (34 in 1998) and Bill Hodges of Indiana State (33 in 1979) won more. The Detroit native was also voted the MAC Coach of the Year and named the national Rookie Coach of the Year by both CBSSportsline.com and CollegeInsider.com.

Before going to Kent, the three-year letterman from Eastern Michigan helped Izzo and the Spartans post records of 17-12 in 1997, 22-8 in 1998, 33-5 in 1999, 32-7 in 2000 and 28-5 in 2001. In addition to the three trips to the Final Four, MSU also reached the Sweet 16 in 1998 and the second round of the NIT in 1997.

Heath, who earned his bachelor's in social science from Eastern Michigan in 1988 and his master's in sports administration from Wayne State (Detroit, Mich.) University in 1993, began his collegiate career at Hillsdale (Mich.) College in 1989 as an assistant. After one season, he moved to Albion (Mich.) College where he was an assistant and the junior varsity head coach for two years. He worked at Wayne State in Detroit the following three years, including serving as associate head coach in 1994 when WSU set a school record for victories (25-5), helping the Tartars win two Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference titles with a trip to the Division II Final Four in 1993.

After two seasons as an assistant at Bowling Green State University, he joined Izzo at Michigan State. He began his coaching career on the prep level, working as assistant varsity and head freshman coach at Lincoln High in Ypsilanti, Mich.

An all-state performer at Catholic Central High in Detroit, he lettered in 1985, '86 and '87 at Eastern Michigan.

He is married to the former Ramona Webb and they have two sons, Jordan (12) and Joshua (nine).

ASSISTANT COACH RONNY THOMPSON

Ronny Thompson is in his second season as an assistant coach after joining head coach Stan Heath's staff during the summer of 2003.

Thompson came to the Razorbacks with a pedigree second to none. He is the son of legendary Hall of Famer and former Georgetown head coach John Thompson III.

Thompson. He is also the brother of current Georgetown head coach John Thompson III.

Thompson adds a wealth of knowledge and coaching experience to Heath's staff. He coached for five seasons as an assistant at Georgetown. In addition, he also worked with another Hall of Famer, head coach Larry Brown, and general manager Billy King as an NBA scout for the Philadelphia 76ers from 1996-98. While with the 76ers, Thompson was an integral part in assisting Brown and King in preparing for games as well as assisting in preparing for the NBA Draft.

Thompson, who played for his father from 1989-92, earned his bachelor's in sociology in 1992 and worked on Wall Street for Prudential Securities.

After working on Wall Street, he decided to pursue coaching and began his second career as an assistant to Jerry Green at the University of Oregon. From 1994-96, he was an assistant at Loyola before going to the NBA. Thompson joined his father's staff after the 1998 NBA season and remained with the Hoyas through 2003. Georgetown's 2001 squad reached the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Tournament. The 2003 team reached the finals of the NIT while the 2000 team advanced to the second round of the NIT.

At Georgetown, Thompson's duties included coordinating recruiting, preparing scouting reports and player development, in addition to on-floor coaching.

His coaching career to this point has been special with time spent working with two coaches who have won NCAA titles and been inducted into the Hall of Fame. Not surprisingly, Heath has Thompson, one of the bright young minds in the coaching profession, involved in all aspects of the Razorback program.

As a player at Georgetown, Thompson was a member of teams that went a combined 94-35, reached the Elite Eight once and the Sweet 16 twice.

Thompson and his wife Erica have a son, Dylan (two).

In his third season as an assistant at Arkansas, Rob Flaska brings a wealth of experience to the Razorback staff. His experience includes eight years as a highly successful college head coach at two schools and 11 years as a Division I assistant coach with his most recent previous stop at TCU from 1999 to 2002.

Flaska, who serves as UA's recruiting coordinator, has been listed by Basketball Times and Hoop Scoop magazine as one of the top assistant coaches in college basketball.

At TCU, he worked under Billy Tubbs, helping lead the Horned Frogs to four of the 10 winning seasons in the school's history with records of 21-11 in 1999, 18-14 in 2000, 20-10 in 2001 and 16-14 in 2002. TCU finished first or second in the nation in team scoring average each of his four seasons in Forth Worth.

Flaska helped put together recruiting classes at TCU which were ranked four straight years as the best in the Western Athletic Conference (WAC) by all major recruiting rating services and magazines, including Basketball Times, Basketball News, Street and Smith's, The Sporting News and Dick Vitale's. The 1998 class was voted as high as 12th-best, the '99 class 13th-best and the '01 class 34th-best in the nation.

As a head coach, Flaska led programs for three seasons (1996-98) at Florida Community College in Jacksonville, Fla. (FCCJ) to a record of 64-31. He was also the head coach at Mott Community College in Flint, Mich., for five seasons (1986-91), posting a record of 121-44. At FCCJ, his team earned top 20 national rankings and reached the Region XII finals in 1997. At Mott, his teams won the Michigan Eastern Conference Championships in '89, '90 and '91, the state title in 1990, and a Region XII championship with a national finalist finish in 1991. He was voted conference coach of the year in '89, '90 and '91, state coach of the year in 1990 and Region XII coach of the year in 1991.

Flaska, who earned a master's in business administration (MBA) from Michigan Tech University in 1984, has had more than 50 players earn scholarships to four-year schools. At FCCJ, he signed the school's all-time leading scorer and only player ever to be named to the NJCCA All-America team. At Mott, 16 of his last 17 players graduated.

He also served as an assistant coach at Trinity Valley Community College (1992-95) for Hall of Fame Coach Leon Spencer, where he recruited five first-team All-Americans. Prior to Trinity, he served as an assistant coach and assistant athletic director at Texas-Pan American (1991-92), where he recruited Grey Guy, the 1993 NCAA Division I scoring champion.

Flaska prepped at Glen Lake High School in Maple City, Mich., under Hall of Fame Coach Don Miller and led his team to the 1997 state championship while earning all-state honors. He played at Michigan Tech, leading the team to its first four winning records in school history and setting school records for assists and steals along the way.

He began his coaching career as an assistant coach at Indiana State University (1982-84) and as an assistant at the University of Detroit (1984-86).

Flaska, who has a son Charlie (15), is married to Joni of Fort Worth and they have a girl, Riley Nicole, born July 4, 2004.

The Flaska family: Joni, Riley Nicole and Rob.

ASSISTANT COACH ORONDE TALIAFERRO

A former player for Stan Heath, Oronde Taliaferro (O-ran-day Tal-la-fair-o) is beginning his third season as an assistant at Arkansas under his former head coach and his fourth overall.

After playing for Heath at Wayne State University in Detroit, Taliaferro, following a very successful prep coaching stint, also in Detroit, was a part of Heath's staff at Kent State and the great run the Golden Flashes had in the 2002 NCAA Tournament.

Taliaferro helped guide the Golden Flashes to a 30-6 record, a berth in the Elite Eight and within one win of the Final Four, and the Mid-American Conference regular-season and tournament championships as Kent led the MAC in scoring defense (64.0 ppg), scoring margin (+11.9 ppg), field goal percentage defense (.418), rebounding margin (+5.0) and assist-to-turnover ratio (1.24) while also ranking second in three-point field goal percentage defense (.326) and turnover margin (+2.78).

Taliaferro followed Heath to Arkansas after the 2002 season at Kent State.

One of his players, Ronnie Brewer, earned freshman All-America honors last year from Rivals.com and College Basketball News.

He went to KSU after five years as the boys varsity head coach at Detroit Central High School where his teams posted a combined record of 101-25. During the 1998 season, he guided Central to a 23-4 record and the Class A state championship in earning Detroit News & Free Press "Dream Team" Coach of the Year honors.

A two-time Public School League Coach of the Year, he also coached Central to the state semifinals in his first season (1997) while the 2001 squad went 20-4 for his second 20-win season in five years.

As a player, he led Wayne State to three Great Lakes Intercollegiate Conference titles, three NCAA Division II Sweet 16 appearances and a combined record of 71-20. He helped the Tartars reach the Final Four in 1993 and set a school record for victories in 1994 (25-5).

Heath originally recruited Taliaferro to Albion (Mich.) College, where he was an assistant in 1990 and 1991. Taliaferro played at Albion as a freshman before transferring to Wayne State.

Taliaferro prepped at Detroit Mumford High School where he was an honorable mention all-city selection as a senior after helping his team reach the city playoffs for the first time in 24 years. His coach at Mumford was the late Jim Boyce, the former Eastern Michigan University coach who recruited Heath to EMU in the mid-1980s.

Taliaferro and his wife, Kim, are the parents of three daughters, Errin, Kaela and Lynsey.

Another staff member with head coaching experience, Darren Sorenson is entering his third year as an assistant coach.

His experience includes stints working with Lefty Driesel, Steve Lavin and Mike LaPlante, in addition to serving as head coach of a junior national team.

Sorenson joined Stan Heath's staff after working the 2002 season as the director of basketball operations at Jacksonville (Ala.) State University, where he earned his master's in general studies.

He was the director of basketball operations in 2000 at Georgia State University under Driesel where his responsibilities included travel budget, equipment budget, coordinating team travel, recruiting organization, databases for recruiting, alumni and boosters, video exchange and team scouting.

In 1999, he was the administrative assistant at UCLA under Lavin where he was part of a staff that recruited the top class in the nation. He also had responsibility for the recruiting database, creation of recruiting mailouts, video scouting, and personal and business correspondence for the head coach.

After beginning his career as the head coach at Weyerhaeuser High School, Sorenson was the head assistant coach at Mount Senario College in Ladysmith, Wis., from 1997-98. He earned his bachelor's in business administration from Mount Senario in 1995.

He also served as the head coach of the Qatar Junior National Team and as an assistant on the national team in 2001. The national team went undefeated and won the country's first championship in the Gulf Coast Countries Tournament.

DAVE ENGLAND
HEAD BASKETBALL TRAINER

In his 21st year as a member of the Arkansas training staff, Dave England is in his 16th season as the head trainer for basketball and baseball.

This summer, he received the District 6 Athletic Trainer Service Award from the National Athletic Trainers Association.

England also worked at Arkansas as a student and graduate assistant trainer. He returned to Fayetteville following a stint in the St. Louis Cardinals baseball organization.

He handles all training duties for Razorback basketball and baseball, and was honored in 2000 as the Arkansas Athletic Trainers' Association Trainer of the Year.

A 1980 graduate of Arkansas with a bachelor's of science degree in education, England worked the 1976 Cotton Bowl and 1978 Orange Bowl football games as a student trainer. He was a graduate assistant for Dean Weber in 1980-81 and went with the Hogs to the 1980 Hall of Fame Bowl. He also worked with baseball during those days and went to the 1979

College World Series where the Razorbacks finished second.

He then accepted an offer to work with the Cardinals. After spending some time in the lower levels of the organization, he worked his way up to the position of head trainer for the Cardinals' Double-A team in Little Rock. He returned to Arkansas in the fall of 1984 as assistant trainer and was promoted to head trainer in 1989.

In working with Razorback basketball, England has been to 13 NCAA Tournaments and two NITs. He's made three trips to the Final Four and worked with the 1994 NCAA champions and the 1995 national runners-up. He returned to the College World Series with the baseball Hogs in 1985 and 1987 while the 2002 club advanced to a Super Regional and the 2004 team reached the College World Series. While working with football he has been to the Liberty and Cotton bowls twice, and the Orange, Holiday and Hall of Fame bowls.

One of seven founding members of the Arkansas Athletic Trainers' Association in 1987, England was inducted into the AATA Hall of Fame in 1999.

He has two daughters, Jennifer, 21 and a student at UA, and Alyson, 12.

KELLY LAMBERT
ASSISTANT STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACH

Kelly Lambert is in his second season supervising the strength and conditioning of the Razorback basketball program while assisting with football after becoming a full-time staff member in 2003.

Lambert has been with the program three years – first as a volunteer strength and conditioning coach with basketball and football in 2000, and then as a graduate assistant from 2001-03.

His responsibilities include assisting with the design of the strength and conditioning program, including speed, plyometrics, flexibility, strength and nutrition, and the implementation for basketball, football, golf and tennis. The Hampton, Ark., native is in charge of the basketball program's daily workouts and updates.

A 1999 graduate of Central Arkansas with a bachelor's in kinesiology with an emphasis in athletic training, he earned his master's in sport management from UA during the summer of 2003. A member of the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association, he is the first person in his family to earn a master's degree.

Lambert, who has also helped the Razorback football team reach the Cotton Bowl in 2001, the Las Vegas Bowl in 2001, the Music City Bowl in 2002 and the Independence Bowl in 2003, graduated from Hampton High School in 1994.

TERRY MERCER OFFICE MANAGER

A major component of the University of Arkansas basketball program, Terry Mercer is in her 27th year as the office manager for Razorback basketball. Her friendly demeanor welcomes visitors to the basketball offices at Bud Walton Arena.

Mercer is in her third season working for head coach Stan

Heath. She worked with Nolan Richardson for 17 years after working the previous seven years for Eddie Sutton.

She handles all correspondence and helps with the administrative details of the Stan Heath Razorback Basketball Camp. Her behind-the-scenes contributions include coordinating Heath's hectic schedule.

Mercer has enjoyed the success of the Razorback program, making four trips to the Final Four and 20 NCAA Tournament excursions.

A native of Saratoga, N.C., where she graduated from high school in 1972, she worked for Southern Piping Company in Wilson, N.C., for six years before her husband, Elton, was transferred to Fayetteville.

She and Elton have a daughter, Heather, 25, a son, Jacob, 19, and a granddaughter. Heather is married to Dennis Starr, and they are the parents of Caitlyn, two.

Rashard Sullivan and the Hogs' other frontcourt players hope for plenty of shots like this one.

Jonathon Modica was seventh in the SEC in shooting last year, hitting 46.2 percent of his shots.

The addition of Darian Townes, Steven Hill and Charles Thomas to the front line could free up Michael Jones for more three-pointers like this one.

#10 RONNIE BREWER

Guard – 6-7 – 210 – Sophomore – 1L – Fayetteville, Ark. (Fayetteville HS)

2004-05 Preview:

Brewer is expected to be the catalyst for the team. He ranked among league leaders in rebounding, assists and steals as a freshman and should continue doing everything again this year. He may not be the point guard, but will be involved in handling the ball on the offensive end.

As a Freshman in 2003-04:

The only player to start all 28 games, he averaged 12.2 points, and team highs of 5.5 rebounds, 3.4 assists and 2.0 steals for the year while shooting 48.1 percent from the floor (125-260), another team high, in earning second-team freshman All-America honors from Rivals.com and third-team freshman All-America honors from College Basketball News. He also made the SEC all-freshman squad. He led the team in scoring four times, in rebounding a team-high eight times and in assists a team-best 15 times. He scored in double figures 18 times.

Voted the team's MVP, he was fourth in the SEC in steals, eighth in assists and 18th in rebounding. In SEC play only, he was second in steals (2.38), ninth in assists (3.19), 19th in rebounding (5.3) and seventh in assist-to-turnover ratio (1.27). Among the league's freshmen, Brewer was second in scoring, rebounding and free throws made (74), first in assists, steals and field goals made (125), and sixth in blocked shots (0.71).

Brewer's assist average is the best at UA since Kareem Reid in 1999 (5.32) and his steal average the best since T.J. Cleveland in 2000 (2.7). His six steals against Florida (2/28) are the second-most for a Razorback in an SEC game, and his 38 steals in SEC play the third-most in a season. His 54 made free throws in an SEC season are the fifth-most in school history.

If he had led the team in scoring, he would have been the first Razorback to lead the club in scoring, rebounding, assists and steals in the same season since Sidney Moncrief in 1979.

In his debut against Nicholls State (11/21), he had 18 points (the most for a Razorback in his first game since junior Jesse Pate [23] in 1996), a game-high eight assists (the most in a UA season-opener since Alvin Robertson [10] in 1984) and a team-high seven rebounds. He led the team in rebounding and assists again in his second outing with nine boards and four assists, to go with eight points, in the win over Grambling (11/25). He made six of eight shots for 12 points and led the team in assists for the third time in three games with seven in the win over Jacksonville University (11/29).

Against Western Carolina (12/22), he recorded his first double-double with 15 points and 10 rebounds, and also had four assists and four steals. He became the first Razorback since Derek Hood in 1999 to record consecutive double-doubles when he had 14 points and 10 rebounds, along with five assists and three steals, in the win at Tulsa (12/30).

At No. 22 Mississippi State (1/10), he had 14 points and team highs of seven rebounds and five assists. Against Ole Miss (1/17), he made 10-of-12 free throws, and had 16 points, six rebounds and two assists. In the win over No. 22 Vanderbilt (1/24), he scored a game-high 21 points on seven of nine shooting, and added four assists and three rebounds.

In the win over No. 25 South Carolina (2/21), he had 17 points on six of 10 shooting, five rebounds, and game highs of five assists, four steals and three blocked shots. Against Florida (2/28), he had game highs of 23 points and six steals along with team highs of seven rebounds and four assists. Against Alabama (3/3), he had 12 points, seven rebounds and two steals, and game highs of five assists and two blocked shots.

He was ill at the SEC Tournament and had just two points and no rebounds, assists or steals against South Carolina (3/11).

In High School:

He earned Parade All-America honors after averaging 26.8 points, 7.5 rebounds and 4.0 assists a game for Coach Barry Gebhart at Fayetteville High School, leading the Bulldogs to a 24-5 finish and into the Class 5A semifinals for the second straight year. He was named the state's Gatorade Player of the Year, Mr. Basketball by the Arkansas Democrat-Gazette and was a finalist for McDonald's All-America honors. He also earned all-conference and all-state honors three times each.

As a junior, Brewer averaged 25.3 points, 7.5 rebounds and 3.2 assists per game. He averaged 15.0 points, 4.0 rebounds and 5.0 assists as a sophomore.

In the 5A West Conference, he scored 973 career points, breaking the previous record of 810 set by former UA All-American Corliss Williamson at Russellville High School.

He helped Fayetteville go 14-0 in conference play in each of his last two years.

Brewer was rated the No. 18 player in the nation by ESPN and was in the top 65 of every major list. He signed with Arkansas after also considering Oklahoma, Oklahoma State and Kansas, among others.

Personal:

Born March 20, 1985, in Portland, Ore., he is the son of Ron and Carolyn Brewer. His father teamed with Sidney Moncrief and Marvin Delph to form the famed "Triplets," who led the Razorbacks to the 1978 Final Four when Brewer earned All-America honors. Ron was the seventh pick in the first round of the 1978 NBA Draft by Portland. Carolyn also played basketball at Arkansas.

Brewer has two brothers and two sisters, and is majoring in journalism. His father also wore No. 10 for the Razorbacks.

Stan Heath on Ronnie Brewer:

"Ronnie is one of the more versatile players, not only in the SEC, but in the country. He played as many as four positions last year and we expect him to play three this year. We feel he is a guy capable of making the players around him better."

#22 PRESTON CRANFORD

Guard – 6-7 – 195 – Sophomore – 1L – Heber Springs, Ark. (Heber Springs HS)

2004-05 Preview:

A big guard with long-range shooting ability, Cranford could earn more time this year as a three-point threat. He has improved his strength since last season and could also play on the wing at small forward.

As a Freshman in 2003-04:

He played a total of 28 minutes in 15 games, averaging 0.5 points and 0.1 rebounds per game.

He went one of two at the line to score his first point as a Razorback at No. 11 Illinois (12/6). He had three points, a rebound and a blocked shot against North Texas (1/3). He played two minutes at Georgia (1/31) and had one rebound. Against Auburn (2/4), he hit his only field goal attempt, a three, and made one of two free throws for four points.

In High School:

He averaged 21.0 points and 8.3 rebounds a game as a senior at Heber Springs High School for Coach Keith Cornett. He earned all-state, all-region and all-conference honors three times each, and made the state all-tournament team twice.

Personal:

Born Jan. 20, 1985, in Anderson, Ind., he is majoring in history. The son of Stuart and Paula Cranford, his father played basketball at Gulf Coast Bible College.

Stan Heath on Preston Cranford:

"Preston learned a lot last year. He is a very good shooter who works very hard every day in practice. We expect him to continue to improve and give us added depth to the wing as a three-point shooter."

#23 OLU FAMUTIMI

Guard / Forward – 6-5 – 212 – Sophomore – 1L – Flint, Mich. (Northwestern HS)

2004-05 Preview:

Famutimi has fully recovered from the high school knee injury which slowed him last year. He is expected to start on the wing this season and become one of the team's leading scorers.

As a Freshman in 2003-04:

He started 13 of 27 games and finished fourth on the team in scoring (7.0) and rebounding (3.5) in earning honorable mention freshman All-America honors from Rivals.com and making the SEC's all-freshman team. He led the team in scoring once and in rebounding five times, and was in double-digits scoring seven times. Over the last three games of the year, he averaged 9.0 points a game.

Named the team's most improved player last year, he put up better numbers over the last half of the season than he did the first. In his first 14 games, he shot 30.3 percent from the floor (27-89) and 58.8 percent at the line (20-34) while averaging 5.6 points and 3.6 rebounds a game. Over the last 13 games, he shot 41.3 percent from the field (43-104) and 72 percent at the line (18-25) while averaging 8.5 points and 3.3 boards. He had 22 assists and 49 turnovers, but over the last 10 games of the year, he had 13 assists with only 14 turnovers.

Among league freshmen, he was fifth in scoring and field goals made (70), sixth in rebounding and steals (0.85), and seventh in free throws made (38).

He had seven points and four rebounds in the opener against Nicholls (11/21). In his second outing, against Grambling (11/25), he scored in double figures for the first time, making four of seven shots for 10 points. He followed with eight points, three rebounds, three assists and two steals in the win over Jacksonville University (11/29).

He had 11 points and a team-high eight rebounds along with two assists and two steals in 27 minutes at No. 11 Illinois (12/6).

At Auburn (1/21), he had 14 points on five of 10 shooting, seven rebounds and two steals. In the win over No. 22 Vanderbilt (1/24), he had five points and two rebounds.

At Tennessee (2/11), he was eight of 15 from the field and scored a team-high 18 points while adding five rebounds and three steals.

In the win over No. 25 South Carolina (2/21), he had 10 points on four of five shooting, a game-high six rebounds and four assists. He had nine points and three assists against Florida (2/28). Against Alabama (3/3), he had 10 points on four of eight shooting. In the SEC Tournament against South Carolina (3/11), he had 13 points and seven rebounds. He made just two of 10 shots but was nine of 10 at the line.

In High School:

As a senior, he earned McDonald's and Parade All-America honors after averaging 25.0 points, 14.0 rebounds, 4.5 assists and 3.0 steals per game. He also earned all-city, all-state and MVP honors for Coach David Bush.

As a junior, Famutimi, who grew up in Toronto, Ontario, averaged 23.0 points, 13.0 rebounds, 4.0 blocked shots, 3.0 assists and 2.0 steals a game.

According to ESPN, he was the sixth-best player in the nation. Rivals.com listed him as a five-star prospect and the No. 4 shooting guard in the country, and rated him the No. 17 overall prospect in the nation. Hoop Scoop magazine listed him as the No. 7 senior prospect in the nation and the No. 3 participant at the adidas ABCD Camp. Prep Stars Recruiter's Handbook and Van Coleman's FutureStars rated him the No. 11 overall prospect in the country. While playing AAU ball for the Michigan Hurricanes, he was named to the adidas Big Time All-Tournament team.

In seven AAU tournaments prior to his senior season, he was named MVP three times and he tied Kobe Bryant's record with 40 points in the ABCD Adidas All-American Camp All-Star Game. At Rick Barret's Annual Gym Rats Midnight Madness at Cherry Hill, N.J., in September 2002, he had 37 points, 12 rebounds and four assists.

Personal:

Born Feb. 21, 1984, he is the son of Yemi and Margret Famutimi. He was born in Toronto, Ontario, and has one sister. "O-boy" is majoring in business management.

Stan Heath on Olu Famutimi:

"We saw flashes of Olu last year. We expect him to have a breakout year and emerge as a consistent scoring threat on our team."

#15 ERIC FERGUSON

Point Guard – 6-1 – 203 – Junior – 2L – Long Island, N.Y. (Milford [Conn.] Academy)

2004-05 Preview:

The best defensive perimeter player on the team Ferguson is the leading candidate to start at point guard. He improved his ball-handling last year and is also the team's top returning three-point shooter. If not playing the point, he could also move over to shooting guard.

As a Sophomore in 2003-04:

He was third on the team in scoring (8.1) and added 2.6 rebounds while dishing out 78 assists (2.8) with just 55 turnovers. He led the team in scoring three times, in rebounding once and in assists eight times, and was in double figures scoring 11 times.

After recording 91 assists with 109 turnovers in 2003, he improved those numbers to 78 assists and just 55 turnovers in '04. He had more assists than turnovers in a game 15 times.

Ferguson was named the team's defensive player of the year and he also received the free throw award after shooting 85.7 percent at the line (48-56), a major improvement from 60 percent in 2003 (51-85).

Through two years, he has 93 assists in SEC play, which is the fifth-most in school history. His eight-of-eight free throw performance against Ole Miss (1/17) ties the school record for an SEC game.

In the win over Oral Roberts (12/3), he sparked the team off the bench with 18 points on six of 11 shooting, and had two assists, four rebounds and four steals. He started against Southeast Missouri (12/9), and had 18 points on five of 10 shooting and three assists. In the win at Tulsa (12/30), he had 12 points, seven rebounds and four assists.

Against Ole Miss (1/17), he was eight-of-eight at the line and led the team with 19 points and three assists. At Auburn (1/21), he had a game-high 18 points, and added two assists, two rebounds and four steals. In the SEC Tournament against South Carolina (3/11), he had 13 points, five rebounds and two assists.

As a Freshman in 2002-03:

As the team's only true point guard, he was the starter from the beginning. Due to a lack of depth, he logged a team-high 932 minutes, almost 34 a game, which was more than 200 minutes more than the next closest player (Dionisio Gomez – 714).

Ferguson also led the team in assists (3.3), steals (1.9) and three-point buckets (46) while averaging 10.9 points and 3.1 rebounds. His assist total (91) would have led the team in two of the previous three years while his 46 threes would have topped the club in three of the previous five seasons.

He shot 35.1 percent from the floor (104-296), 30.7 percent on threes (46-150) and 60 percent at the line (51-85). Ferguson led the team in scoring a team-high nine times and was in double figures 17 times, and led the team in assists 19 times.

After scoring nine points in the opener against Jackson State, he reached double figures in the next eight games with a team-high 14 points against No. 22 Tulsa (11/30) and a team-high 15 against Troy State (12/3). He had 11 points, four rebounds, two assists and two steals against No. 20 Illinois (12/7).

Against Louisiana Tech (12/10), he had 16 points, four rebounds, five assists and three steals, joining Jonathon Modica (19), Kendrick Davis (16) and Rashard Sullivan (10) in double figures. That game marked the first time four UA freshmen scored in double-digits in the same game since Philip McKellar, Mario Credit, Ron Huery and Cannon Whitby pulled it off in a 93-76 loss to SMU on March 1, 1987.

In the win over LSU (1/22), he hit six of 10 shots, including three of five three-pointers, and had 19 points, three rebounds, two assists and three steals in 35 minutes.

Ferguson had a huge game at South Carolina (2/15), hitting eight of 14 shots, including four three-pointers, and finished with 20 points, six assists, three rebounds and three steals with just two turnovers. Against No. 2 Kentucky (2/19), he scored a team-high 13 points and had two assists and two steals with only two turnovers.

In the win at Vanderbilt (2/26), he had 14 points, five assists and eight rebounds, and made seven of eight free throws in the final 1:20. In the win over No. 20 Mississippi State (3/1), he led the team with 15 points, 13 in the second half, and added five rebounds and two assists.

In High School:

Ferguson prepped at Hempstead (N.Y.) High School but played at Milford (Conn.) Academy in 2001. As a senior in 2000 at Hempstead, he averaged 22.5 points, 9.0 rebounds, 5.5 assists and 5.0 steals a game for Coach Ted Adams.

At Milford, a prep school, he averaged 16.0 points, 7.0 assists and 6.0 rebounds per contest for Coach Bob Regen.

Ferguson signed with Villanova following his high school career and later enrolled at Milford.

Personal:

Born Jan. 13, 1982, he is the son of Margaret Ferguson. Nicknamed "E-Star," he is majoring in arts and sciences. Ferguson signed with Arkansas after also considering Villanova, DePaul, Oklahoma, Iowa State, North Carolina State, Providence, East Carolina and Iona.

Stan Heath on Eric Ferguson:

"Entering his third year, he has the most experience at the guard position. A very good defender with speed, his free throw shooting and three-point shooting were a strong point for us last season."

#33 VINCENT HUNTER

Forward / Center – 6-10 – 214 – Sophomore – 1L – Little Rock, Ark. (J.A. Fair HS)

2004-05 Preview:

Hunter has added weight and strength since last season and will be a key part of UA's frontcourt. He may start at forward and may also slide out to the wing position.

As a Freshman in 2003-04:

Slowed by a dislocated right shoulder early in the season, he played in 24 games with nine starts, averaging 3.8 points and 3.2 rebounds a game. He led the team in rebounding three times and scored in double figures twice.

He suffered a dislocated right shoulder after playing 14 minutes at No. 11 Illinois (12/6). He missed the Southeast Missouri (12/9), Louisiana Tech (12/17), Oklahoma State (12/20) and Western Carolina (12/22) games. He returned against Tulsa (12/30), but was hampered by the injury the remainder of the season.

Through the first four games, prior to the injury, he averaged 7.8 points and 4.5 rebounds while shooting 72.2 percent from the floor (13-18).

Among the SEC's freshmen, he was fifth in blocked shots (0.92), eighth in rebounding and 14th in scoring.

He had nine points, five rebounds and two blocked shots in the opener against Nicholls State (11/21). He had eight points and three rebounds against Grambling (11/25). In the win over Oral Roberts (12/3), he had eight points on four of four shooting and a team-high seven rebounds in just 16 minutes.

At Alabama (1/14), he made three of five shots and had seven points, four rebounds and two blocked shots. Against Ole Miss (1/17), he made 12-of-14 free throws, and had 14 points and a game-high nine rebounds.

He had six points, six rebounds and two blocked shots at Auburn (1/21). In the SEC Tournament against South Carolina (3/11), he had 10 points and six rebounds, going two of four from the field and six of six at the line.

In High School:

As a senior, he averaged 15.0 points, 12.0 rebounds and 8.0 blocked shots a game in leading J.A. Fair to the state finals. He was named MVP of the Class 4A state tournament.

As a junior, Hunter averaged 18.0 points, 12.0 rebounds, 5.7 blocked shots, 3.0 assists and 2.0 steals per game.

He earned all-state honors as a sophomore, junior and senior.

Hunter, who was rated the 103rd-best prospect in the nation by Hoop Scoop magazine, signed with Arkansas after also considering Oklahoma State, Cincinnati, Iowa, Mississippi State, Tennessee and Penn State.

Personal:

Born Oct. 22, 1984, in Little Rock, he is the son of Vincent and Shirley Hunter. He has one sister and is enrolled in the Fulbright College of Arts and Sciences. His nickname is "V-Mac."

Stan Heath on Vincent Hunter:

"Vincent has added 20 pounds to his frame over the summer. We expect him to help us on the front line and provide us an athletic big man who can make outside shots."

MATT JONES

Forward – 6-6 – 237 – Junior – 2L – Fort Smith, Ark. (Northside HS)

2004-05 Preview:

If Jones is not pursuing a professional football career, he will join the basketball team following football season. If he plays, he will once again be a key part of UA's front line and may also see time on the wing.

2003-04 Basketball (Sophomore):

He played in 17 games with 10 starts and averaged 5.0 points and 4.5 rebounds, tying for second on the team. He led the team in scoring once, in assists once and in rebounding four times, and he scored in double digits three times.

He shot 47.6 percent from the field, third on the club, and was fifth with 27 assists (1.6) and third with 24 steals (1.4), despite playing in only 17 games. In seven games in January, he played less than 12 minutes a game with averages of 2.1 points and 2.1 rebounds. In seven February games, he played almost 32 minutes a game with his numbers improving to 7.7 points and 6.6 rebounds with a .511 field goal percentage in those contests. In five games against ranked teams, he averaged 4.0 points and a team-high 6.2 rebounds.

In his first game, against North Texas (1/3), he had two points, two rebounds and two assists with no turnovers and a blocked shot in 11 minutes. He played three days after quarterbacking UA to a 27-14 win over Missouri in the Independence Bowl.

In the win over No. 22 Vanderbilt (1/24), he had four points and then a career-high six rebounds. Against Auburn (2/4), he had 11 points on four-of-five shooting, and added two assists and three steals.

At LSU (2/7), he made seven of 11 shots and recorded his first double-double with team highs of 14 points and 10 rebounds. At Tennessee (2/11), he had seven points, seven rebounds and seven assists with no turnovers. Against No. 6 Mississippi State, he had nine points, 10 rebounds, four assists and three steals. He had four points and a game-high nine rebounds at No. 9 Kentucky (2/18).

2003 Football (Junior):

Jones helped the Razorbacks cap a 9-4 season with a 27-14 win over Missouri in the Independence Bowl (12/31), he had two points, two rebounds and two touchdowns, and completing six of 14 passes for 49 yards.

For the season, he ran 96 times for 707 yards and eight touchdowns. He completed 132 of 230 passes for 1,917 yards with 18 touchdowns and seven interceptions. He also caught one pass for 12 yards. He broke his own school record for rushing yards by a quarterback for the second time.

2003 Basketball:

He did not play in order to rest his sore right (throwing) shoulder.

2002 Football (Sophomore):

He broke his school record for rushing yards by a quarterback by gaining 614 and five touchdowns on 129 carries, helping UA win the SEC Western Division championship and earn a bid to the Music City Bowl. He completed 122 of 234 passes for 1,592 yards and 16 touchdowns with eight interceptions.

2002 Basketball (Freshman):

He saw action in 11 of 16 games after joining the team, and averaged 4.2 points and 2.3 rebounds while shooting 47.7 percent (21-44) from the floor. He also had 10 assists, eight turnovers one blocked shot and five steals.

In the win over No. 5 Alabama (2/20), he had eight points on four of seven shooting and four rebounds. He had seven points, four rebounds and a team-high four assists at Tennessee (2/13). He had six points, four rebounds (all offensive), two assists and two steals at No. 12 Kentucky (2/23).

He joined the team on Jan. 7 following the Cotton Bowl and played one minute in a game against Mississippi State the next night, scoring on a dunk with eight seconds remaining.

2001 Football (Freshman):

As a true freshman quarterback, he helped lead the Razorbacks to the Cotton Bowl by rushing for 592 yards and five touchdowns on 74 carries (8.0), setting a school record for rushing yards by a quarterback. He also threw for 275 yards and four scores (27-12-3).

In High School:

An all-state basketball player, he led Northside in scoring (18.9), rebounding (7.6) and assists as a senior after doing the same as a junior at Van Buren HS when he broke former UA All-American Corliss Williamson's conference scoring average record by averaging 24.5 points a game. As a senior at Northside, he shot 63 percent from the field.

In football, he was rated the No. 21 quarterback nationally by Rivals100.com and the No. 13 quarterback/super athlete in the nation by Max Emfinger. As a senior, he completed 62 of 137 passes for 830 yards and seven touchdowns, and ran for 939 yards and 13 TDs on 105 carries. He was named all-conference, all-area and all-state.

Personal:

Born April 22, 1983, he is the son of Steve and Paula Jones. Majoring in middle school education, he was a member of the 2002 SEC Academic Honor Roll.

Stan Heath on Matt Jones:

"He really helped us last year. If he chooses to play basketball, he will give us front-line depth with experience. He is a great athlete with terrific passing skills on the basketball court as well."

#1 MICHAEL JONES

Guard / Forward – 6-9 – 222 – Senior – 3L – Little Rock, Ark. (Parkview HS)

2004-05 Preview:

One of the team's better outside shooters, the addition of Steven Hill and Darian Townes may allow Jones to spend more time on the perimeter to take advantage of his three-point range.

As a Junior in 2003-04:

He came on at the middle of the year and ended with averages of 4.8 points and 1.7 rebounds, seeing action in 26 games with two starts. He led the team in scoring three times and in rebounding twice, and was in double figures scoring four times. Over the last two games of the year, he averaged 12.0 points despite playing a total of 21 minutes.

In the 17 games in which he played five or more minutes, his numbers improved to 6.8 points and 2.4 rebounds a game with a .384 field goal percentage (38-99) and a .731 free throw mark (19-26). If his averages were calculated over 40 minutes of playing time per game, he would have been the team's second-leading scorer (19.2) to Jonathon Modica (22.3).

His five-of-six three-point effort (.833) against Auburn (2/4), is the second-best percentage in school history in an SEC game.

He led the team with six rebounds in the win over Jacksonville University (11/29) while adding four points.

At Alabama (1/14), he made three of five shots and scored seven points in nine minutes. In the win over No. 22 Vanderbilt (1/24), he got his first start of the year and responded with an 18-point, seven-rebound effort in 33 minutes.

Against Auburn (2/4), he made six-of-seven shots, including five-of-six threes, for a game-high 17 points. He also had four rebounds and two assists. He had seven points, four rebounds, and one assist, one steal and one blocked shot at LSU (2/7). At Tennessee (2/11), he had 13 points and four rebounds. He had six points and three rebounds against Florida (2/28). He played just three minutes at Ole Miss (3/6), but had nine points on three of six shooting. In the SEC Tournament against South Carolina (3/11), he came off the bench and scored a team-high 15 points on five of 13 shooting, including three of eight on threes. He also had two rebounds and a blocked shot in 18 minutes.

Jones was fifth on the team with 5.3 points and eighth with 2.5 rebounds a game. He was fourth on the club with 29 three-pointers and third with a .349 three-point percentage (29-83).

In three November games, he shot 50 percent from the floor (10-20) and from three-point (5-10), and 71.4 percent from the line (5-7) while averaging 10.0 points and 4.3 rebounds. In six January games, he averaged 8.8 points and 4.4 rebounds while making 12 of 30 threes (.400).

He scored 12 points in the season-opener against JSU (11/22). At Oral Roberts (11/26), he hit five of seven shots for 14 points and added six rebounds. Jones made a career-high seven shots in 10 attempts, including four of six three-pointers, and matched his career high with 18 points against Memphis (1/2).

Jones started against LSU (1/22) and hit six of 10 shots, including four of seven three-pointers, for 16 points. He also had seven rebounds and one blocked shot in a career-high 37 minutes. Jones had eight points in the win over No. 22 Alabama (2/5). At No. 23 Mississippi State (2/8), he had 11 points and five rebounds in just 19 minutes.

As a Freshman in 2001-02:

Jones was the only regular to not start a game, but he saw action in 25 contests. He averaged 4.6 points and 1.6 rebounds while shooting 48.3 percent from the field and 77.8 percent at the line. He made 33.3 percent of his three-point attempts.

In seven games against ranked teams, he shot 50 percent (20-40) and averaged 7.7 points and 2.9 rebounds.

In the loss at No. 7 Alabama (1/30), he recorded his first double-double with career highs of 18 points and 10 rebounds.

In the 94-91 loss at No. 5 Illinois (12/8), he had nine points on four of seven shooting and a team-high five rebounds in 22 minutes. In the overtime win over No. 4 Florida (1/26), he scored 15 points on five of nine shooting and added three rebounds.

He shot 50 percent or better in 13 of his 25 games.

2000-01: He redshirted.

In High School:

As a senior at Parkview High School, he averaged 14.3 points, 6.8 rebounds and 2.8 blocked shots a game. He closed his Parkview career with a 29-point, 16-rebound game. He averaged 10.0 points and 8.0 rebounds as a junior. Jones was also a member of Parkview's Honor Society.

Jones averaged 20.0 points and 8.0 rebounds for the AAU Arkansas Wings.

Personal:

Majoring in communication, he is the son of Jerry and Rhonda Jones. He has two brothers and one sister. He was born May 25, 1982.

Stan Heath on Michael Jones:

"Michael may be our best three-point shooter. He is very capable of getting hot and has worked hard this summer at becoming a consistent threat inside as well as outside. Entering into his fifth year, Michael is focused and ready to have a strong year."

#24 JONATHON MODICA

Guard / Forward – 6-4 – 212 – Junior – 2L – Smackover, Ark. (Smackover HS)

2004-05 Preview:

Modica improved his shooting last year and responded by finishing eighth in the SEC in scoring (16.5 ppg) and seventh in field goal percentage (.462), and earned second-team All-SEC honors. This year he's worked on his ball-handling and defense, and will once again be counted on for his scoring, both inside and out.

As a Sophomore in 2003-04:

A second-team All-Southeastern Conference selection by the league's coaches, he led the team in scoring with 16.5 points a game while shooting 46.2 percent from the floor (157-340), 32.5 percent on threes (37-114) and 78.2 percent at the line (111-142). He became the first Razorback since Kareem Reid (116-169, .686) in 1996 to make 100 free throws in a season and his scoring average is UA's second-highest since Corliss Williamson scored 19.7 points per game in 1995 (Janner Pargo averaged 16.6 in 2002).

Modica led the team in scoring a team-high 16 times, and in rebounding and assists twice each. He was in double figures scoring 22 times and had nine 20-point games. His 33-point outing against Mississippi State (2/14) was the third-highest in the SEC during the year and tied for the highest point total in a league game. He averaged 6.7 rebounds over the last three games of the year.

Modica was eighth in the SEC in scoring, seventh in field goal percentage and ninth in free throw percentage.

In the opener against Nicholls State (11/21), he nailed 11 of 16 shots and matched his career high of 26 points. He was five of seven from the field and eight of eight at the line for a team-high 19 points in the win over Grambling (11/25). He made 10 of 13 shots for a game-high 23 points in the win over Jacksonville University (11/29).

In the win over Oral Roberts (12/3), he made six of 12 shots and had 18 points along with two assists and three steals. He led the team in scoring for the fifth straight time in the game at No. 11 Illinois (12/6), becoming the first player since Pat Bradley in 1997 to do so. He had 20 points on six of 11 shooting. Against Southeast Missouri (12/9), he led the team in scoring with 20 points and added eight rebounds.

Against Louisiana Tech (12/17), he had a game-high 22 points. He followed with a game-high 23 points against Oklahoma State (12/20). Against OSU, Modica also led the team with six rebounds and four assists. His eight-game streak of leading the team in scoring ended when he was limited to four points on one of seven shooting and five rebounds against Western Carolina (12/22). His streak matches Joe Kleine (1985) and Marvin Delph (1977) for the second longest at UA since 1976. Todd Day led the team in scoring in nine consecutive games in 1991.

In the win at Tulsa (12/30), he scored 28 points and added seven rebounds. Against North Texas (1/3), he had 13 points. In the win over No. 22 Vanderbilt (1/24), he made seven of 12 shots, including four of six threes, and scored a game-high 21 points. Against No. 6 Mississippi State (2/14), he made 12 of 19 shots and finished with a career-high 33 points and four rebounds.

As a Freshman in 2002-03:

He led the team in scoring (11.5 ppg) and three-point percentage (.360, 31-86), was second in rebounding (4.5 rpg), shooting (.464, 117-252) and with 29 steals, and led the team with 58 free throws made while shooting 65.9 percent at the line (58-88).

He averaged 12.8 points in nine games against ranked opponents and 11.5 in 17 games against NCAA Tournament teams, both team highs.

Modica led the team in scoring seven times, was in double figures 15 times and led the club in assists twice.

He had 11 points and a game-high 13 rebounds in the opener against Jackson State (11/22), becoming the first Razorback in 20 years to begin his UA career with a double-double. Joe Kleine had 15 points and 10 rebounds in the 74-57 win over Southeast Missouri State on Nov. 27, 1982.

He scored 19 points on seven of 11 shooting, and added three rebounds against Louisiana Tech (12/10). He joined Kendrick Davis (16), Eric Ferguson (16) and Rashard Sullivan (10) in double figures. That game marked the first time four UA freshmen scored in double-digits in the same game since Philip McKellar, Mario Credit, Ron Huery and Cannon Whitby pulled it off in a 93-76 loss to SMU on March 1, 1987.

In a game featuring the top five scoring freshmen in the SEC at No. 4 Florida (2/1), Modica stole the show with a game-high 26 points on seven of 12 shooting. He also had five rebounds and two steals.

In his next outing, the win over No. 22 Alabama (2/5), he had another 26-point outing on eight of 19 shooting, including four of six on threes. He was also six of seven at the line, and added five rebounds, two assists and two steals. He became the first Arkansas freshman to record back-to-back 25-point games since former All-American Todd Day turned the trick in 1989.

In High School:

A three-time all-state selection and Union County player of the year, and a four-time all-conference pick, Modica was named KATV-TV's Mr. Basketball as a senior and he was ranked the No. 1 player in the state.

As a senior, he averaged 33.2 points, 13.2 rebounds and 3.1 steals for Coach Mike Poff in leading Class 2A Smackover to a 20-7 finish. As a junior, he averaged 32.3 points, 9.3 rebounds and 3.2 steals on a 21-8 club.

In his first game at UA's Bud Walton Arena, he scored a game-high 17 points in 18 minutes to lead the East to an 88-79 win over the West in the state all-star game.

During the spring, Modica had 28 points and eight rebounds in helping his team to a 149-120 victory in the Kentucky Derby Festival Classic, a national all-star game at Freedom Hall in Louisville, Ky.

He scored 20 points and had 10 rebounds in leading the Arkansas Hawks to the AAU state title in 2001. Modica also played for the South at the 2001 USA Basketball Men's Youth Developmental Festival.

He played football until his senior season and then devoted all of his attention to basketball. As a junior, he completed 126 of 246 passes for 1,573 yards and 13 touchdowns, ran 85 times for 424 yards and six scores, and caught three passes for 61 yards and three TDs.

Personal:

Born Sept. 26, 1984, he is the son of Amanda Stephens. Majoring in business, his nickname is "Pookie." He signed with Arkansas over Tennessee, Kentucky and Florida, among others.

Stan Heath on Jonathon Modica:

"Jonathon has continued to develop each year. He's worked hard to improve his ball-handling and defense over the summer to go along with his scoring ability. When it all comes together, he could be special."

#20 RASHARD SULLIVAN

Forward – 6-8 – 239 – Junior – 2L – Ft. Lauderdale, Fla. (St. Thomas Aquinas HS)

2004-05 Preview:

Sullivan has added weight and strength to his frame for the second straight year. He will be a key part of UA's frontcourt rotation and will be looked to for his defense and rebounding.

As a Sophomore in 2003-04:

He played in 26 games and made 10 starts, averaging 1.2 points, 3.0 rebounds and a team-high 1.1 blocked shots per game. He led the team in rebounding twice. Over the last four games of the year, he had 14 rebounds and no points. He was scoreless in 16 games and had four or more rebounds eight times.

He had five blocked shots at Ole Miss (3/6), the fourth-most in an SEC game in school history.

In the win over Oral Roberts (12/3), he had three rebounds and three assists, but did not take a shot. He hit both of his shots from the floor for four points, and added five rebounds, one assist and one block at No. 11 Illinois (12/6). Against Louisiana Tech (12/17), he had two points, four rebounds and two blocked shots.

Against Oklahoma State (12/20), he didn't score, but he had five rebounds, two assists, two steals and three blocked shots. He had a game-high 12 rebounds and three blocked shots to go with three points against Western Carolina (12/22).

In the win at Tulsa (12/30), he had five points, five rebounds, two blocked shots, two assists and a steal. Against North Texas (1/3), he had six points on three of three shooting, three rebounds, two assists, two blocked shots and a steal in just 14 minutes.

Against LSU (1/6), he had two points, seven rebounds and two blocked shots. He had a streak of nine straight games with one or more blocked shots snapped at Alabama (1/14). He had four rebounds and a steal in 10 minutes against Florida (2/28).

He started at Ole Miss (3/6) and did not score, but he had a game-high nine rebounds, and a career and game-high five blocked shots.

As a Freshman in 2002-03:

He averaged 2.4 points and 3.2 rebounds a game while shooting 40 percent from the floor (28-70) and 35.3 percent at the line (12-34). Over the last six games of the year, when he averaged 20 minutes a game and played 120 of his 374 total minutes, he averaged a team-best 6.8 rebounds and hit 12 of 26 shots (.462) to score 4.0 points a game.

In UA's wins, he made 55.2 percent of his shots (16-29), and averaged 3.9 points and 3.3

rebounds. In seven December games, he made 14 of 21 shots (.667) and averaged 4.4 points.

Against Louisiana Tech (12/10), he had 10 points on five of six shooting in his first start, and added two rebounds, an assist, a blocked shot and a steal. He joined Jonathon Modica (19), Kendrick Davis (16) and Eric Ferguson (16) in double figures. That game marked the first time four UA freshmen scored in double-digits in the same game since Philip McKellar, Mario Credit, Ron Huery and Cannon Whitby pulled it off in a 93-76 loss to SMU on March 1, 1987.

He hit three of five shots, and had seven points, four rebounds, two assists, one block and one steal against Sam Houston State (12/18). He had a team-high nine rebounds along with four points in the win at Vanderbilt (2/26).

At Auburn (3/6), he had eight points and a season-high 10 rebounds, including a personal-best five offensive boards, and played a season-high 33 minutes.

In High School:

Sullivan was his team's MVP after averaging 15.0 points, 12.0 rebounds and 5.0 blocked shots a game in helping Coach Steve Strand's club go 27-6. Street & Smith's listed Sullivan as a high honorable mention All-American.

As a junior, he averaged 13.0 points, 11.0 rebounds and 2.0 blocks on an 18-9 club. As a sophomore, he helped St. Thomas Aquinas go 22-7 with averages of 10.0 points, 8.0 rebounds and 2.0 blocks.

He also participated in track and was his team's MVP.

Personal:

Born July 2, 1984, he is the son of Anthony Sullivan and Hyacinth Madden. He was born in Queens, N.Y., and has six brothers and sisters. Sullivan is majoring in arts and sciences.

Stan Heath on Rashard Sullivan:

"Rashard could be a great rebounder and defender, and really help us in those areas. He has gotten stronger and experienced over the years. He could be really solid competing on the front line for us."

RAZORBACK NEWCOMERS

#51 STEVEN HILL

Center – 7-0 – 233
Freshman – HS – Branson, Mo.
(Branson HS)

2004-05 PREVIEW:

One of two key newcomers at center along with Darian Townes, Hill may start. Even if he doesn't start, he will see significant playing time.

IN HIGH SCHOOL:

A Nike All-American after being rated one of the top 20 players at the Nike Camp, he was rated the No. 7 center in the nation and the No. 33 overall prospect by TheInsidersHoops.com.

A four-time all-conference and all-district selection, he earned all-state honors as a junior and senior.

He averaged 20.0 points, 10.0 rebounds and 6.0 blocked shots a game as a senior for head coach Randy Bishop, helping his club go 20-6.

Listed as the best high school shot blocker in the country by Bob Gibbons' All-Star Sports, he broke the blocked shot record at the USA Basketball Sports Festival at Colorado Springs, Colo., during the summer of 2003 competing against 50 of the top players in the nation.

As a junior, he averaged 18.0 points, 9.0 rebounds and 7.0 blocked shots on a 19-11 club. His sophomore team was 15-13 and his freshman club 18-9.

A four-year member of the honor roll, he also made academic all-state and all-conference. Hill signed with Arkansas after also considering Kansas and Missouri.

PERSONAL:

Born Nov. 14, 1985, in Chanute, Kan., he is the son of Troy and the late Penny Hill. He is enrolled in the Fulbright College of Arts and Sciences. He played AAU ball with the Arkansas Wings. His father played basketball at Oral Roberts.

Stan Heath on Steven Hill:

"We're really excited about Steven and his future as a Razorback. His size, mobility and smarts allow him to grow at a fast rate and potentially be a force for years to come."

#4 DONTELL JEFFERSON

Point Guard – 6-4 – 181
Junior – JC – Lithonia, Ga. (Atlanta Metropolitan College)

2004-05 PREVIEW:

Jefferson should challenge for the starting point guard position. A true point guard, he will definitely be in the backcourt rotation.

IN JUNIOR COLLEGE:

He was named to the All-Georgia Junior College Athletic Association Region XVII team after helping Atlanta Metropolitan College go 21-7 and finish second in the district at 8-4.

As a sophomore, he averaged 16.4 points, 6.7 rebounds, 9.2 assists and 3.4 steals per game. He ranked eighth in the GJCAA in scoring, 10th in rebounding, second in assists and third in steals. He was also fourth with an .804 free-throw percentage and 12th with a .454 field goal percentage.

As a freshman, Jefferson averaged 17.0 points and 6.0 assists per game for head coach Robert Prichett.

IN HIGH SCHOOL:

Jefferson played four years at Stephenson High in Stone Mountain, Ga., for head coach Kerry Sandifer.

PERSONAL:

Born Dec. 15, 1983, in Cordele, Ga., he is the son of Marvin Collier and Altanese Williams. He is majoring in sociology.

Stan Heath on Dontell Jefferson:

"Dontell is a pure point guard. He sees the floor well and gets the ball to teammates in great position. His two years of junior college should help him transition to major college."

#3 MARCUS MONK

Freshman – HS – Lepanto, Ark. (East Poinsett County HS)

2004-05 PREVIEW:

Monk is expected to join the basketball team following football season. He will play quality minutes and could make an immediate impact with his defense on the wing.

IN HIGH SCHOOL:

An all-state selection in both football and basketball, he plans to play both sports at Arkansas. The valedictorian of his class, he is considered by some publications as the top basketball prospect in the state. He was named the Arkansas Democrat-Gazette's Athlete of the Year for his senior season.

As a senior, he averaged 20.8 points, 16.4 rebounds, 4.9 assists, 3.8 blocked shots and 2.5 steals, and was named the Arkansas Democrat-Gazette's Mr. Basketball. He led his team to the Class AAA state championship and was named MVP of the tournament.

As a junior, he averaged 25.8 points and 15.7 rebounds after also averaging a double-double as a sophomore.

He won state basketball titles as a senior and a freshman.

Rivals.com rated him the No. 37 wing in the nation and the No. 142 overall prospect in the country.

As a senior in football, he made 72 receptions for 1,074 yards and 12 touchdowns. He caught 52 passes for 1,104 yards and 19 scores as a junior. Earlier this fall, he was named one of just four National High School Scholar-Athletes of the Year by The National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame. The NFF selects four honorees from around the country who have exemplified the team "scholar-athlete" by succeeding in academics, football and citizenship during their high school careers.

PERSONAL:

Born April 26, 1986, he is the son of Dewayne Perry and Jackie Monk. A member of the national honor society, the math and science clubs, and the student council, he was the valedictorian of his class, graduating first.

Stan Heath on Marcus Monk:

"He is a talented, versatile, smart athlete. He could end up being one of our best defensive players on the perimeter. The jury is still out as to how the football season will allow him to transition quickly, but I expect him to be a strong contributor."

#2 SAMMY MUNSEY

Guard – 6-1 – 181
Freshman – HS – Little Rock, Ark. (Pulaski Academy)

2004-05 PREVIEW:

A good shooter and a good all-around athlete, he may earn minutes as a three-point threat.

IN HIGH SCHOOL:

A two-time all-state selection, he earned first-team All-Arkansas honors as a senior and was nominated for McDonald's All-America honors.

He averaged 23.0 points, 8.0 rebounds and 5.0 steals per game as a senior, leading Matt Daniel's club to a 31-5 finish. He averaged 18.0 points and 6.0 rebounds as a junior on a 34-1 team, and 15.0 points and 5.0 rebounds as a sophomore on another 34-1 team, both for head coach Scott Loucks.

A member of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, he lettered in basketball four times and in track twice.

PERSONAL:

Born Jan. 6, 1986, in Little Rock, he is the son of Ruth Ann and David Munsey. He is enrolled in the Fulbright College of Arts and Sciences.

Stan Heath on Sammy Munsey:

"Sammy is a very good three-point shooter. He's very deceptive in his athleticism and strength. We're very excited to have him and feel like he will help our team, especially in practice, but who knows what the future holds for him."

#21 CHARLES THOMAS

Guard / Forward – 6-7 – 243

Freshman – HS – Jackson, Miss.
(Callaway HS)2004-05 PREVIEW:

Thomas is expected to see considerable playing time this year. He may start out as power forward but also see time on the wing.

IN HIGH SCHOOL:

Thomas earned Nike All-America honors after being rated one of the top 20 players at the Nike Camp. He was rated the No. 13 power forward and the No. 45 overall prospect in the country by TheInsidersHoops.com. Rivals.com ranked him the No. 15 power forward and No. 56 overall prospect.

A first-team All-Mississippi selection by the Clarion-Ledger, Thomas averaged 27.4 points, 12.0 rebounds, 4.0 assists and 2.0 steals as a senior at Callaway for head coach Robert Stewart. He led his team to a 17-10 record and scored a school-record 56 points against Jim Hill High. As a junior, he played at Lanier and averaged 14.3 points and 7.4 rebounds. He was at Callaway as a sophomore and averaged 17.0 points and 8.0 rebounds.

He signed with Arkansas after also considering Florida State, Penn State, Georgia and Ole Miss.

PERSONAL:

Born Jan. 21, 1986, in Jackson, Miss., he is the son of Lynda Thomas and Billie Banks. He is enrolled in the Fulbright College of Arts and Sciences. His nickname is "Manimal."

Stan Heath on Charles Thomas:

"He is a tough and rugged, but skilled frontcourt player. He's more comfortable as a power forward at this time, but he could eventually become a small forward. We're excited about the energy and intensity he brings to the court."

#5 DARIAN TOWNES

Freshman – HS – Alexandria, Va.
(Hargrave Military Acad.)2004-05 PREVIEW:

One of two key newcomers at center along with Steven Hill, Townes may start. Even if he doesn't start, he will see extensive playing time.

IN HIGH SCHOOL:

At Hargrave, a prep school in Chatham, Va., he averaged 12.0 points, 10.0 rebounds and 8.0 blocked shots last year.

As a senior at Archbishop Carroll High in Washington, D.C., he averaged 13.8 points, 11.0 rebounds and 8.0 blocked shots.

Following his senior season, Townes was rated the No. 59 overall prospect in the country by Hoop Scoop, No. 62 by TheInsidersHoops.com, No. 64 by FutureStars, No. 81 by Prepstars and No. 87 by Bob Gibbons' All-Star Sports. He was also ranked the No. 18 power forward by TheInsidersHoops.com.

Townes averaged 16.0 points and 11.0 rebounds as a junior. As a sophomore, he set the Virginia state record of 187 blocked shots, breaking the previous mark held by Alonzo Mourning. He had a single-game high of 16.

Playing for the U.S. All-Stars against the Baltimore All-Stars in the Marines Charm City Challenge on April 4 at Towson University, he had seven points, eight rebounds and five blocked shots in his team's 98-79 victory.

Townes signed with Georgetown before enrolling at Hargrave. Before signing with Arkansas, he also considered George Washington and Southern Cal.

PERSONAL:

Born July 31, 1984, he is the son of Youlanda Townes and John Deere. He is enrolled in the Fulbright College of Arts and Sciences.

Stan Heath on Darian Townes:

"He is a multidimensional big man. He runs the court, has good hands and a good shooting touch, and along with his size, that makes him a player with a very good upside. As he continues to learn the game and gain experience, his talents could allow him great success during his Razorback career."

Nine returning lettermen, including four returning starters, plus a big recruiting class ranked No. 13 by Rivals.com and No. 16 by Hoop Scoop should give the Hogs plenty to cheer about in 2005.

Olu Famutimi and Ronnie Brewer were named to the SEC's all-freshman squad.

Ronnie Brewer was the only Razorback to start all 28 games last year.

Strong Nucleus of Returnees Should Get "Big" Boost from Newcomers

Things are looking up for Arkansas in 2005, in more ways than one.

Back for the Razorbacks are last year's top four scorers, five of the top six rebounders, four starters and nine lettermen.

Last year's team improved on its 2003 performance by three victories, and made significant statistical gains in the areas of points per game, field goal percentage, three-point percentage, free throw percentage, assists, turnovers, turnover margin, assist-to-turnover margin, blocked shots and steals, among others.

The 2004 squad was athletic, but it was also the eighth-youngest in the nation, based on the players contributing quality minutes. The Razorbacks were also short on size.

A year of maturity has taken care of the experience issue.

This year's recruiting class includes 7-0 and 6-10 centers, and a 6-7 forward. The group is rated No. 13 in the nation by Rivals.com and No. 16 by Hoop Scoop, and should address Arkansas' size needs.

For the first time in his three years, head coach Stan Heath has a roster including true centers, forwards, wings, shooting guards and point guards.

"We have a lot of interchangeable parts," Heaths says. "We have players that can play two or three different positions. We have a lot of length – guys with long arms that are wiry and have the ability to change a shot, make a deflection and get a steal. Our team is fairly young, but we have guys that have been in SEC battles. They've gone through some growing pains to help prepare for the season."

Head Coach Stan Heath

THE RETURNÉES

Ronnie Brewer, Eric Ferguson, Olu Famutimi and Jonathon Modica are all returning starters and were the team's top four scorers last year.

"This team has a lot of possibilities and upside," Heath says. "We return nine players who played a lot, including two preseason All-SEC-type players in Modica and Brewer. We return a lot of depth with Ferguson, Famutimi, Michael Jones, Sullivan and Hunter."

"It's important we continue to improve and mesh as a team. I feel good about the spring and summer we had. It's important to continue to get better."

Modica, a 6-4 junior wing, was eighth in the Southeastern Conference in scoring (16.5 ppg) and earned second-team all-conference honors. Also an All-District VII selection by the United States Basketball Writers Association, his scoring average was the second-best for a Razorback since 1995 when Corliss Williamson scored 19.7 points per game.

He led the team in scoring a team-high 16 times and was in double figures scoring 22 times.

Brewer, a 6-7 sophomore guard, had a terrific freshman campaign, leading the team in rebounding (5.5), assists (3.4) and steals (2.0), and finishing second in scoring (12.2). If he had led the team in scoring, he would have been the first Hog to lead the team in those four categories in the same season since All-American Sidney Moncrief in 1979.

Brewer earned freshman All-America honors from Rivals.com (second team) and College Basketball News (third team), as well as making the SEC all-freshman team.

Olu Famutimi averaged 5.8 points and 2.9 rebounds in 16 home games last year, but was better on the road with averages of 8.3 points and 3.8 boards.

He also led the team in field goal percentage (.481) and led all league freshmen with 125 field goals while scoring in double figures 19 times. He was eighth in the SEC in assists and led the team 15 times, fourth in steals and 18th in rebounding.

Famutimi, a 6-5 sophomore wing, seems to have fully recovered from the knee injury suffered during his senior year in high school. Although obviously slowed by the injury during his first season, he flashed signs of the talent that helped him earn McDonald's and Parade All-America honors.

He averaged 7.0 points and 3.5 rebounds a game in earning honorable mention freshman All-America honors from Rivals.com. Named to the SEC's all-freshman team, he was in double figures scoring seven times and averaged 9.0 points over the last five games.

Ferguson, a 6-1 junior point guard, was fourth on the team in scoring (8.1 ppg), and second in assists (2.8), steals (1.3) and three-point shooting (.341, 29-85). As a true freshman with no backup, he started 26 games at point guard and had 91 assists, but he also turned the ball over 109 times. Last year, able to take a breather and with help from Brewer, he had 78 assists and 55 turnovers.

He led the team in assists eight times and was in double figures scoring 11 times.

Arkansas' other returnees are 6-9 forward Michael Jones, the lone senior on the squad; sophomore guard Preston Cranford, a 6-7 shooter; sophomore Vincent Hunter, a 6-10 forward; junior Rashard Sullivan, a 6-8 forward; and senior football quarterback Matt Jones, a 6-6 forward who would be a junior in basketball if he decided to play this year.

With the exception of Jones and Cranford, they all played in a minimum of 24 games and started at least once. Sullivan had 10 starts, Hunter nine and Michael Jones two. Matt Jones played in 17 games with 10 starts while Cranford saw action in 15 games.

Michael Jones (4.8 ppg, 1.7 rpg) led the team with 18 points in the win over No. 22 Vanderbilt. Sullivan (1.2 ppg) has started 20 games in his two years, and was fifth on the team with 3.0 rebounds a game and led the squad with 28 blocked shots. Hunter (3.8 ppg, 3.2 rpg) was averaging 7.8 points and 4.5 rebounds before an injury cost him four games and slowed him for most of the rest of the season.

Cranford can earn more playing time by providing a three-point scoring option with his jumper. Matt Jones (5.0 ppg, 4.5 rpg) joined the team last Eric Ferguson's ball handling helped UA average just 13.8 turnovers a game last year, the lowest mark since the 1990 Final Four team (13.0).

Michael Jones' five-of-six (.833) three-point shooting against Auburn last year is the second-best performance in school history in SEC play.

Streaks Entering the Season

- Arkansas has made at least one three-point bucket in 515 consecutive games, the sixth-longest active streak in the nation. UA made at least one three in every game it played in the 1990s. The last time UA failed to make a three was in a 99-92 win at Texas in January 1989, and the Hogs attempted just two three-pointers in that contest. Arkansas has played 575 games since the three-pointer was added to college basketball and failed to make a three in only six games. UA won those six games.
- Arkansas has ranked among the nation's top 15 in attendance average 11 straight years - every year since Bud Walton Arena opened in 1994. UA ranked 13th in the nation and second in the SEC last season with an average of 14,792.
- The Razorbacks have won nine straight season openers and 28 consecutive home openers.

NOTING THE HOGS

RECRUITING RANKINGS: Arkansas head coach Stan Heath and his staff have drawn plenty of attention on the recruiting trail the last two years. This year's recruiting class is ranked No. 13 in the nation by Rivals.com, No. 15 by Athlon Sports and No. 16 by Hoop Scoop. The 2003 class was ranked No. 7 in the country by Hoop Scoop and No. 10 by CNNSI.com.

After being slowed during the middle of the season by an injury, Vincent Hunter closed the 2004 campaign with a 10-point, six-rebound effort against South Carolina.

NOTING THE HOGS

TURNOVERS TUMBLE: One of the statistical areas Arkansas improved in last year was turnover margin (-3.39 to +2.75) and total turnovers (from 467 to 386). Arkansas' team season total of 386 turnovers is the fewest in school history with records for that category going back to 1977. UA averaged 13.8 per game last year. The Hogs have had better averages with higher season totals in years in which they played more games, but the 13.8 figure is still the best since the 1990 squad had 455 turnovers in 35 games (13.0).

RETURNING ALL-STARS: Three Razorbacks who earned post-season honors last year are back this season. Junior Jonathon Modica was a second-team All-SEC (coaches) selection last year and he was also named to the United States Basketball Writers Association All-District VII squad. Sophomore Ronnie Brewer earned freshman All-America honors from Rivals.com (2nd) and College Basketball News (3rd) while Olu Famutimi was a honorable mention freshman All-American by Rivals.com. Brewer and Famutimi were also named to the SEC's all-freshman squad.

year three days following the Independence Bowl victory over Missouri. If he is pursuing professional football, it is unlikely he will play basketball.

THE NEWCOMERS

On the heels of 2003's recruiting class, ranked No. 7 in the nation by the Recruiting Services Consensus Index and No. 10 by CNNI.com, the Hogs hauled in another nationally recognized group. This year's class is No. 13 by Rivals.com and No. 16 by Hoop Scoop.

Darian Townes

Short on size for several years, this year's class consists of two centers, a forward, a point guard and a wing player. The centers are 7-0, 233-pound Steven Hill and 6-10, 250-pound Darian Townes. The forward is 6-7, 243-pound Charles Thomas.

Even the point guard is big, and experienced.

Dontell Jefferson is a 6-4, 181-pound juco transfer from Atlanta Metropolitan College.

The wing, 6-6 Marcus Monk, is a football signee and the receiver is expected to join the basketball team following football. Another football player, 6-7 tight end Marc Winston, could also join the squad.

"We've added size with our recruiting class, which we feel will address our concerns of the last two years - interior defense, rebounding and inside scoring," Heath says.

Hill (16.0 ppg, 12.0 rpg, 6.0 bpg), a Nike All-American, was ranked the No. 7 center in the nation and the No. 33 overall prospect by TheInsidersHoops.com out of Branson (Mo.) High.

Townes, ranked the No. 59 prospect by Hoop Scoop and No. 62 by TheInsidersHoops.com, averaged 12.0 points, 10.0 rebounds and 8.0 blocked shots at Hargrave Military Academy.

Hill and Townes will be looked to for defense and rebounding in the early going.

Another Nike All-American, Thomas (27.4 ppg, 12.0 rpg) was rated the No. 45 prospect in the country by TheInsidersHoops.com and No. 56 by Rivals.com out of Callaway High in Jackson, Miss.

Jefferson (16.4 ppg, 6.7 rpg, 9.2 apg, 3.4 spg) has a chance to earn the starting point guard job. As a sophomore at AMC, he was named to the Georgia Junior College Athletic Association Region XVII team. He was eighth in the GJCAA in scoring, 10th in rebounding, second in assists, third in steals and fourth with an .804 free throw percentage and 12th with a .454 field goal percentage.

"We feel like we can create and play at a faster pace, and keep up the defensive intensity because we have more depth" Heath says. "We expect to have a more balanced team with three or four guys in double figures, and a more balanced attack as far as inside and outside scoring."

NOTING THE HOGS

SPARE RIBS: In six games against ranked opponents last year, Jonathon Modica averaged 19.0 points while shooting 50.6 percent from the floor (39-77). Ronnie Brewer averaged 13.5 points and 4.2 rebounds while shooting 54.7 percent (29-53).

...UA was 10-7 last year when shooting 40 percent or better from the field.

...Based on freshmen and sophomores contributing quality minutes, which for UA was 12, the Razorbacks were the eighth-youngest team in the nation last year.

Additional Quotes From Head Coach Stan Heath

Leadership:

"Leadership is really important for our team. We've had younger players put in that position and we're hoping Jonathon Modica, Ronnie Brewer, Eric Ferguson and Michael Jones can set the example for others."

Goals:

"We want to do well in our non-conference schedule. Protecting home is a must. We play several teams, including Illinois in Little Rock, that provide a challenge. At the same time, winning on the road will be important, and that includes the trip to the Virgin Islands and playing at Missouri. It is our goal to play in the post-season, especially the NCAA, and it will require our best effort in the SEC and the non-conference part of our schedule to attain it."

The SEC:

"There are several teams that did very well last year and still return very good players and have a strong team. I would like to challenge some of those teams at the top and find ourselves in that top echelon. I would like to play our best basketball during the SEC season."

Ronnie Brewer (left) and Vincent Hunter meet a fan on campus.

Senior Walk, which stretches for more than five miles, and Old Main (in the background) are two of the most recognized symbols of Arkansas' campus. The University of Arkansas is the only remaining university in the nation to etch the names of its graduates into the campus' sidewalks.

A two-time All-American (1991-92) and Arkansas' all-time leading scorer with 2,395 points, Todd Day spent nine years in the NBA before coming back to Arkansas and earning his degree in 2004.

UNIVERSITY OF ARKANSAS

THE UNIVERSITY OF ARKANSAS

THE UNIVERSITY OF ARKANSAS IS AMONG THE TOP 120 COLLEGES AND 20 BEST BARGAINS IN THE NATION, ACCORDING TO TWO LEADING RANKINGS RELEASED THIS SUMMER. UA IS TIED FOR 120th AMONG ALL UNIVERSITIES AND TIED FOR 59th AMONG ALL PUBLIC UNIVERSITIES IN THE 2005 U.S. NEWS AND WORLD REPORT.

The University of Arkansas was established at Fayetteville in 1871 and opened its doors to students on Jan. 22, 1872.

There were few facilities and practically no money for the beginning of that first academic year more than a century ago, but the new institution had one advantage which has been of increasing importance throughout the years. It was established under provisions of the Morrill Act as both the State University and the Land-Grant College of Arkansas, which gave it an academic heritage from the universities of the past and at the same time bestowed upon it the educational responsibilities in "agriculture and the mechanic arts."

The location of Fayetteville for the university was determined as the result of an election held in counties, cities and incorporated towns. The purpose was to generate voting bonds or subscriptions to support the establishment of the university, with the largest bid coming from the County of Washington and the City of Fayetteville for a combined total of $130,000. To this amount and the Congressional land grant of 150,000 acres, the state added an appropriation of $50,000 for the benefit of the institution. The 160-acre homestead of William McIlroy was selected as the site at a purchase price of $12,000. The McIlroy home was converted into classrooms, and a new two-story frame building was constructed with one classroom on each floor.

THE CAMPUS AND ITS ENVIRONMENT

The University of Arkansas is located in Fayetteville, a city of nearly 60,000 residents. Fayetteville is at the southern tip of a metroplex that runs northward for 25 miles along I-540 through Washington and Benton counties. The Northwest Arkansas metroplex, from Fayetteville northward, also includes Springdale (home of Tyson Foods, the world's largest meat producer), Lowell (home of J.B. Hunt Trucking), Rogers and Bentonville (home of Wal-Mart Stores Inc., the world's largest corporation).

The two Northwest Arkansas counties containing this metroplex are growing rapidly due to a booming regional economy. The Fayetteville-Springdale-Rogers metropolitan area is ranked by the U.S. Census Bureau as being the sixth fastest-growing metro area in the nation. From 1990 to 2000, the metropolitan area grew 47.5 percent, from 210,908 to 311,121. In 2002, Northwest Arkansas was ranked 23rd among the top 269 metro areas considered as the "Best Places for Business and Career," according to Forbes magazine and the Milken Institute. The rankings were based on job growth, salary growth, plus high-tech growth.

Situated on the Ozark Mountain Plateau, Northwest Arkansas offers friendly people, beautiful scenery, a moderate climate, excellent school districts and a robust economy in which the unemployment rate runs well below national averages. Fayetteville itself presents the vibrant cultural life that would be expected in any major university town. Since the 1960s, the area has been a haven for writers, artists, poets and musicians.

In 2002, Business Week magazine ranked Fayetteville as one of the "Dazzling Dozen" small cities in the United States, on the basis of low unemployment and the ability to create jobs during the past year. In 2001, Fayetteville was one of only 23 locales and the only Arkansas location to be included in the book The Most Beautiful

The original building of Arkansas' campus, Old Main, completed in 1876, symbolizes a connection to the past and the focus on the future, which presently come together at UA. Old Main was actually a copy of a building on the University of Illinois campus. The building at Illinois was eventually destroyed. Legend has it the only difference between the two buildings is the UA's north tower, which is higher than the south tower, which was symbolism for the Civil War since the lead engineer was a northern veteran.

Jonathon Modica and other students often spend time after classes at the David W. Mullins Library. Special collections in the library include papers from former U.S. Senator J. William Fulbright, former chief of staff and special assistant to the President Thomas "Mack" McLarty, retired U.S. senators David Pryor and Dale Bumpers, architect Edward Durrell, civil rights activist Daisy Bates and composer William Grant Still.

Villages and Towns of the South (New York: Thames and Hudson). In 2000, The Searchers, a St. Louis-based data research company, ranked Fayetteville as one of the 157 best places to retire in the United States.

The University of Arkansas campus proper comprises 130 buildings on 345 acres. It rests upon a former hilltop farm that overlooks the Ozark Mountains to the south. At the time of the university's founding, the site was described as "second to none in the state of Arkansas." Old Main, the university's signature building designed in Second Empire architectural style, has come to symbolize higher education in Arkansas. Old Main is one of 11 campus buildings that have been placed on the National Register of Historic Places.

The campus also is graced by the unique, much-loved tradition of Senior Walk. Since the university's founding, the names of all 120,567 graduates have been etched into more than five miles of campus sidewalks, their names arranged by year of graduation.

TEACHING AND LEARNING

As research universities go, the University of Arkansas, with 17,269 students, falls toward the smaller, more intimate end of the spectrum. The faculty-student ratio is 16 to 1. More than 70 percent of all undergraduate class sections have 29 or fewer students. Despite the intimate instructional environment, the university has more academic programs than many larger universities: 208 academic degree programs at the baccalaureate, master's and doctoral levels.

The campus culture places high value on excellent teaching. The instructional mission is aided by the Teaching and Faculty Support Center, a program run by faculty for faculty. The Center involves as many as 300 faculty per year in programs, seminars, and workshops, as well as individual assistance and technological support to update and enhance their teaching methods.

STUDENTS

The University of Arkansas is working to increase the size and quality of its student body and is seeing success on both counts. Total enrollment has increased 11.5 percent since 1997-98, when it was 14,740, to 17,269 in 2004.

Quality of the undergraduate student body has increased even more dramatically. In 1997, the average ACT score of the freshman class was 23.5. By 2002, it had risen to 25.0 (the national average is 21.0 on a scale of 1 to 36). Further, the average high school grade point average of the freshman class increased from 3.40 in 1997 to 3.55 in 2002. The proportion of entering students from the top 10 percent of their high school class has increased from 28 percent in 1997 to 35 percent in 2002.

CAMPAIGN FOR THE TWENTY-FIRST CENTURY

The University of Arkansas Campaign for the Twenty-First Century has reached the $800 million level toward its $900 million goal on April 30, 2004. The total accounts for 234,324 gifts and pledges made to the UA since the Campaign began July 1, 1998.

The $800,561,242 is 89 percent of the $900 million goal, raised in 82 percent of the time allotted for the drive.

Vice Chancellor for University Advancement G. David Gearhart said: "This is a wonderful accomplishment in fund raising for the University of Arkansas. If you exclude the monumental $300 million gift received in 2002, we have surpassed the original goal of $500 million. This success can be attributed to a hardworking staff, to the leadership of the deans, the chancellor and our volunteers, and to the unyielding support of alumni, friends, corporations and foundations with an interest in securing the future of the University of Arkansas and the State of Arkansas.

"Of course, receiving the $300 million gift raised the bar for everyone. It created a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity for us to maximize the impact of the Campaign for the Twenty-First Century by creating a campaign within our campaign: The $300 Million Challenge."

The Challenge total stands at $170.8 million as of April 30, 2004.

THE $300 MILLION GIFT AND ITS USES

In April 2002, the University of Arkansas announced the largest gift in the history of American public higher education—a $300 million commitment from the Walton Family Charitable Support Foundation of Bentonville, Ark., to establish and endow an undergraduate honors college and endow the graduate school.

The $200 million for the Honors College is being apportioned thus:

For student support, $113 million as follows:

$75 million in endowment to support annually 300 Honors College Fellows, who qualify with an ACT score of 32 or higher; $24 million in endowment to support annually 300 Honors College Academy Fellows, who qualify with an ACT score of 28 or higher; $10 million in endowment to support undergraduate research; and $4 million in endowment to support international study experiences.

For faculty support, $58 million as follows:

$30 million to establish 20 endowed chairs; $15 million to create a matching fund for endowed faculty positions; $10 million to establish 20 endowed distinguished professorships; and $3 million for an endowed chair for the Honors College dean.

For library and technology support, $29 million as follows:

$24 million for the library, including $5 million for immediate acquisitions and $19 million for an acquisitions endowment; and $5 million for a technology upgrade fund.

The $100 million for the Graduate School is being apportioned thus:

For graduate students, $64 million as follows:

$24 million in endowment to establish 60 distinguished doctoral fellowships, each with a stipend of $30,000 per year; and $40 million for a graduate fellowship endowment fund, to increase stipends for approximately 500 talented graduate students each year.

For faculty, $24 million as follows:

$24 million will endow eight new graduate faculty endowed research chairs, each funded with a principal of $3 million. These will be used to recruit new faculty who have been elected to various national academies or equivalent organizations.

For library and research support, $12 million

$8 million to endow a graduate student research fund; and $4 million for a library endowment to support graduate education.

Steven Hill heads to class from the Arkansas Union, which serves as the community center of the university. It provides services, conveniences and amenities to the campus community. It houses meeting, reception and banquet rooms, lounges, game rooms, a ballroom, a theatre, a video theatre, an art gallery and a food court. It also includes the University Bookstore, a U.S. Post Office, a hair salon, the Quick Copy Center, the Razorback Shop, a computer store and a travel agency.

CAMPUS LIFE

The university offers a vibrant campus life for its mainly full-time, residential undergraduate student population. University residence halls accommodate approximately 3,200 students, and the rest live in and about the city of Fayetteville.

Students have 230 registered student organizations at their disposal, including special interest organizations, religious organizations, international and cultural organizations, honorary and professional service organizations, student government and more. Greek life is robust as well: In 2001-02, 14 percent of male and 19 percent of female undergraduates belonged to the 15 fraternities and 12 sororities on campus.

Culturally and intellectually, the academic semesters overflow with faculty and student musical performances, theatre productions, art exhibits, concerts, poetry readings and visiting speakers.

SCHOOL OF ARCHITECTURE

The School of Architecture has the only accredited, professional architecture and landscape architecture programs in Arkansas. Students can choose to pursue degrees in the areas of architecture, landscape architecture, or architectural or landscape architectural studies, and will have opportunities for unique professional experience in our Rome Study Center for Architecture and the Humanities, Mexico Summer Urban Studio, European Summer Field Studies or the University of Arkansas Community Design Center (UACDC).

J. WILLIAM FULBRIGHT COLLEGE OF ARTS & SCIENCES

Consisting of 19 academic departments, the college offers degrees in the arts, humanities, sciences and social sciences.

Graduates enjoy rewarding careers as U.S. district judges, diplomats, corporate leaders, broadcasters, scholars, psychologists, scientists and performing artists.

Innovative Programs: The college's programs in creative writing and translation are ranked among the best in the country. Outside evaluators consistently give high marks to the English and history departments. Research programs in chemistry and physics are nationally competitive, and the college is building equally strong programs in the other sciences.

SAM M. WALTON COLLEGE OF BUSINESS

In 1997, the Walton College and the Department of Accounting were reaccredited by the AACSB—The International Association for Management Education. In 1978, the Walton College moved to its present location on Ozark Avenue. With the opening of the Donald W. Reynolds Center for Enterprise Development in 1998, the Walton College added state-of-the-art facilities for students and faculty. Students now have the advantage of classrooms and facilities in a building which the AACSB accrediting team designated as prototypical for collegiate schools of business.

COLLEGE OF EDUCATION AND HEALTH PROFESSIONS

The teacher education program at the University of Arkansas is accredited by the State Board of Education. Students who complete any of the programs as outlined are eligible to receive licenses to teach at the grade level or in the fields for which they have made preparation upon application and presentation of acceptable scores on the PRAXIS I (formerly the National Teacher Examination).

THE UNIVERSITY OF ARKANSAS IS RANKED 18th AMONG THE BEST PUBLIC UNIVERSITY BARGAINS IN THE 2005 EDITION OF PRINCETON REVIEW, WHICH WAS ALSO RELEASED THIS SUMMER. THE "BEST BARGAINS" EDITION OF THE PRINCETON REVIEW INCLUDED THE TOP 357 COLLEGES IN THE COUNTRY.

DIVERSITY AND INTERNATIONAL PROGRAMS

The university has as one of its five major goals the enhancement of diversity among students, faculty and staff. To that end, a university-wide Diversity Task Force is leading efforts to generate programs that strengthen not only racial and ethnic diversity, but cultural, religious, socioeconomic and geographic diversity as well.

UA'S COLLEGES AND SCHOOLS

DALE BUMPERS COLLEGE OF AGRICULTURAL, FOOD AND LIFE SCIENCES

Enrollment in the fall of 2003 was 1,093 undergraduate students and 343 graduate students as the college offered degree programs in disciplines relating to the production, processing and marketing of food and fiber, environment and natural resources, and human resources. Most of the college's faculty are also research scientists in the statewide UA Division of Agriculture. Students have opportunities to work with their professors as research assistants.

The teacher education program of the College of Education & Health Professions is also accredited by the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education for the preparation of pre-kindergarten and elementary school teachers, secondary school teachers and school services personnel including administrators and school counselors, with approval through the doctoral degree.

COLLEGE OF ENGINEERING

The College of Engineering at the University of Arkansas is the only comprehensive engineering program in the state that offers undergraduate, masters and doctoral degrees. The College is also ABET-accredited, which means you can be sure your degree is recognized and respected by industry and academia.

Engineering is a broad, flexible field full of diverse options. You might choose to work in a corporation, pursue entrepreneurial research or apply your engineering background to a career in law, medicine or business.

William Fulbright. More than 250,000 students in 140 countries have become Fulbright scholars since the grant program bearing his name was instituted more than a half century ago.

THE GRADUATE SCHOOL

The Graduate School is committed to providing post-baccalaureate students with the opportunity to further their educational goals through programs of study, teaching and research in an environment that promotes freedom of expression, intellectual inquiry and professional integrity.

THE HONORS COLLEGE

The Honors College serves all undergraduate majors. Honors students enjoy small classes, priority registration, special housing, increased interaction with faculty and enhanced opportunities for hands-on research. Within the college, the Scholarship Office and the Office of Post-Graduate Fellowships provide additional services.

THE SCHOOL OF LAW

In the latest available assessments, The National Jurist placed UA's School of Law among the handful of public law schools it regarded as a "Great Value," and U.S. News & World Report ranked it among the Top 100 law schools in the nation.

THE UNIVERSITY OF ARKANSAS HAS BEEN NAMED ONE OF THE BEST VALUES AMONG PUBLIC COLLEGES BY KIPLINGER'S PERSONAL FINANCE. THE MAGAZINE RANKED THE UNIVERSITY 45th AMONG THE TOP 100 PUBLIC INSTITUTIONS. THREE PRIMARY CRITERIA USED TO RANK THE TOP 100 PUBLIC COLLEGES INCLUDED QUALITY, COST AND AVERAGE DEBT AFTER GRADUATION.

ARKANSAS RAZORBACK STUDENT-ATHLETE SUPPORT SERVICES

SUPPORT SERVICES MISSION STATEMENT

The primary focus of the Razorback Support Program is to provide the student-athlete with the opportunity to develop the skills necessary to be a success in college and in life. This is accomplished through competent academic counseling, life skills training and preparation to enter the job market upon graduation.

JASON WILLIAMSON ACADEMIC COORDINATOR

Jason Williamson is in his first year as the academic coordinator for basketball after joining the student-athlete support services group on July 6, 2004.

His responsibilities include monitoring the academic progress of all basketball players, including coordinating the degree completion program, monitoring the eligibility process, assisting with financial aid issues, serving as the liaison between the basketball office and faculty and staff, and supervising two graduate assistants.

A member of the National Association of Academic Advisors for Athletics, he graduated from the University of Arkansas with a bachelor's in criminal justice in 1999 and earned his master's in 2001 in public administration.

He joined the Arkansas staff after spending the two previous years as an academic advisor at Clemson. At Clemson, he worked with men basketball, and women's basketball and track. He also planned and organized the annual academic awards banquet, and monitored the student-athlete enrichment program payroll system. In addition, he served as the community service coordinator for all student-athletes, coaches and administration.

Before going to Clemson, Williamson worked as an academic advisor at Ohio University during the 2001-02 school year, working with a total of 160 student-athletes in the sports of baseball, track, lacrosse and wrestling. He also taught an orientation class.

A member of the U.S. Army Reserves from 1993-2001, he has also worked at Wal-Mart Stores, Inc., as a loss prevention associate and at Youth Bridge, Inc., as a case manager.

Williamson is married to the former Shele Whitecotton and they have a son, Kasius Eli, born Jan. 25, 2004.

Freshman Steven Hill was enrolled at UA during the first summer session this past summer and he took advantage of one of the many study areas in the Bob and Marilyn Bogle Academic Center.

Located on the East side of Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium, the Bob and Marilyn Bogle Academic Center provides both male and female student-athletes with a state-of-the-art academic support facility second to none. Approximately 15,000 square feet, the center includes a computer lab with 36 stations, formal and informal study areas, 14 individual tutor rooms with computers, Internet access, student life and career development resources, and a multi-purpose classroom. The center is open from 8 a.m. until 10 p.m. and provides Razorback student-athletes with academic counseling, tutorial services, academic skill development, life skills training and career development opportunities.

Eric Ferguson, along with Jamar Blackmon, Kendrick Davis, Jonathon Modica and Wen Mukubu, earned Hard Workin' Hog honors in 2003 by completing at least 30 hours.

Preston Cranford, above in the academic center computer room, was named to UA's 2003-04 Lon Farrell Academic Honor Roll along with Jamar Blackmon, Ronnie Brewer, Kendrick Davis, Billy Pharis and Charles Tatum.

Academic Support

The University of Arkansas Academic Support Center serves as the liaison between the athletic department and all faculty, staff and university personnel regarding academic concerns and procedures.

The Academic Support Center is committed to providing the Razorback student-athletes with the tools and resources they need to succeed in the competitive academic environment at the University of Arkansas, ultimately leading to graduation.

Support services include a mentoring program, monitored study hall, tutorial services, a computer laboratory and referrals to other campus support services.

UA's Academic Game Plan for Graduation

Student-athletes are expected to meet specific academic criteria in order to maintain their eligibility. This can be easily achieved by following the Academic Game Plan set out by the Academic Support Center.

The support center staff has designed programs and set specific goals to help student-athletes achieve academic success. One such goal is each student-athlete enroll and successfully complete 30 hours of coursework each academic year. By maintaining this course load, they will not only be on track to graduate in four years, but will easily meet eligibility requirements set by the NCAA.

Study Hall and Tutors

Study Hall is a quiet setting for uninterrupted study and is required for all scholarship student-athletes until a 2.5 GPA or better is achieved. The use of tutors is highly encouraged, if not required for some student-athletes.

Honors and Awards

- SEC Academic Honor Roll (3.0 GPA or above for two consecutive semesters)
- Lon Farrell Award (3.0 GPA for one or both semesters during academic year)
- Hard-Working Hog (30 hours of coursework in one academic year)

Class Attendance

- Student-athletes are expected to attend all classes unless previously excused
- The Academic Support Staff regularly checks attendance
- If traveling with a team, student-athletes notify instructors early each semester regarding assignments and/or test(s)

The Razorback Program for Student-Athlete Success

The Office of Student Support Services of the University of Arkansas Athletic Department was established to assist student-athletes in their efforts toward attaining specific academic and life goals as well as graduation.

Recognizing the difficulty of being both a student and an athlete, the office seeks to help students develop appropriate skills, which will allow them to maximize their individual potential while participating in intercollegiate athletics.

The University of Arkansas is a participant in the NCAA CHAMPS/Life Skills Program. This program addresses the needs of student-athletes in five primary areas: Academics, Personal Development, Career Development, Community Service and Athletic Excellence.

Student Life

The University of Arkansas is as concerned about the personal and social development of our student-athletes as it is their academics and athletics.

The Office of Student Life focuses on the personal development and community service components of the NCAA CHAMPS/Life Skills program. Training is provided in a wide variety of areas such as financial planning, drug and alcohol education, time management, study skills and developing community service activities.

Career Development

The purpose of the Career Development Program is to assist student-athletes in making a smooth transition into the world of work. This process begins in the freshman year with a one-hour course in which career options are explored.

Workshops are also held to provide student-athletes training in resume writing, interviewing skills and etiquette. Individual assistance with locating summer internships and job placement helps give the student-athlete a head start in his or her career.

Participation in athletics enables individuals to develop the personal qualities that are in high demand in the business world today.

GLEN ROSE ACADEMIC AWARD

Glen Rose was the only coach to ever serve two tenures at Arkansas. In fact, he did just about everything possible as a Razorback. He was the Hogs' first All-American basketball player (1928) and was All-Southwest Conference three times. He was an All-SWC end in football in 1927.

He spent nearly the rest of his life coaching at Arkansas. He became head basketball coach in 1933 and led the Razorbacks to a nine-year record of 157-47 (.766). He coached the football team for a year during World War II and also worked as an administrator in the athletic department before leaving for 10 years.

Rose returned to Fayetteville in 1952 and spent 14 more seasons as head basketball coach. During his second stint, the Hogs were 171-154. His overall mark was 325-201.

A member of the Razorback Hall of Honor, Rose passed away Sept. 3, 1994. In his honor, Arkansas presents the Glen Rose Award to the Razorback basketball player who attains the highest academic achievement during each school year.

"We want to honor the memory of Glen Rose by saluting one of our athletes," said Athletic Director Frank Broyles. "He gave his life to Razorback athletics and it is only appropriate we name this academic achievement award after him."

	Scotty Thurman	2004:	Billy Pharis
1995:	Scotty Thurman

Larry Satchell, who completed his eligibility in 2003, is one of eight players who have earned a degree in Stan Heath's two years at Arkansas.

Billy Pharis was named to the College Sports Information Directors of America Academic All-District VI team and made the SEC academic honor roll before earning his degree and leaving for Denmark in September to play professionally.

HOME OF CHAMPIONS

Note: UA has separate men and women's departments. Only men's sports are included in this publication.

In four of the 13 years the Hogs have been members of the SEC, they have won four league championships. In the nine other years, Arkansas has won at least two, including three overall titles in 2003-04. No other SEC school has won so many league championships in men's athletics during the past 13 years.

While the SEC is the nation's best conference, Arkansas takes its success far past the regional level. During UA's time in the SEC, the Hogs have produced 27 national championship teams. The other SEC schools combined have won 24 NCAA crowns in men's sports, meaning Arkansas has won three more national titles than the rest of the league combined. LSU is the closest to matching UA's national title total, but the Razorbacks have a 27-8 lead over the Tigers.

Overall, Arkansas has won 41 men's national championships in its athletic history, all but one since 1984. The only one before '84 was the post-bowl version of the football national championship in 1964. LSU is next with 17, followed by Tennessee with eight, and Alabama, Kentucky, Florida and Georgia with seven each. In fact, the other 11 SEC schools have won a combined 58 national championships, just 17 more than the Razorbacks have won by themselves.

Here's the breakdown on Arkansas' national titles: 17 in indoor track, 11 in cross country, 11 in outdoor track, one in football and one in basketball.

In 13 years, Arkansas has won 40 SEC championships, including 13 in cross country, 11 in indoor track, 11 in outdoor track, two in basketball and baseball, and one in golf. The Hogs have also won three Western Division titles in football and basketball, and two in baseball.

FOOTBALL

Arkansas won nine games for the second straight year and capped the season with a 27-14 Independence Bowl victory over Missouri.

UA's big wins came at No. 5 Texas, 38-28; at Alabama, 34-31 in double overtime; and at Kentucky, 71-63 in seven overtimes, matching UA's record for the longest game in NCAA history (58-56 seven-overtime win at Ole Miss in 2001).

UA led the SEC in rushing for the second straight season (241.9), All-American tackle Shawn Andrews was an Outland Trophy and Lombardi Award finalist, Cedric Cobbs gave the Razorbacks a 1,000-yard rusher for the second straight season (1,320, 10 TDs) and safety Tony Bua broke Ken Hamlin's school record for career tackles (408).

- Six bowl games in six years
- Best overall record in the SEC West over the last six years (48-27)
- Most home wins in the SEC over the last six years (34)
- Twenty-one bowl games in the last 29 years and 33 overall
- 1964 national champion

BASKETBALL

UA recorded wins over No. 22 Vanderbilt, 70-62, and No. 25 South Carolina, 82-66. Sophomore Jonathon Modica ranked eighth in the league in scoring (16.5 ppg) and earned second-team All-SEC honors. Ronnie Brewer (12.2 ppg, 5.5 rpg, 3.4 apg) and Olu Famutimi (7.0 ppg, 3.5 rpg) made the SEC All-Freshman team. Brewer made freshman All-America teams selected by Rivals.com (2nd) and College Basketball News (3rd).

- Twenty-six NCAA Tournament appearances
- Six Final Four appearances – 1994 national champion, 1995 runner-up
- Fifteen national postseason tournament appearances in 18 years
- Home attendance in national top 15 for 11 straight years

TRACK

Arkansas won its 39th NCAA title by winning the outdoor crown. Head coach John McDonnell was named national outdoor coach of the year by the U.S. Track Coaches Association, the 27th time in 32 years he's earned a national coaching honor.

Indoors, UA finished second at both the NCAA and SEC meets. In cross country, Arkansas won its 13th straight SEC title and its 30th consecutive conference championship before finishing fifth at the NCAA meet.

- Seventeen indoor NCAA titles since 1984; 23 conference titles since 1979
- Eleven outdoor NCAA titles since 1985; 20 conference titles since 1982
- Eleven cross country NCAA titles since 1984; 30 conference titles since 1974
- Twenty-three Olympians, 582 All-America selections, 92 NCAA individual event championships

BASEBALL

In Dave Van Horn's second year as head coach, the Razorbacks were picked last in the SEC's Western Division and 11th overall. Then they went out and won the conference championship, hosted and won an NCAA regional, hosted an NCAA Super Regional for the first time and advanced to the College World Series for the fifth time and the first time since 1989.

- Five College World Series and 17 NCAA Tournament appearances
- Thirteen 40-win seasons since 1979
- Baum Stadium rated the top college facility in the country by Baseball America in 1998

GOLF

Arkansas earned its second straight NCAA Tournament bid and finished 20th at the NCAA Central Regional. Head coach Mike Ketcham was named by the Golf Coaches Association of America the coach of the U.S. Junior World Cup Team for the summer and led the United States to the team championship.

- Finished in the top 11 at the NCAA Tournament six times in 16 years
- Finished in the top 20 at the NCAA Tournament eight times
- Twenty-six tournament titles in the last 16 years

TENNIS

Ranked among the nation's top 30 all season, the Razorbacks earned a fourth straight NCAA Tournament bid and advanced to the Sweet 16 for the first time since 1986 as UA ended the year 16-10 and ranked No. 24 by the ITA. Head coach Robert Cox became UA's career victories leader on March 12 with a 6-1 decision at Hawaii, marking his 219th Razorback win.

- Eight NCAA Tournament appearances in 11 years
- NCAA regional finals in five of last six appearances
- Eight No. 1-ranked players since 1980 and 29 All-America selections

Ronnie Brewer was named to two freshman All-America teams last season.

Arkansas players and fans celebrate the win over No. 20 Mississippi State in 2003.

Corey Beck and the Razorbacks cut down the nets after winning the 1994 national title.

Chris Walker and the Hogs claimed the Southeastern Conference Tournament championship in 2000.

“THE BASKETBALL PALACE OF MID-AMERICA”

Arkansas has played in Bud Walton Arena – The Basketball Palace of Mid-America – for 11 years and has drawn just over 3,000,000 fans, ranked among national attendance leaders every season and won 80 percent of its games.

When Arkansas joined the Southeastern Conference in August of 1990, Razorback Athletic Director Frank Broyles knew the athletic facilities had to be upgraded to contend in America's most nationally competitive league.

His attention turned immediately to basketball. The Hogs were very successful, coming off a Final Four trip earlier that year, but had just a 9,000-seat home, Barnhill Arena.

One day, Bud Walton, co-founder of Wal-Mart, visited Broyles and asked him what Arkansas needed most to be competitive in the SEC. Broyles mentioned the need for additional basketball seats and was asked by Walton what a new arena would cost. The figure $30 million was discussed and Walton offered to pay half. From that visit, fabulous Bud Walton Arena was born.

Groundbreaking to grand opening was accomplished in a remarkable 18 months. The Razorbacks played in Bud Walton for the first time in November of 1993. Everything went perfect during the first full year. Not only did Arkansas sell out the arena, the Razorbacks were unbeaten in their new home (16-0) and won the 1994 national championship.

The Hogs carry a 142-36 (.798) record into the 2005 season.

In 11 seasons, UA has an all-time average attendance of 17,635 in Bud Walton Arena. Arkansas has ranked in the top 15 nationally in attendance every year in BWA.

Entering the 2005 campaign, UA has a combined mark of 446-130 in its last two homes for an outstanding home winning percentage of .774 over the last 47 years.

BWA houses a deluxe museum on the ground level that includes a tribute to Arkansas' 1994 NCAA championship as well as the history of Razorback basketball, track and field, baseball, tennis and golf. Eye-catching displays on the concourse level salute recent Razorback highlights.

The 2004 season marked the debut of a new custom scoreboard in the shape of a basketball hoop. The board, 24 feet, three inches wide by 22 feet tall, features four video screens, each 12 feet, six inches wide by eight feet, 10 inches tall. An LED ring at the top is used to display game statistics.

The Razorbacks also now have an expanded locker room, which includes a lounge with a spacious meeting area.

As captivating as the displays, museum and championship banners are hanging from the arena floor's ceiling, the aspect of the facility demanding the most attention is spirit. Every game still produces an NCAA Tournament-type atmosphere with the exception of the crowd, which is anything but neutral.

According to the architectural firm that designed the arena, Rosser International in Atlanta, there are more seats in less space than in any such facility in the world. It's no wonder the noise level can be absolutely ear-splitting.

From pre-game to post-game, Bud Walton Arena is perfectly choreographed with the band, the spirit groups, the lighting system, the public address, the scoreboard and the team. Each game at Walton Arena is a rich experience leaving Razorback fans hungry for more.

UA Basketball Facilities

While the championship-caliber basketball and the sellout crowds are the most noticeable parts of BWA, what it offers to the basketball program on a daily basis is so much more.

From the spacious locker rooms and team meeting area to the artistically designed shower, Bud Walton provides top-notch accommodations for Arkansas players and coaches. UA's locker room was expanded last year and now includes a lounge with a big screen television and computer work stations. It also features a meeting area large enough to comfortably accommodate the entire team and staff.

Arkansas' basketball team utilizes a fully stocked weight room as well as top-notch training facilities.

Even the hallway leading to the basketball offices features a hardwood floor replica complete with court markings and logos.

Razorback basketball history is alive and well in the Tommy Boyer Hall of Champions and in displays on the concourse level. The Yvonne Richardson Great Moments Theater delivers Arkansas' rich history at the touch of a button.

Whether it's players preparing for the next game, fans reliving great moments of the past or crowds anticipating tip-off, one visit and you'll know why Bud Walton Arena is truly "The Basketball Palace of Mid-America."

Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium was renovated and expanded from a capacity of 51,000 to 72,000 for the 2001 football season. The stadium, which houses the Bob and Marilyn Bogle Academic Center, also includes a 30x107-foot SMARTVISION video board, which is the largest at any sports venue in the world.

OTHER ARKANSAS FACILITIES

Baum Stadium at George Cole Field was named the nation's second-best collegiate baseball facility in a 2003 survey by Baseball America magazine after ranking first in the publication's last survey in 1998. Recent upgrades include the addition of 2,600 chairback seats, the enclosing of the hitting and pitching cages, and changing the field from turf to grass.

The Randal Tyson Track Center has served as the site of the 2000, 2001, 2002, 2003 and 2004 NCAA indoor meets, and will host the 2005 championships.

Arkansas' new weight room and training facility is the largest in the country.

RAZORBACK HISTORY

Championships were a tradition at Arkansas long before the Razorbacks earned the national title in 1994. The '94 championship was the grandest of them all, but the NCAA trophy isn't exactly the only one on the shelf in the fabulous Bud Walton Arena museum.

In fact, Arkansas has made six trips to the NCAA Final Four. The Razorbacks have earned 27 bids to the NCAA Tournament.

In conference play, Arkansas has won 24 league championships with 22 coming in the Southwest Conference between 1926 and 1991. In fact, the Hogs won the Southeastern Conference crown in 1992, their first year in the league, after winning three straight SWC titles. The Hogs have also won seven league tournament crowns.

Since joining the SEC, Arkansas has been a dominant member. The Razorbacks won overall titles in 1992 and 1994, and Western Division titles in 1992, '93, '94 and '95, and then won the tournament crown in 2000.

Arkansas has a long-standing tradition of winning in basketball. It started in the 1920s and has carried through to this time. Even though Arkansas didn't begin playing basketball until 1924, the Hogs won more SWC championships than any other school.

It didn't take long for the Hogs to have an impact on the SWC. Two years after starting the program, Arkansas won its first league crown. It was the first of five in a row. Francis Schmidt, Arkansas' first basketball coach, guided the Hogs to the 1926, '27, '28 and '29 titles. Chuck Bassett was the coach of the 1930 championship squad.

Wear Schoonover, Arkansas' first football All-American, captained the 1930 club. He earned All-SWC honors three times. In fact, the Razorbacks dominated the all-conference squads of the late 1920s. In 1928, Arkansas had four of the five All-SWC selections when Glen Rose, Tom Pickell, Gene Lambert Sr. and Schoonover were named all-league. Rose was also the first Razorback to earn All-America honors (1928), followed a year later by Pickell and Lambert.

The Hogs were loaded with all-conference talent during that time. Rose was a three-time All-SWC pick, as was Pickell.

Lambert and Rolla Adams made it twice, as did Milan Creighton.

From 1926 through 1929, Arkansas was a combined 60-5.

When Schmidt left Arkansas as coach, he went to league rival TCU and was tough to beat until the Razorbacks hired Rose as head coach.

He began another glorious run with a co-championship in 1935. The Hogs won SWC titles in '36, '38, '41 and '42. The 1936 Razorbacks almost represented the United States in the Olympics, winning four games in an Olympic playoff before losing to a team of all-stars from California in the semifinals of the tournament.

Jim Lee Howell, Ike Poole, Taft Moody, Don Lockard, Jack Robbins, Howard Hickey and Johnny Adams were the stars of their day. Adams was an All-American in 1941. He was Arkansas' fifth All-American but the last one UA would have until Ron Brewer made it in 1977.

From 1945 to 1950, Arkansas had four second-place finishes and shared the 1949 title. The Razorbacks then went through a mild recession before claiming a co-championship in 1958. By winning a playoff game against SMU, Arkansas qualified for the NCAA Tournament. It wasn't a pleasant experience. Oklahoma State, which featured Eddie Sutton as a player, downed the Hogs by 25, 65-40, and Oscar Robertson exploded for 58 points as the Hogs were drilled by Cincinnati, 97-62, in a consolation game.

Scotty Thurman's clutch three-pointer with the shot clock winding down and 51 seconds left in the game gave Arkansas a 73-70 lead in the 76-72 victory over Duke in the 1994 NCAA championship game.

As unpleasant as the tournament experience was, Arkansas would have loved to gone back, but it didn't happen for 19 years. Not even Rose, who led the Hogs to the '58 title in his second stint as coach, could return Arkansas to glory. He retired following the 1966 season, but neither of his two successors, Duddy Waller or Lanny Van Eman, put a contender on the floor.

Van Eman did, however, bring excitement to the game. His teams regularly scored in the 80s and 90s at a time when the traditional powers played games in the 60s. Van Eman recruited Martin Terry from junior college and Terry set school single-season scoring records that still stand. He averaged 28.3 points per game as a senior. Even though he played only two seasons, Terry still ranks among Arkansas' top 10 all-time scorers.

Unfortunately, Van Eman's teams usually gave up more points than they scored. Twice in 1971, Arkansas scored 100 or more points and lost.

Van Eman's second club managed to win 16 games, but only five came in SWC play. Arkansas and Baylor, which paired for a thrilling 111-110 Baylor victory the year before, put on another wild show with the Razorbacks winning, 131-109, in Fayetteville, setting a league record for points scored by two teams in a conference game.

After the 1974 Hogs won just 10 games, Frank Broyles, newly appointed athletic director as well as an already established football coach, decided it was time to make a commitment to basketball. He turned things around by hiring Sutton.

Sutton caught the state's attention in his first season when the Razorbacks finished 17-9 and second in the SWC. By the time his second team finished its 19-9 campaign, construction workers were already renovating Barnhill Arena, a facility constructed in 1957.

The 1976 Hogs also featured the nucleus of what was to become one of the greatest teams in history. Brewer and Marvin Delph were sophomores. Sidney Moncrief was a freshman and he quietly led the nation in field goal percentage (.665, 149-224), and Sutton knew he had something special.

MEMORABLE GAMES

The history of Razorback basketball is filled with thrilling and even heart-stopping moments. The Final Four, conference championships, and last-second, game-winning jumpers shape memories of the "greatest" moments in UA history.

With half of Barnhill's facelift completed before the 1977 season, a new wave of excitement swept through the entire state of Arkansas.

The Razorbacks blitzed through the SWC unbeaten, winning their first league title in 19 years. Brewer, Moncrief and Delph were the toast of the Ozarks. Arkansas finished 26-2 but lost in the first round of the NCAA Tournament when Moncrief fouled out, allowing Wake Forest to come from behind for a victory.

Expectations were high in 1978 and the Hogs didn't disappoint. For a week, the Razorbacks were even ranked No. 1 in the Associated Press poll. A loss at Houston after two victories earlier in the week dropped the Hogs from their position at the top.

Arkansas shared the SWC title with Texas, but was upset by Houston, again on a last-second shot at the SWC Tournament. Stunned, the Razorbacks returned home unsure of whether or not they would receive an at-large bid to the NCAA Tournament.

The Hogs got in and victories over Weber State and No. 2 UCLA thrust Arkansas into the regional finals. Brewer hit a long jumper with less than a minute to play and Jim Counce scored on a layup at the end to seal a 61-58 victory over Cal-Fullerton, sending the Hogs to the Final Four.

No. 1-ranked Kentucky ended Arkansas' dreams of a national title with a semifinal victory, but Brewer hit another of his patented buzzer shots in the third-place game, giving Arkansas a thrilling 71-69 victory over Notre Dame.

With All-American Brewer and the sleek-shooting Delph gone, Moncrief and Steve Schall were left to lead the 1979 Hogs. It was almost a repeat performance of 1978.

Moncrief was brilliant. He simply refused to allow his team to lose. After a brief midseason slump, Arkansas won 14 straight games, including two at the SWC Tournament and two in the NCAA Tournament. A victory over Louisville sent Arkansas into the Midwest Regional finals against No. 1-ranked Indiana State and superstar Larry Bird.

Arkansas could not stop Bird, but ISU could not contain Moncrief. In one of the greatest games in UA history, the Hogs suffered a 73-71 setback when a last-second Sycamore shot bounced twice and fell in. Arkansas finished 25-5 and the Moncrief era was history.

Corey Beck had 15 points, four assists and a team-high 10 rebounds in the championship game victory over Duke.

NCAA CHAMPIONSHIP GAME
APRIL 4, 1994, AT CHARLOTTE, N.C.

Sutton won three more SWC titles and left behind a legacy when his teams won 20 or more games nine years in a row. Arkansas played in the NCAA Tournament in each of those nine seasons, but never came close to returning to the Final Four. The Razorbacks even featured a team that had three future first-round NBA draft choices when Scott Hastings, Darrell Walker and Alvin Robertson played together. Joe Kleine, another future NBA product, redshirted that year (1982).

When Sutton left for Kentucky, Broyles turned a completely different direction when he hired Nolan Richardson. Richardson's teams were noted for defense, just as Sutton's were, but it was a different style of defense. Richardson's defense usually turned quickly to offense and his teams at Tulsa had led the nation in scoring.

Inheriting a group of players recruited to play at a slower pace, Richardson had to bite the bullet as his first season resulted in a 12-16 finish. Then he started recruiting. His second team won 19 games and his third was 21-9. His 1989 squad won Arkansas' first SWC title since 1982 and breezed through the league tournament. Arkansas set school scoring records and downed Loyola-Marymount in the first round of the NCAA Tournament before bowing to Louisville.

By then, Richardson's style and players already had converted Razorback fans. Barnhill Arena was hopping every time the Hogs played. It wouldn't have taken a Final Four appearance for the state to go nuts, but when the Razorbacks reached the 1990 Final Four, the state went crazy.

The Hogs were SWC champs again and dominated the SWC Tournament for the second consecutive year. Triumphs over Princeton, Dayton, North Carolina and Texas sent the Razorbacks into the Final Four. A loss to Duke in the semifinals ended the season at 30-5.

It nearly happened again in 1991. UA won a school-record 34 games before falling to Kansas in the Southeast Regional finals. Arkansas ended its history in the Southwest Conference by winning the final three regular season and tournament championships.

A new era was launched in 1992 and the Razorbacks didn't miss a beat. Arkansas won the Southeastern Conference title with a 13-3 record. Included were two victories over Shaquille O'Neal-led LSU and a big win at Kentucky. The Todd Day-Lee Mayberry-Oliver Miller era ended with a 26-8 season and another trip to the NAAs.

After winning the SEC's Western Division in '93 and pushing North Carolina to the limit in a Sweet 16 loss to the eventual national champions, Arkansas enjoyed its best season ever in 1994. UA won nearly everything possible. The Razorbacks were SEC champs, again sweeping LSU and winning at Kentucky, they made the school's fifth trip to the Final Four and completed their dream season by beating Arizona and Duke to win the national title.

A year later, Arkansas was No. 1 in all the preseason polls, but the Hogs stumbled early before making a late-season run. UA repeated as Western Division champion, then downed Texas Southern, Syracuse, Memphis and Virginia to earn its sixth Final Four appearance.

A win over North Carolina in the semifinals allowed the Hogs to advance to the finals, but it was UCLA's year as the Bruins beat Arkansas for the 1995 crown, 89-78.

With every starter gone from the back-to-back Final Four clubs, Arkansas was expected to struggle in 1996. Richardson, however, molded together a young team and the Hogs peaked late. Seeded 12th in the NCAA East Regional, UA beat Penn State

Charles Balentine's baseline jumper gave Arkansas a 65-64 victory over Michael Jordan and No. 1-ranked North Carolina in 1984.

North Carolina was 19-0 and ranked No. 1 nationally when the Tar Heels visited Pine Bluff. Arkansas was on its way to a second-place finish in the Southwest Conference and had defeated SMU in Dallas the day before.

Violent weather kept the Hogs from flying to Pine Bluff until the morning of the game, and the Razorbacks arrived in town two hours before the nationally televised contest.

If the Razorbacks were weary, they showed no signs of it. They defended North Carolina fiercely, holding the Tar Heels to 45 percent shooting. North Carolina had plenty of weapons. Michael Jordan, Sam Perkins and Brad Daugherty, all future NBA stars, were in the starting lineup along with Steve Hale, a guard from Tulsa whose second choice of schools was Arkansas.

The Hogs were armed with Joe Kleine and Alvin Robertson, but the unsung heroes were Darryl Bedford and Charles Balentine. Bedford, a freshman who had been a little used reserve, hit all six of his shots and scored 12 points. Balentine, of course, was the hero at the end.

A crowd of 7,529 was in a frenzy from the opening tipoff to the final buzzer. They watched Jordan score 21 points and Kleine answer with 20. Perkins had 17 and Hale 15. Leroy Sutton scored 11 points, Balentine 10 and Robertson nine for the Hogs.

North Carolina's largest lead of the first half was five points. UA led by as many as seven before taking a 38-34 advantage at the break. The second half was a nailbiter and the Tar Heels led by one with only seconds to play. Balentine drove the baseline and hit an eight-footer to give Arkansas the lead before UNC missed a buzzer shot.

Vincent Hunter (back) and Ronnie Brewer celebrate a victory last season.

Sidney Moncrief and Larry Bird put on a great show in the 1979 Midwest Regional Final.

and Marquette to advance to the Sweet 16 before falling to top-ranked Massachusetts.

In 1997, Arkansas was forced to endure an NCAA inquiry, which proved fruitless, but it damaged the Hogs' recruiting. The streak of nine straight NCAA Tournament appearances ended but the Bud Walton Arena crowds were rejuvenated by three NIT games. Fans who never had the opportunity to buy Razorback basketball tickets were able to attend and helped UA advance to the NIT semifinals in New York.

It was back to the NAAs in 1998 as the Razorbacks, who got 10.4 points and an SEC-leading 9.8 rebounds per game from Nick Davis, won 24 games and reached the second round with a win over Nebraska.

Arkansas won its 10th straight NCAA Tournament first-round game in 1999 as Pat Bradley set school records for career three-point shooting (.366-.915, .400). Derek Hood recorded more double-doubles than anyone in UA history (34) and also led the league in rebounding (10.3), and Kareem Reid broke Mayberry's career record for assists (748).

UA also had one of the most unique weeks in its basketball history. The final two home games came over a five-day span against No. 5 Kentucky and No. 2 Auburn. Never before had Arkansas played two top 10 teams at home in the same week. Arkansas beat UK, 74-70, and topped Auburn, 104-88.

Following an up-and-down season in 2000, Arkansas won four games in four days, including wins over No. 16 Kentucky, No. 10 LSU and No. 23 Auburn to win the school's first SEC Tournament title. Brandon Dean was the MVP after averaging 15.2 points in the title run.

The 2001 club rebounded from an 0-3 league start with a six-game winning streak late in the year to earn Arkansas' 13th NCAA Tournament appearance in 14 years and its 15th straight postseason tournament berth.

The Nolan Richardson era came to an end in 2002 when he was released from his contract. The Razorbacks dropped to 14-15, including a 13-14 mark under Richardson. Mike Anderson was 1-1 as interim head coach for the last two games of the season.

Stan Heath has rebuilt the roster the last two years with recruiting classes ranked as high as No. 13 by Rivals.com in 2004 and No. 7 by Hoop Scoop in 2003. Ronnie Brewer, a freshman All-American, and Jonathon Modica, a second-team All-SEC pick, formed a dynamic duo in '04 as the 12-16 Hogs showed marked improvement in several areas and recorded wins over No. 22 Vanderbilt and No. 25 South Carolina.

NCAA REGIONAL FINAL
MARCH 17, 1979, AT CINCINNATI, OHIO

A Final Four team in 1978, Arkansas was not expected to return in 1979 with the loss of Ron Brewer and Marvin Delph, two of the famed "Triplets." Sidney Moncrief, however, almost single-handedly pushed his team to greater heights than anyone expected.

Moncrief, senior Steve Schall and a cast of sophomores and freshmen put together a 14-game winning streak late in the year and arrived at the Midwest Regional finals ready to challenge No. 1-ranked and unbeaten Indiana State, and superstar Larry Bird. The stakes were a spot in the Final Four.

Bird was awesome. The Hogs simply could not stop him. With 9:22 left, he already had 27 points. Razorback Coach Eddie Sutton then made the ultimate gamble. He put the 6-4 Moncrief on the 6-9 Bird for the final seven minutes.

Bird scored just four more points. Moncrief, meanwhile, was almost as unstoppable as Bird had been. He finished with 24 points and eight rebounds, and had his team in a position to win late. Arkansas had the ball with 1:31 left and holding for the last shot with the score tied 71-71.

With 1:02 remaining, U.S. Reed tripped and was called for walking, giving the Sycamores the ball.

ISU held for the last shot, but could not get the ball to Bird, who was smothered by Moncrief. It was Bob Heaton who launched the shot with two seconds left and the Hogs watched helplessly as it hit both sides of the rim before dropping through, depriving the Hogs of a second straight trip to the Final Four.

UA IN THE FINAL FOUR

During Arkansas' long, illustrious basketball history, the Razorbacks have been to the NCAA Final Four six times.

The Hogs have earned 27 bids to the NCAA Tournament and made 26 appearances, missing the 1944 event due to a car accident prior to the first-round games.

Only eight schools in the entire country have been to the Final Four more than Arkansas, and only eight schools have earned more than UA's 27 NCAA Tournament bids. Among Southeastern Conference schools, only Kentucky has been to the NCAA Tournament more often. In fact, Arkansas' 1994 national championship put the Razorbacks in the same company as the Wildcats as the only SEC schools to ever win the national championship. LSU, Georgia, Mississippi State and Florida are the only other league schools to reach the Final Four.

It was tougher to get in the tournament in the early days, but it also took fewer games to win the title.

In the 1940s, only eight teams participated in the NCAA Tournament, which first became an event in 1939. Up to that point, the NIT was the top national post-season tournament. Twice in the '40s, the Razorbacks advanced to the Final Four.

The 1941 Hogs roared through the Southwest Conference with a 12-0 mark and carried a 19-2 record into the tournament. Arkansas downed Wyoming, 65-40, to reach the Al Dillard played just 12 minutes a game during the national championship season of 1994, but he was third on the team in scoring (8.9 ppg). In the same role the following season, he averaged 6.8 points a game as the Hogs reached the NCAA title game.

It had been an incredible year for Arkansas. The Razorbacks repeated as Southwest Conference champs but had to nervously await an NCAA at-large bid when they were eliminated from the league tournament by Houston in the semifinals. The "Triplets," Ron Brewer, Sidney Moncrief and Marvin Delph, were the ringleaders of one of the greatest teams in school history.

Still, the Hogs were underdogs and a new kid on the NCAA block when they faced second-ranked UCLA in the third round at Albuquerque. David Greenwood was the leader of the Bruins, who weren't far removed from their incredible string of NCAA championships.

UCLA was stunned as Arkansas roared to a 40-22 lead that was cut to 42-29 by half-time. The Bruins didn't panic. They pressed the Hogs and took a 60-58 lead.

Brewer tied the game with two free throws, Steve Schall hit a short turnaround and Delph drilled a jump shot to put the Hogs back in front. By game's end the Razorbacks were going strong.

Delph sizzled by hitting 11 of his 14 shots, finishing with 23 points. Moncrief had 21 and Brewer 18. Greenwood finished with 17 for UCLA.

The victory moved the Razorbacks a step closer to their eventual trip to the Final Four.

Ron Brewer had 18 points while fellow "Triplets" Marvin Delph had 23 and Sidney Moncrief 21 as Arkansas beat No. 2 UCLA on the way to the 1978 Final Four.

U.S. Reed's midcourt buzzer-beater knocked off defending national champion Louisville in 1981 and was ranked by Sports Illustrated as the second-most historic event in college basketball behind North Carolina State's title game win over Houston in 1983.

A MOMENT TO REMEMBER
U. S. REED BEATS LOUISVILLE

Defending NCAA champion Louisville and Southwest Conference champion Arkansas clawed at each other for 39 minutes and 55 seconds in the second round of the NCAA Tournament and the scoreboard read Louisville 73, Arkansas 72 after Derek Smith's short jumper for the Cardinals.

The Razorbacks, who had led by six points with 2:13 left, called timeout. U.S. Reed took the inbounds pass and coolly dribbled to the midcourt area near the sideline. With a second left on the clock, he launched a desperation 49-footer. The only thing desperate after the shot was the look on the faces of the Louisville players as they watched the ball hit nothing but net.

Reed shook hands with everyone on the press table after hitting a shot that will live forever in the minds of Razorback fans. He finished with 19 points. Darrell Walker had 23 and the Hogs were still alive in the NCAA Tournament.

Lenzie Howell, who averaged 13.9 points a game for the year and was the NCAA Tournament Midwest Regional MVP, helped UA knock off Princeton, Dayton, North Carolina and Texas to reach the 1990 Final Four.

Final Four at Kansas City. Washington State handed the Razorbacks a 64-53 setback, meaning Arkansas and Pittsburgh tied for third since there was no third-place game.

UA returned in 1945, again to Kansas City. Arkansas was 16-8 entering the tournament but edged Oregon, 79-76, to reach the Final Four. Eventual national champion Oklahoma State, which Arkansas had defeated once earlier in the season, downed the Hogs and UA tied Ohio State for third place.

It took 33 years for Arkansas to return. In 1978, the Hogs were Southwest Conference champs and beat Weber State, second-ranked UCLA and California-Fullerton to advance to the Final Four at St. Louis. Top-ranked Kentucky led by just one with two minutes to play and posted a 64-59 victory.

There was a third-place game and Ron Brewer hit a buzzer shot from the top of the circle to send the Razorbacks past Notre Dame, 71-69. Brewer had 20 points and Marvin Delph 21 in their final game as Razorbacks.

Nolan Richardson guided the Hogs to the Final Four in 1990, 1994 and '95.

In 1990, wins over Princeton, Dayton, North Carolina and Texas earned Arkansas a trip to Denver. UA was 30-4 heading into a semifinal showdown with Duke.

Richardson took his club to Denver a day early to adjust to the altitude, but the Hogs fell behind early in both halves and used plenty of adrenaline to catch up. UA led 69-62 with 10:38 remaining, but ran out of gas. Duke came back and won, 97-83, but also used most of its energy. The Blue Devils were beaten by Nevada-Las Vegas in the title game while UA tied Georgia Tech for third.

The ultimate came in 1994. The Hogs downed North Carolina A&T, Georgetown, Tulsa and Michigan to advance to the Final Four at Charlotte, N.C. The win over Arizona was Arkansas' first ever in the national semifinals and set up a clash with Duke.

With the score tied with less than a minute to play, a well-defended Scotty Thurman hit a three-pointer to lead the Razorbacks to a 76-72 victory and the national title.

With every starter from the championship squad returning, the Hogs were favored to return to the Final Four in 1995, and they did. Texas Southern, Syracuse, Memphis and Virginia were knocked off along the way to the Final Four at Seattle, but none of the wins came by more than six points.

Arkansas fell behind early but rallied to get by North Carolina in the semifinals. Playing in the NCAA championship game for the second straight year, Arkansas came up short in an 89-78 loss to UCLA.

Steve Schall and Arkansas lost their 1978 Final Four semifinal game to Kentucky, but they beat Notre Dame in the third-place game.

It was Arkansas' first year as a member of the Southeastern Conference. Earlier in the season, Todd Day had exploded for a career-high 43 points as the Razorbacks defeated LSU, 101-90, at Baton Rouge. The Tigers recovered from the defeat, though, and by the time they arrived at Barnhill Arena, they had tied the Hogs for the SEC lead.

LSU's first ever visit to Fayetteville would determine the SEC championship.

The Tigers started strong. Shaquille O'Neal did his best to quiet an overflow crowd of 9,518 with 11 points in the opening half as LSU roared to a 51-36 advantage. O'Neal, however, scored his last points with 11:37 remaining to give the Tigers a 69-58 lead before the Razorbacks charged back.

Lee Mayberry, who hit a then-school record nine three-point field goals and finished with 35 points, teamed with Day, who finished with 27, to bring the Hogs from behind. Mayberry's last three-pointer tied the game at 87-all and Oliver Miller blocked O'Neal's shot at the buzzer to force overtime.

Arkansas blitzed the Tigers, 19-5, in the extra period. Day scored nine points and Mayberry had four during that time. The victory sent Barnhill Arena into a frenzy and the Razorbacks on the way to their first SEC title.

Oliver Miller had 10 points, 10 rebounds, three blocked shots and three steals against the Tigers.

THE NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP

Corliss Williamson was named the Most Outstanding Player of the 1994 Final Four after averaging 26.0 points and 10.5 rebounds in Arkansas' two wins.

Without a senior in the starting lineup, playing in the most palatial arena in college basketball with the President of the United States attending four games and led by a coach with a system that could not be drawn up on a blackboard, Arkansas vaulted into the elite of the elite when the Razorbacks won the 1994 NCAA championship.

Construction workers built Bud Walton Arena in record time and the 19,200-seat showcase dazzled fans and opponents as much as the Razorbacks did. Sellout crowds each time the doors were opened watched the Hogs go 16-0 at home. Only one game, the 84-83 victory over LSU, was decided by fewer than 10 points. UA won those 16 games by an average of 30 points.

UA blitzed Murray State, 93-67, in the Bud Walton Arena opener on Nov. 29, but the building was dedicated a few nights later when Missouri came to Fayetteville for an ESPN showcase game. The Dec. 2 game was decided in the first few minutes as Arkansas roared to a 120-68 victory over a Missouri club which went unbeaten in the Big Eight and came within one victory of reaching the Final Four.

Ranked No. 1 nationally for 10 weeks during the regular season, the Hogs lost only twice during the regular campaign. Alabama beat Arkansas, 66-64, in Tuscaloosa, and Mississippi State edged the Hogs, 72-71, in Starkville.

Sophomores Corliss Williamson and Scotty Thurman carried much of the load, and junior Corey Beck was the blue collar leader. When the Hogs had to score, they went inside to Williamson, who averaged 20.4 points per game. He shot .626 from the field and 70 percent at the free throw line.

Arkansas already had a two-game lead over Texas in the Southwest Conference when the Razorbacks invaded Austin for a nationally televised game.

The Hogs owned a four-game winning streak over the Longhorns, and it was a must-win situation for Texas. The Razorbacks led for most of the first half but Texas gained a five-point advantage midway through the second half. It was 77-72 'Horns when Todd Day fouled out for Arkansas 3:31 from the end.

Texas still led, 86-83, and had Travis Mays at the free throw line with 12 seconds left, but Mays missed the free throw and Lee Mayberry stunned the Texas crowd of more than 16,000 with a long three-pointer three seconds from the buzzer to send the game into overtime.

Arkansas made sure Texas never recovered. A three-pointer by Ernie Murry got the Hogs started and Mayberry's jumper at 3:20 put the Hogs in front to stay. Mayberry and Lenzie Howell each scored 23 points to offset 24 by Joey Wright, 23 by Mays and 22 by Lance Blanks. The victory gave Arkansas a three-game lead it never surrendered on its way to the SWC title.

Lee Mayberry's deep three sent the game to overtime and Arkansas never looked back.

The Razorbacks prepare to celebrate winning the 1994 national championship.

Thurman, though, was the last-minute hero. His three-pointer with seven seconds left gave Arkansas a one-point victory at Tennessee. He hit another three in the last 30 seconds to lift the Hogs past LSU at Baton Rouge in overtime.

Beck did much of the dirty work, defending with tenacity and leading the team in assists. He and junior Clint McDaniel probably were the best defensive guards in college basketball. Head coach Nolan Richardson certainly thought so. McDaniel also provided perimeter firepower, as did junior Dwight Stewart, Arkansas' fifth starter who was more a forward than a center.

Richardson used a deep bench to guide the Hogs to a 24-2 regular season finish. Al Dillard brought instant offense into any contest with his incredible three-point shooting range. He was Arkansas' third-leading scorer behind Williamson and Thurman (15.9 ppg) with an 8.9 average even though he played just more than 12 minutes a game. Roger Crawford, one of only two seniors on the squad, also brought instant firepower off the bench, but he was injured early in the NCAA Tournament run and was not available for the Final Four.

In his honor, UA players wore a No. 31 patch on their jerseys.

Freshmen Darnell Robinson and Lee Wilson, a pair of 6-11 centers, gave the Hogs size they didn't have in 1993 when they won 22 games and reached the Sweet 16 before falling to eventual national champion North Carolina. Senior Ken Biley and junior Elmer Martin also made significant contributions.

When President Bill Clinton visited Bud Walton Arena for a Dec. 28 blowout of Texas Southern, no one realized it would be a preview of later visits to the NCAA Tournament. The nation's most recognizable Razorback fan later appeared on the cover of Sports Illustrated wearing sweats presented by Richardson.

A 13-game winning streak was snapped by Kentucky in the SEC Tournament, but the Razorbacks were still seeded first in the Midwest Regional at Oklahoma City. Williamson scored 24 points and had seven rebounds in a 94-79 first-round victory over North Carolina A&T. He followed with 21 points and Robinson, making a surprise start, added 13 in the 85-73 second-round win over Georgetown.

Early in the year, Tulsa gave Arkansas a scare before the Hogs won in overtime, 93-91, in Tulsa. The Golden Hurricane surprised UCLA and Oklahoma State to reach the Sweet 16 with UA in Dallas. This one was no contest as Williamson and Thurman scored 21 each, and McDaniel 19 in a 103-84 victory.

Michigan was Arkansas' regional final foe and the Hogs could not contain Hakeem Olajuwon and Houston were on their way to their third consecutive Final Four, they were ranked second nationally and hadn't lost a Southwest Conference game in two years. The Cougars had gone 16-0 in 1983 and were 15-0 going into the regular season finale at Barnhill Arena.

Arkansas was outstanding as well. The Hogs already had upset top-ranked North Carolina at Pine Bluff, but at 13-2 couldn't catch Houston in the SWC standings. No one in the overflow crowd of 9,438 cared as they watched a terrific contest showcased by national television.

Olajuwon was held to 10 points before fouling out, but Michael Young picked up the slack with 22 and Alvin Franklin earned 21. They weren't as hot as the Hogs, though. Joe Kleine, whose inside power put Olajuwon in foul trouble, scored 22 points, hitting all 10 of his free throws. Charles Balentine added 16, Ricky Norton 14 and Alvin Robertson 13 points and nine assists.

Houston led at the half but saw its hopes dim when Olajuwon drew his fourth and fifth fouls in a 38-second span six minutes from the end while trying to stop Kleine inside. Kleine hit all four free throws and the Hogs had a huge victory.

Joe Kleine scored 22 points, forced Hakeem Olajuwon to foul out and the Hogs beat No. 2 Houston in 1984.

Juwan Howard, but neither could the Wolverines handle Thurman. With Williamson smothered by Michigan's inside defense and held to 12 points, Thurman tossed in 20 as UA reached the Final Four with a 76-68 win attended by President Clinton.

By the time the Hogs arrived at Charlotte, N.C., they were a confident bunch. They also had been somehow convinced by Richardson that they were not nationally respected, even though they had been ranked No. 1. Arizona was the semifinal opponent and the Wildcat guards, Damon Stoudamire and Khalid Reeves, were billed as the top offensive guards in the nation.

Beck and McDaniel were motivated to the hilt and smothered them. They combined to hit just 11 of their 43 shots, including just two of 22 three-point attempts. Williamson scored 29 points and grabbed 13 rebounds, and the Hogs advanced to the championship game with a 91-82 victory.

An entire state stood still on April 4, 1994. Arkansas fans who could not be there (more than 3,000 made the trip to Charlotte) watched and listened in every corner of the state. President Clinton was there again, and so was Duke, the 1991 and '92 national champion.

After an airtight first half that ended with Arkansas holding a 34-33 lead, Duke jumped out to a 10-point advantage in the first three minutes of the second half. However, the pace of the game picked up during the run and it never slowed down. The Razorbacks took advantage and were even with the Devils less than five minutes later.

When Arkansas built a 70-65 lead late in the contest, it looked safe, but Grant Hill's three tied the game with 1:29 remaining.

Although Williamson finished with 23 points, there was no doubt who would take the next shot for UA. Thurman launched a high-arching three-point attempt with only seconds left on the shot clock. The shot fell with 51 seconds left and when it settled through the net, the outcome had been determined. A pair of free throws by McDaniel and another by Dillard sealed Duke's fate, 76-72.

Once the national championship belonged to the Hogs, an entire state celebrated. President Clinton embraced Richardson on the court and later officially honored the Razorbacks at the White House.

The 1994 NCAA championship trophy is on display at Bud Walton Arena.

FEBRUARY 24, 1999, AT FAYETTEVILLE

Auburn hadn't won a Southeastern Conference championship in 39 years but already had clinched the title and was ranked second nationally with a 25-1 record when the Tigers came to Bud Walton Arena for Arkansas' regular season home finale.

The Razorbacks had stunned fifth-ranked Kentucky four days earlier and believed a win over Auburn would clinch a spot in the NCAA Tournament.

It was an emotional evening before the game started. Seniors Derek Hood, Pat Bradley and Kareem Reid, record-setters who persevered through four sometimes-difficult seasons, were introduced to the Bud Walton fans for the final time.

Arkansas' fans created the noisiest environment Coach Nolan Richardson, his players and long-time followers of the program could ever remember. An overflow crowd of 20,298 nearly shook the building with an incredible level of exhortation. Not a player or coach on either side completed an interview without mentioning the crowd.

The game itself was airtight throughout the first half. The Hogs surged ahead by 10 points twice but a last second three-pointer by Tiger star Chris Porter carved the advantage to four by intermission. It was a one-point game with 16:26 left but a rebound basket by Hood spurred the Razorbacks to a 30-10 run that left Auburn in shock. Both teams were quick, but the Tigers must have thought there were more than five Hogs on the floor as the noise pushed Arkansas beyond its highest previous performance level of the campaign.

When it was over, the Razorbacks had a 16-point victory and a spot secured in the NCAA Tournament. Bradley hit five three-pointers and finished with 23 points. Hood had 18 points and 13 rebounds. Reid earned 10 points and 10 assists. Junior Chris Walker added 21 points.

It was Arkansas' finest execution of the season and the entire state was buzzing about the contest long after the season was concluded.

Following a win over No. 5 Kentucky five days earlier, Kareem Reid's 10 points and 10 assists helped the Razorbacks knock off second-ranked Auburn, which came in 25-1, in 1999.

Kentucky's second-ever trip to Fayetteville was a highly-anticipated event. CBS moved the game to Super Bowl Sunday to ensure a large audience for the nationally televised event.

The Wildcats were 13-2, including 7-0 in the Southeastern Conference. Arkansas, the preseason No. 1 choice and defending national champion, had looked vulnerable at times during the season and was 15-4 with a 4-3 SEC mark.

By halftime it was obvious another special event was taking place, just as every Arkansas-Kentucky game had been. The Wildcats led by one when Reggie Garrett stunned the visitors with a halfcourt buzzer shot to give UA a 49-47 halftime lead.

UA was tied or led the entire second half until Walter McCarty's short jumper gave Kentucky an 82-80 lead with 5:19 left. From that point on, neither team led by more than four, and there were three ties and three lead changes.

The teams traded salvos until Clint McDaniel made just one free throw with 51 seconds remaining. When McCarty scored on a put-back with 24 seconds to go, UK led by one.

Scotty Thurman, UA's greatest last-second shot maker ever, made sure the crowd went home happy. He drove past UK defenders, pulled up and hit an 18-footer with eight seconds to go to put the Razorbacks in front for good. McDaniel made a baseline steal in the final second and hit a free throw for the final two-point margin.

Thurman and Corliss Williamson combined for 50 points as the Hogs won their fourth straight regular season game over the Wildcats.

Scotty Thurman's pull-up jumper with eight seconds left was the game-winner against Kentucky.

One of the many seminars and workshops Dr. Candy Erbe (back right) and the academic support/student services office put on each year assists UA's student-athletes in preparing a resume.

DR. JOHN A. WHITE
Chancellor

On July 1, 1997, Dr. John A. White became chancellor of the University of Arkansas, its 20th leader. Since that time, he has forged an ambitious agenda for the University of Arkansas to emerge as a nationally competitive, student-centered research university serving Arkansas and the world.

Perhaps the biggest step in reaching that goal occurred in April of 2002 when White, the President of the Southeastern Conference and a member of the NCAA Division I Board of Directors and Executive Committee, announced a $300 million gift from the Walton Family Foundation, the largest single gift to a U.S. public university in history. The gift is being used to establish and endow an undergraduate honors college and endow the graduate school.

Another goal is to increase the size and quality of the student body. Total enrollment has increased from 14,384 in 1997 to 17,269 in 2004. In terms of quality, the 1998 freshman class was one of the largest, and based on standardized test scores and high school grade point averages, was, at the time, the best in school history. Each class since has equaled or surpassed the 1998 class.

White has increased the number of students who receive Chancellor's Scholarships; and is continuing efforts to increase the diversity of the university's faculty, staff and student body; increase private gift support; and increase federal and state support.

Prior to joining the faculty of the University of Arkansas, White was dean of engineering at Georgia Institute of Technology, which he joined in 1975. From 1988 to 1991, he served in Washington, D.C., as assistant director for engineering and acting deputy director at the National Science Foundation.

White is a graduate of the University of Arkansas (BSIE), Virginia Tech (MSIE) and The Ohio State University (PhD). He received honorary doctorates from the Katholieke University of Leuven in Belgium and George Washington University.

In 2000, President Bill Clinton appointed Dr. White to a second six-year term on the National Science Board. Dr. White is a member of the National Academy of Engineering, past president of the Malcolm Baldrige National Quality Award Foundation, past president of the National Consortium for Graduate Degrees for Minorities in Engineering and Science, Inc., past-chairman of the American Association of Engineering Societies, and past president of the Institute of Industrial Engineers. He is a member of the Board of Directors for Eastman Chemical Company, JB Hunt Transport Systems, Inc., Logility, Inc., Motorola, Inc., and Russell Corporation.

White is married to Mary Elizabeth Quarles White and they have a daughter, a son, three granddaughters and a grandson.

HOWARD W. BRILL
Faculty Athletic Representative

In his 10th year as the University of Arkansas' faculty representative for athletics is Howard W. Brill. A law professor at UA, Brill has been a member of the university's faculty since 1975.

As faculty representative, Brill plays an integral role in the athletic department's interaction with conference and NCAA rules and regulations. He is the school's liaison between the faculty and the athletic department, and assists the athletic department in compliance matters. He is also the university's certifying official for student-athletes. He previously served as a member of the university's Faculty Athletics Committee from 1991-94 and was on a special committee to implement the SEC's Gender Equity Policy in the spring of 1994.

Brill is a 1965 graduate of Duke University and earned his law degree from the University of Florida in 1970. He received his master's of law degree in 1979 from the University of Illinois. A widely published author, Brill has written two books and numerous law review articles, and has received numerous awards honoring his teaching skills. He is licensed to practice law in Arkansas, Florida and Illinois, and is a member of the Professional Ethics and Grievances Committee of the Arkansas Bar Association and the Arkansas Judicial Ethics Advisory Committee. He is the first Vincent Foster Professor of Legal Ethics and Professional Responsibility, and has served as a Special Justice of the Arkansas Supreme Court. He is a past member of the Governor's Code of Ethics Commission and the Arkansas Improvement District Commission of the General Assembly of Arkansas.

Active in community service, Brill has served as chairman of the City of Fayetteville's Civil Service Commission, has coached youth soccer and basketball, and is a Sunday School teacher. He and his wife Katherine have three children, Christian, Elizabeth and Andrew.

FRANK BROYLES
Athletic Director

For nearly five decades, University of Arkansas Athletic Director Frank Broyles has helped define the standard of excellence in intercollegiate athletics. A legendary coach, nationally respected athletic administrator and tireless goodwill ambassador for his university and state, Broyles' influence continues to shape the Razorback program as well as impact the vast collegiate athletic landscape.

Set to enter his 48th year with UA and his 32nd year as athletic director, Broyles is as synonymous with the UA athletic program as the Hog on the side of the football helmet or even the very nickname, Razorbacks. In June 2003, Broyles was given a five-year contract extension providing him an opportunity to serve the UA for more than a half century.

His intensely competitive spirit, boundless enthusiasm and love for Arkansas has inspired him to build an athletic program that is on the cutting edge in the ever-changing world of college athletics.

There is little doubt Broyles has had more positive impact on athletics in Arkansas than any person in the history of the state. The Arkansas Democrat-Gazette confirmed his status when it named him the most influential figure in athletics in the state during the 20th Century. On July 1, 2003, he took over as the chairman of the UA's Campaign for the 21st Century. The ambitious campaign is seeking to raise $900 million for the university.

A recipient of nearly every award and accolade associated with college athletics, Broyles prefers to focus his attention on the future of the Razorback program rather than dwell on the impressive accomplishments of the past.

It is that forward-thinking style that has allowed Broyles to excel in every aspect of leadership. Perhaps his greatest contribution to the Razorback program is his knack for hiring quality head coaches and surrounding them with the tools and facilities they need to compete at the highest level.

Broyles has a history of picking the right ones as head coaches and administrators at Arkansas. UA football coach Houston Nutt has led the Razorback football team to two SEC Western Division crowns and six straight bowl games, and has revived the passion of football fans across the state. John McDonnell is the most successful collegiate coach in history, with 39 national championships in cross country, indoor and outdoor track.

Robert Cox is entering his 18th season as the coach of Arkansas' tradition-rich tennis program. The Razorback tennis team has made eight NCAA Tournament appearances in the last 11 seasons including a Sweet 16 finish in 2004.

Although blessed with a stable of quality tenured coaches, Broyles has recently re-exhibited his ability to land some of the nation's top up and coming coaches for some of the Razorbacks' most successful programs. In just the past two years, Broyles has hired high profile coaches for the Razorbacks' basketball, baseball and golf programs.

Stan Heath was a rising star in the collegiate basketball coaching world after leading Kent State to an improbable run to the NCAA Tournament's Elite Eight. By the time the 2002 Final Four was underway the next weekend, Heath was donning an Arkansas sweater vest.

Not long after legendary baseball coach Norm DeBriyn stepped down, Broyles hired Dave Van Horn. The former Razorback player and graduate assistant led Nebraska to back-to-back College World Series appearances before returning to Fayetteville. In only his second season at Arkansas, Van Horn led the Razorbacks to an SEC championship and a berth in the College World Series.

The UA golf program is once again on track after Broyles lured former UA golfer Mike Ketcham back to his alma mater.

The Arkansas AD knows facilities influence recruiting, the lifeblood of any program. He will do anything within the rules to ensure a competitive edge for his coaches when they are wooing prospective student-athletes. Broyles has made sure Arkansas has facilities second to none.

A past Division I chairman of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) and a member of that organization's executive committee, Broyles showed incredible vision when he steered the Razorbacks into the SEC. It would have been easy to maintain the status quo as one of the dominant programs of the SWC and now perhaps the Big 12 Conference, but Broyles saw the possibilities for the Hogs in the SEC and ensured a solid future for Arkansas athletics.

It is a move that has proven prosperous for both parties. In its first 13 years in the nation's top league, Arkansas has won 27 national championships and 40 SEC titles. No other league school has won more than eight national crowns in men's athletics during that span.

While most administrators would shy away from such bold moves, Broyles' vision allows him to see opportunities rather than obstacles. Years ago, Broyles saw a state with only one major athletic program and envisioned the potential for a budding Razorback program in Arkansas. He united the state behind the Hogs as they became one of the dominant college football powers of the 1960s. He has taken things a step further as athletic director.

Broyles' philosophy of hiring quality coaches and building state-of-the-art facilities has keyed an unprecedented era of success at Arkansas. In the 23 years before Broyles became athletic director, Arkansas had never captured a national championship and owned only 22 SWC titles in sports other than football. During his 31-year term as AD, the Hogs have won 40 national championships, 57 SWC titles and 40 SEC crowns in the same collection of sports. Football hasn't suffered either, with 21 bowl trips, four league championships and three SEC Western Division titles during that same span.

One of six initial inductees into the UA Sports Hall of Honor, Broyles has collected nearly as many honors as he has national and league titles. A 1983 inductee into the College Football Hall of Fame, Broyles was once again honored by the National Football Foundation in 2000 as the recipient of the John L. Toner Award. The honor recognizes an athletic director who has demonstrated superior administrative abilities and shown outstanding dedication to college athletics and particularly college football.

Broyles was a legendary athlete long before he came to Arkansas. He was a football, basketball and baseball standout at Decatur (Ga.) High School, then earned 10 letters in those three sports at Georgia Tech. He quarterbacked the Yellow Jackets to four bowl appearances, was three times All-SEC and in 1944 was named SEC Player of the Year. He set, and held until 2000, the Orange Bowl record for most passing yards in a game. He is in the Georgia Tech Hall of Fame and has been honored with the Georgia Tech Former Student-Athlete Total Person Award.

He graduated from Georgia Tech in 1947 with a degree in industrial management. He turned down professional football and baseball offers to become an assistant football coach for Bob Woodruff at Baylor.

For his efforts as head coach, an assistant coach and player he has been named to the Orange Bowl, Gator Bowl and Cotton Bowl halls of fame.

He also has become known nationally as a producer of head coaches with over 40 of his former players or assistants earning major college and/or professional positions. Former Broyles assistants Barry Switzer, John Majors and Jimmy Johnson have combined to win five national championships. Johnson, Switzer and Joe Gibbs, another Broyles assistant, coached teams to five Super Bowl titles. Broyles' protégés have won more than 40 conference titles and 2,000 games at the collegiate level.

He has had such success with assistant coaches that an award named after him has been given to the top assistant coach in college football the past seven years. The Broyles Award has become one of the most prestigious and coveted awards in college football.

Born Dec. 26, 1924, Broyles and his wife of 59 years, Barbara, have four sons, Jack, Hank, Dan and Tommy; and twin daughters, Betsy and Linda. They have 17 grandchildren: Lex, Ivan, Iris, Taylor, Madison, Molly, India, Jacob, Allison, Delaney, Jordan, Franklin, Carmen, Ramey, Whitney, Barbara and Thomas Michael Jr.

DR. DERRICK GRAGG
Senior Associate Athletic Director

Dr. Derrick Gragg was promoted to senior associate athletic director after serving his first three years as associate athletic director & director of compliance. Gragg oversees several internal and external functions, including the athletic marketing and sports information departments, Arkansas' spring sports programs, including track and field, baseball, golf and tennis, as well as the strength and conditioning program. He also oversees the department's spirit squads coordinator.

During his career, Gragg has published several articles and editorials on intercollegiate athletics as well as a nationwide study on sports-related gambling. He will serve a third year on both the NCAA's Minority Opportunities & Interests Committee and the University of Arkansas Black Alumni Society Board of Directors. He also serves as a member of the Big Brothers/Big Sisters of Northwest Arkansas Board of Directors.

A former collegiate wide receiver, Gragg lettered four years at Vanderbilt while earning his degree. He graduated with a bachelor's in human development in 1992 and was a member of the Southeastern Conference Academic Honor Roll during his senior year.

Gragg served from 1993-95 as an academic counselor at his alma mater before adding the title of director of student life in his final year at Vanderbilt. In his time with the Commodores, he coordinated student life and support programs as well as supervised the academic counseling programs for student-athletes.

In 1995, Gragg was named director of compliance & operations at the University of Missouri. During his two years in Columbia, he was the game event manager for Olympic sports programs and served on the Big 12 Compliance Coordinators Group during his last year as compliance coordinator at the university.

Named assistant athletic director for compliance at Michigan in 1997, Gragg spent three years overseeing the UM compliance department. While serving in Ann Arbor, Gragg earned his master's degree in sports administration from Wayne State University (WSU). He also served on the faculty at WSU, teaching intercollegiate sport administration and sports marketing classes. Gragg earned his doctorate in higher education administration from UA in May of 2004.

He is a member of the North American Society for the Sociology of Sport (NASSS), the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) and the Black Coaches Association (BCA).

Gragg and his wife, Sanya, have a daughter, DeSha, 10, and two sons, Avery, seven, and Phillip-Raymond, three.

BILL GRAY
Executive Associate Athletic Director

Overseeing many facets of the athletic department is former Razorback standout Bill Gray, who is now in his 17th year as associate athletic director and his second as the executive associate AD. He supervises event management, football and basketball scheduling, and postseason football and basketball.

Gray, in his 21st year at Arkansas, joined the Razorbacks as recruiting coordinator in 1984. He served in that capacity for four years before moving into full-time administration.

He is involved in capital improvement, scheduling and football and basketball game management. As recruiting coordinator, he helped build the Razorback Belle program. He was also instrumental in the creation of the Razorback Hall of Honor, now in its 15th year. He was chairman of the committee in charge of the details of Arkansas' football centennial celebration.

Gray lettered three years each in football and baseball at Arkansas while being a captain of the 1964 national championship team. He played quarterback and defensive back, and played in one Cotton Bowl and one Sugar Bowl during his career. His 68-yard toss to Jerry Lamb in the 1963 Sugar Bowl is still a school record for longest pass completion in a bowl game.

After his college career, he played professional baseball for a year in the Minnesota Twins organization, then served as a graduate assistant football coach under Frank Broyles at Arkansas for a year. He then spent four seasons as a defensive backfield coach for the Oklahoma Sooners.

He left coaching and was in the restaurant business for 12 years in Little Rock. He then served three years as business administrator for Baptist churches in Wichita, Kan., and Shreveport, La., before returning to Arkansas.

A 1966 graduate of Arkansas with a degree in business administration, Gray and his wife Peggy have four children, Ken, Mike, Kristi and Carrie, and three grandchildren, John, Carley and Jacob.

TOM DORRE
Associate Athletic Director for Business Affairs

Tom Dorre is entering his third year as associate athletic director for business affairs, but he is in his 38th year at the University of Arkansas. Dorre joined the athletic department on Aug. 22, 2002.

In his current position, Dorre oversees business operations, including budgeting and accounting, ticketing, contracts, travel and purchasing.

Before joining the athletic department, Dorre spent the previous 15 years as the associate vice chancellor for finance. In that role over his last five years, he was responsible for UA's tax compliance office and managed the in-house software development team that created and implemented the university's business and administrative strategic information system. The system included applications for budgeting, general ledger, procurement, accounts payable, position control, departmental accounting, payroll, personnel and electronic approval that met Y2K requirements and eliminated redundant data entry and the use of paper forms.

From 1987-97, Dorre, who earned an MBA from the university in 1980, managed the budget and financial affairs offices, which included all general ledger accounting functions as well as grant and contract compliance, plant and property reporting and compliance, external financial reporting, external audit compliance, and IRS compliance and reporting.

For just more than a year, from May 1993 to June 1994, he served as the interim vice chancellor for finance and administration. During that time, he managed the offices of financial affairs, business affairs, human resources, physical plant, computing service, public safety, financial management and analysis, and treasurer.

Dorre, a 1967 Arkansas graduate with a bachelor's degree in accounting, has been at the university in various positions since he graduated.

He began his career in the controllers office, a position he held from 1967-75. From 1975-81, he was UA's budget director. He worked as associate vice chancellor for administration from 1981 until becoming vice chancellor for finance in 1987.

Dorre is currently on UA's Survey Research Center Policy Board, and in the past has served on the athletic and financial advisory committees, the Student Fee Review Board and the Vice Chancellor for Finance and Administration Search Committee. He has also served two terms on the board of directors of the Economic Opportunity Agency of Washington County, Inc., among others.

Dorre and his wife Connie have one daughter, Kristy, and two grandchildren.

JERRY PUFALL

Associate Athletic Director for Facilities

Jerry Pufall is in his third year as associate AD for facilities after serving the previous two years as assistant athletic director. In his 11th year overall with the Razorbacks, he has served as an administrative assistant to baseball and director of special projects since joining the athletic department in the fall of 1994.

Pufall oversees the operation of Razorback facilities, including game day operations, scheduling, upkeep, maintenance and long-range planning for Baum Stadium, Bud Walton Arena, Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium, Randal Tyson Track Center, Willard and Pat Walker Pavilion, Dills Indoor Tennis Center, John McDonnell Field and Razorback Cross Country Course.

During the 2003-04 season, Pufall served as the construction manager for the renovation of Baum Stadium. The renovation included converting the playing surface from artificial turf to natural grass, the addition of 10 luxury suites, a suite of offices for the coaching staff, and a custom brick superstructure scoreboard system including a LED video display, message center, inning-by-inning stats and control room.

Currently, Pufall is providing construction management services for the athletic department on the 34,000 square foot strength training facility that is being added to the north side of the Willard and Pat Walker Pavilion. When finished, this facility will house an 18,000 square-foot weight training area on the third floor and 16,000 square feet of specialty areas for conditioning and the development of agility, speed and quickness. In addition, a new state of the art artificial turf infill system was installed.

During the summer of 2004, Pufall was responsible for the oversight on the renovation of the outdoor football practice facility, which included the total redesign of the sub grade, installation of a new sand based Bermuda grass field, installation of a new artificial turf infill system and the construction of a retaining wall at the north end of the west practice field.

In addition to his responsibility for facilities, Pufall supervises all technology related areas for the athletic department, including networking, game day operations, scoreboards, sound systems, video boards, laser systems and kiosk video displays in the Jerry Jones/Jim Lindsey and Tommy Boyer Hall of Champions museums.

Under his direction, the athletic department installed a full color laser system in Bud Walton Arena, the only permanent laser system installed in a collegiate basketball arena. The one-of-a-kind system is used for pre-game player introductions and halftime performances.

During the fall of 2000, the athletic department installed the largest LED video display in any sports venue in the world at Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium. The project, spearheaded by Pufall, brings state-of-the-art video entertainment, game action and instant replays to Razorback fans before, during and after games.

During the fall of 2003, the athletic department added LED video technology to Bud Walton Arena. The project provides a one-of-a-kind custom basketball goal design including four 10mm screens and two 16mm video rings. This installation, supervised by Pufall, provides Razorback fans with video quality found in only a hand full of NBA arenas across the country.

Prior to joining the Razorbacks, Pufall served 17 years as the baseball coach, computer science and math instructor at Spooner (Wis.) High School, except for one year when he was a graduate assistant at UA for Norm DeBryn. That one-year, 1987, the Razorbacks advanced to the College World Series.

The Ashland, Wis., native returned to Arkansas in 1994 as an administrative assistant to baseball, overseeing the construction of Baum Stadium at George Cole Field.

A four-sport letterman and an all-conference quarterback and pitcher at Ashland High School, he enjoyed a four-year career at Northland College.

He and his wife, Judy, have two daughters, Julie and Jodie.

PAUL KIRKPATRICK

Assistant Athletic Director for Student Life and Academic Support

In his second stint at the University of Arkansas, Paul Kirkpatrick is in his 11th year as the director of student life and academic support. In his previous stint, he was an academic counselor and dorm manager for the athletic department for three years.

His duties include overseeing the Office of Student Life and Academic Support system as well as serving as a staff liaison with the academic community.

Kirkpatrick also spent a year as compliance coordinator and academic coordinator at the University of Nevada-Reno.

He first came to Arkansas in the fall of 1985 to attend graduate school. He served two and a half years as hall manager at Bud Walton Hall, the athletic dorm, and three years in Arkansas' academic-athletic support system.

Born June 30, 1954, at Texarkana, Ark., Kirkpatrick graduated from Magnolia High School in 1972. He was an all-district football player and also earned letters in basketball and track.

He earned a football scholarship at Southern Arkansas and graduated with a degree in political science in 1976. He then served as a captain in the Army for six years, spending the last five years as a helicopter pilot.

Kirkpatrick went into investment banking before deciding to enroll at Arkansas. He had done additional graduate work in human resources management at Pepperdine while in the Army.

He and his wife, Lisa, have a blended family of four children, Erin, Rachel, Amanda Arnold and Ryan Arnold. He is also the proud grandfather of Blake Andrew Wilson and Elijah Aron Helf.

MATT SHANKLIN

Assistant Athletic Director for Marketing and Licensing

In the high profile world where name recognition is everything, selling the Razorbacks and making sure the public is aware of the Razorbacks is the job of Assistant Athletic Director for Marketing and Licensing Matt Shanklin.

In his 15th year after joining the Razorback staff from East Carolina University, Shanklin is in charge of all department marketing/promotions, corporate sponsorships, signage sales and advertising sales for Razorback game programs. He serves as game coordinator for football and basketball, and is game manager for all baseball games. He also coordinates all sales and programming for the football, basketball and baseball video boards, and for the athletic department web site, Hogwired.com. Shanklin oversaw a redesign of the site and the addition of Arkansas National Bank as the site's title sponsor in the last three years.

He also works closely with the football and basketball radio and television networks. Shanklin was instrumental in establishing the school's first baseball radio network in 1992, one of the nation's largest with more than 20 affiliates statewide. He is responsible for overseeing all football pregame activities, including The SBC Trough. Shanklin spearheaded the "Nuttin' But Fun" logo campaign for the 1999 and 2000 Razorback football seasons. He was also instrumental in developing the Hogpen, a tailgating area for fans at Baum Stadium.

In September 1998, Shanklin became the university's licensing coordinator. His duties include coordination of all apparel, promotional and novelty licensing. Since taking over licensing duties, revenues in that area have increased annually under his direction. In the summer of 2001, Shanklin oversaw the development and implementation of new Razorback logos. Since the launch of the new logos, licensing revenues have increased more than 40 percent.

In 2000, Shanklin secured an exclusive telecommunications sponsorship with SBC/Cingular Wireless, one of the largest sponsorship deals in collegiate athletics. The deal provides Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium with the largest video board of any sports venue in the world.

Shanklin was assistant marketing director at East Carolina University for a year before coming to Arkansas. He had served as an intern at Arkansas for five months before joining the ECU staff.

A 1984 graduate of South Mecklenburg (N.C.) High School in Charlotte, N.C., where he lettered in baseball and soccer, Shanklin earned his degree in communications from North Carolina-Wilmington in 1988.

A graduate of Ohio University's highly respected sports administration program, Shanklin earned a master's degree in that program in the fall of 1989.

An avid golfer, Shanklin married the former Missy Emmerson of Jacksonville, Texas, in 2003. She has a daughter, Jordan, nine, and is the director of Pagnozzi Charities, which benefits Razorback baseball and area youth sport scholarship programs.

KEVIN TRAINOR Assistant Athletic Director for Sports Information

In his 10th year with the Razorbacks and his second as assistant athletic director for sports information is Kevin Trainor. Trainor, who is in his fifth year heading UA's sports information office, joined the Razorbacks in July of 1995 and served three years as assistant director before being promoted to associate in 1998 and to the sports information director's post in 2000.

As assistant athletic director and SID, Trainor oversees the media and public relations effort for Arkansas' eight men's sports locally, regionally and nationally. He is also responsible for developing and implementing public relations strategies for the athletic department including chairing the Razorback Image Enhancement Committee. The primary media contact for the Razorback football program, his responsibilities include coordinating media requests for head coach Houston Nutt, the UA assistant football coaching staff and football student-athletes.

Trainor coordinates the day-to-day operation of the sports information department as well as game-day management for football. He also oversees administrative matters, including the production of media guides, game programs and management of the department's web site, Hogwired.com. In his role as associate SID, Trainor worked closely with football and served as the primary contact for the 2000 SEC Tournament champion Arkansas basketball squad. He also served as the color analyst on the Razorback Baseball Radio Network for five years.

In his previous three seasons, Trainor was the media relations point man for Arkansas' nationally ranked tennis and baseball programs.

Before joining the Razorbacks full-time, Trainor served a year internship with the Southeastern Conference Media Relations Office where he assisted in coordinating publicity for 11 of the conference's 19 sports.

Trainor served a four-year stint as a student in the UA publicity office before graduating in 1994 with a bachelor's degree in broadcast journalism. While a student assistant with the Razorbacks, Trainor served as the swimming and diving contact for three years and was part of the media relations team which handled the 1994 national champion Arkansas basketball team at the Final Four in Charlotte. He also served as publicity coordinator for the 1992 National Baseball Congress World Series in Wichita, Kan.

His collegiate experience includes 28 conference championships and he served as the assistant media coordinator for the 1995 SEC Women's Basketball Tournament. He has worked on the event management staffs of 10 Cotton Bowl games and the 1995 USF&G Sugar Bowl.

He is a member of the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA), the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA) and the U.S. Basketball Writers Association of America (USBWAA).

Trainor and his wife, the former Ruth Whitehead, reside in Fayetteville and are the parents of Emma, three, and Ellie, born Sept. 29. The Fredonia, Kan., native is the brother of former Arkansas All-American placekicker Kendall Trainor.

TONI BARGER BAHN Television Show Coordinator / Walton Arena Assistant Manager

Toni Bahn is in her fourth year as the Houston Nutt and Stan Heath television shows coordinator and assistant Walton Arena manager. Before joining the staff on a full-time basis, she worked the previous year and a half in the athletic department as a graduate assistant.

As assistant manager she serves as the primary on-site contact person for the arena and is responsible for scheduling all arena events and activities in coordination with the athletic department and outside users. Her guest relations responsibilities include responding to the needs of the 35 basketball suite holders, season ticket holders, campus and community usage requests and providing guided tours for local and regional groups.

In addition to her arena duties, the Jacksonville, Ark., native serves as the coordinator for "The Stan Heath Show" and "The Houston Nutt Show." As coordinator, she secures and maintains sponsorships, oversees the production of advertising, and plans and supervises hospitality events throughout the seasons.

Bahn earned her bachelor's in communication and political science from Arkansas in 2000.

On July 24, she married Chris Bahn, a sportswriter for the Morning News of Northwest Arkansas and a graduate of Arkansas State University.

Born, April 27, 1978, Bahn, a former Razorback Belle, was an honor graduate of Jacksonville High School.

BART BYRD Academic Coordinator

Bart Byrd is beginning his second full year as an academic coordinator at Arkansas, but he is going into his third season working with the football team after joining the staff on Nov. 4, 2002.

In addition to football, he also works with the golf and tennis teams, assists in on-campus recruiting and works with members of the faculty.

He joined the UA staff after spending the previous four years as the Director of the Neill Morris Learning Center for Student-Athletes at Baylor University. In 2000, he was recognized for his efforts as the recipient of the Big XII Bravo Award for Outstanding Faculty/Staff Member. Before going to Baylor, he was an assistant baseball and football coach at Waco High School for one year and the head baseball coach and ninth-grade football coach at Trinity High School the year before.

A 1992 graduate of Ouachita Baptist University, he was a four-year letterman in baseball. The Duncanville, Texas, native is married to Kelly and earned his master's in 1994 from Henderson State.

TIM CHENEY Equipment Manager

The Razorbacks could not play a game without uniforms and pads, and for 14 years Tim Cheney has made sure Arkansas' equipment was where it was supposed to be when it was supposed to be there.

Entering his 15th year as equipment manager, he is in charge of handling all aspects of Arkansas' equipment, including distribution to athletes, repair and ordering as well as laundering. Long after the Hogs have left practice, Cheney and his staff are making sure everything is clean for the following day's workout.

Cheney was around the Razorback program long before he became equipment manager. He worked four years as a student trainer for Dean Weber, working all four seasons with football as well as a year with baseball. He became an assistant in the equipment room before assuming his current position in 1990.

He has worked numerous bowl games at Arkansas, including four Cotton bowls, the Orange Bowl, the Florida Citrus Bowl, the Holiday Bowl, two Liberty bowls, the CarQuest Bowl, two Independence bowls, the Music City Bowl and the Las Vegas Bowl.

Born May 26, 1966, Cheney was a student athletic trainer at Pine Bluff White Hall High School for three years before graduating in the spring of 1984. He and his wife, Tracey, have one daughter, Tye, nine, and one son, Tripp, five.

ANDY COMMER

Video Coordinator

In his eighth year with the Razorbacks is Andy Commer, who has 15 years of experience as video coordinator plus two years of experience in the NFL.

In addition to shooting and editing all football games and practices, he is also involved in the video board production at basketball, indoor track and baseball games, and special events.

Commer came to Arkansas in May of 1997 after serving in the same capacity for two seasons at Ole Miss and for six seasons at Mississippi State.

A native of Pine Bluff, Commer earned his bachelor's degree in communication from Arkansas State in 1987. He received a master's degree in athletic administration from Mississippi State in May of 1996.

Prior to his tenure at Mississippi State, Commer served two years as assistant video coordinator with the Atlanta Falcons of the NFL. He was a student filmer and student athletic trainer while earning his degree from Arkansas State.

Born July 16, 1964, Commer enjoys fishing and running. He and his wife, Amy, have two sons, Jacob, five, and Will, two.

DON DECKER

Head Strength and Conditioning Coach

Don Decker is in his 12th year as a member of the Razorback staff and his seventh year as head strength and conditioning coach. He served as assistant strength and conditioning coach five years before being elevated to his current position.

In May, he earned the designation of master level strength coach by the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association. He is one of just 43 strength and conditioning coaches in the world to earn that honor.

Football is his first responsibility, but Decker oversees strength and conditioning for all men's sports. He was in charge of the basketball weight program for eight years and has also been in charge of baseball.

During his tenure with the Razorbacks, Decker has been to the Final Four twice, including 1994 when the Hogs won the national championship. He also worked with the 1995 and 2002 football squads that won SEC Western Division titles. In his first year as head strength and conditioning coach, 1998, the Razorbacks won a share of the SEC Western Division title and played in the Florida Citrus Bowl on New Year's Day. The Razorback baseball team won the Southeastern Conference regular season crown in 1999. In his second year at the helm, Arkansas defeated Texas in the 2000 Southwestern Cotton Bowl Classic while the 2000 club played in the Las Vegas Bowl, the 2001 team played in the 2002 Cotton Bowl, the 2002 team played in the Music City Bowl and the 2003 team played in the Independence Bowl.

He came to Arkansas from Kent State where he was head strength coach for football during the 1991 and 1992 seasons. Before going to Kent he was a graduate assistant in the weight room at Arkansas. He worked with the 1989 football Razorbacks, who won the Southwest Conference crown and played in the Cotton Bowl. He earned a master's degree in exercise science from Arkansas in 1991 before leaving for Kent.

Decker was a high school football standout at Perry High School in Masillon, Ohio, where he graduated in 1984. He went to Evangel College where he was all-district, all-conference and an honorable mention All-American at quarterback. He received his degree in physical education from Evangel in 1988.

Decker, 38, and his wife Stacey have been married 15 years.

DAWN DIDIER

Assistant Athletic Trainer

After two years as an intern under Dean Weber, Dawn Didier joined the Razorback training staff as a full-time member on May 1, 2004.

As assistant athletic trainer, the Baton Rouge, La., native is responsible for day-to-day operations of the training room, as well as coordinating their students for football practice and games, and assisting with team travel for away games. She also serves as the liaison between the training room and the entry-level master's athletic training education program.

At Robert E. Lee High School, Didier lettered in volleyball, basketball, softball and threw the javelin in track. She continued her collegiate basketball career at the University of Louisiana-Lafayette before taking up athletic training at LSU two years later.

At LSU, Didier earned a bachelor's in kinesiology in 2000 and a master's in the same in 2002. She was on the Dean's List each year in college.

ROBBY EDWARDS

Associate Sports Information Director

Robby Edwards is entering his fifth year with the Razorbacks as associate sports information director.

Edwards coordinates game and media operations for basketball, edits the basketball game program, assists with football, supervises football press box operations and tennis, and helps maintain the athletic department web site, Hogwired.com. He also supervises UA's student staff, assists in the coordination of photography and serves on the Razorback Image Enhancement Committee.

Joining the staff just prior to the start of basketball practice in October of 2000, Edwards spent 10 years, five as an assistant and five as the SID, at Louisiana-Monroe, formerly Northeast Louisiana University.

As SID, Edwards handled all publicity for football and men's basketball while overseeing a 17-sport athletic department. His appointment to SID coincided with the school's elevation from I-AA football status to I-A in 1994.

Before moving to Fayetteville, he spent just under two years as the executive/financial communication coordinator at CenturyTel, Inc., a telecommunications company headquartered in Monroe, La. He wrote copy for and assisted in the production of the company's annual report and three employee publications, helped coordinate the release of earnings and quarterly reports, served on the acquisition and Y2K teams, and helped coordinate the shareholder's meeting.

Edwards worked the 1993 men's Final Four in New Orleans and supervised the stat crew at the Independence Bowl from 1992 to 1997. His releases, media guides and game programs have earned awards from the College Sports Information Directors of America and the Louisiana Sports Writers Association, including the 2003 national "Story of the Year" award from CoSIDA and the 2003-04 Game Day basketball program which was judged second-best in the nation. He is a member of CoSIDA, the Basketball Writers Association of America and the Football Writers Association of America.

The Pearl, Miss., native worked as a graduate assistant for two years in the SID office at ULM before spending a year as a sports writer at the Lake Charles (La.) American Press.

A 1986 graduate of Southern Mississippi with a bachelor's in journalism, he received his master's in communication from ULM in 1988.

Edwards is married to Apryl, a Springdale High School English teacher, and they have three girls, Aubrey, eight, Cara, seven, and Josie, three.

DR. CANDY ERBE

Career Development Coordinator

Dr. Candy Erbe is in her seventh year as career development coordinator. Her responsibilities include the career development program, which assists student-athletes in exploring career options, choosing a major, gathering information about professional opportunities within their selected major and securing summer internships.

She coordinates workshops on resume writing, interview skills and business etiquette. She also assists student-athletes in their employment search after graduation. Erbe is responsible for the Razorback Career Connection program, which utilizes a network of former Razorbacks and other community members to provide information and employment opportunities to Razorback student-athletes.

Before joining the Athletic Department in October 1997, Erbe served as a cooperative education program coordinator in Career Services where she worked with the College of Business Administration. Prior to that, she was an instructor in the Department of Vocational Education in the College of Education at the University of Arkansas.

Erbe earned her bachelor's degree in university studies from the University of New Mexico. She earned a master's, specialist and doctoral degree in vocational education from the University of Arkansas.

Erbe has two grown sons. Chris lives in Springdale, as does her other son, Jonathan, with his wife Jodi and two sons, Corey and Josh.

BOB GRANT Assistant Sports Information Director

Bob Grant is entering his fourth year as assistant sports information director. He joined the staff on Sept. 5 of 2001.

The primary contact for UA's baseball program, which is coming off a College World Series appearance, Grant also assists in the publicity of the Razorback football program and serves as the printing coordinator for men's athletics. He is also the editor of Game Day, Arkansas' official football game program, and assists in the operation of the department's official web site, Hogwired.com.

Grant moved to Arkansas after working as an intern at Auburn University for one year and working another year at Ole Miss. While at Auburn, he was editor of the Auburn Football Illustrated game program, which was voted "Best in the Nation" by the College Sports Information Directors of America in 2001. Grant served as the primary contact for softball, men's and women's tennis, and gymnastics.

In his year at Ole Miss, Grant was the primary contact for softball and soccer while also assisting in the day-to-day responsibilities with football.

Born Dec. 17, 1972, Grant earned his bachelor's in journalism from Auburn in 1998.

TIMOTHY GUNTER Razorback Marching Band Director

Timothy Gunter is the director of athletic bands and assistant professor of music at Arkansas, where he is responsible for the day-to-day operations of the total band program. He serves as the director of the Razorback Marching Band and the Hogwild Basketball Pep Band, and is the conductor of the UA Symphonic Band. Gunter also teaches courses for music education majors, helps supervise student teachers, is the faculty advisor for Tau Beta Sigma and leads the recruiting efforts for the band division of the Music Department.

A native of Hope, Ark., Gunter has 24 years of teaching experience at all levels of instrumental music, including seven years at Woodland Junior High School in Fayetteville. His last position was at Rutgers University in New Brunswick, N.J., where he served as the associate director of bands and director of athletic bands. He was director of the RU Scarlet Knights Marching Band and the basketball pep bands, conductor of the University Concert Band, associate conductor of the RU Wind Ensemble, instructor of the marching band techniques course and helped supervise student teachers.

Gunter earned both of his degrees from Arkansas, a BSE in music education in 1979 and a master's of music in conducting in 1993, while serving as a graduate assistant. He has served as a clinician and adjudicator throughout the south and north-east, including stops in Arkansas, Oklahoma, Missouri, Texas, Louisiana, Tennessee, South Carolina, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Virginia, New York and Connecticut.

He is affiliated with several professional and honorary organizations, including Phi Beta Mu Bandmasters Fraternity, National Bandmasters Association, Arkansas Bandmasters Association, Arkansas School Band and Orchestra Association, Music Educators National Conference, College Band Directors National Association, Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia, Kappa Kappa Psi, Tau Beta Sigma and Pi Kappa Lambda.

He is currently vice president of the state chapter of Phi Beta Mu and state chairperson of the National Band Association.

FLINT HARRIS Academic Counselor

Flint Harris is beginning his first year as a full-time academic counselor, but he joined the staff after working more than two years as a graduate assistant in the Bob and Marilyn Bogle Academic Center.

In his full-time position, Harris monitors the academic progress of student-athletes in track, baseball and tennis. He conducts weekly meetings with each athlete, e-mails their professors and coaches, and monitors their class schedules. During the 2003-04 academic year, Harris helped guide the track and tennis teams to the two highest team grade point averages on campus.

Harris, who worked in the student life and academic support office as a graduate assistant from February 2002 until becoming a full-time staff member in August, graduated with honors from the University of Arkansas in 2002 with a bachelor's in education. He received his master's with an emphasis in sports management in 2003 and is currently working on a doctorate in adult education.

Harris graduate from Oakridge High School in Arlington, Texas, in 1998. He is married to the former Rebekah Clemons of North Little Rock.

RODGER HUNTER Student Life Coordinator

Rodger Hunter is in his fifth year at Arkansas after becoming UA's student life coordinator on Oct. 31, 2000.

Hunter serves as a liaison with the departments of financial aid and residence life in assisting student-athletes with applications, federal aid, scholarship money, housing and meal plan contracts, and dorm assignments, and he helps develop programs which assist in their personal development.

As an administrator of the CHAMPS/Life Skills program, he coordinates programs which will benefit student-athletes in several areas, including values clarification, understanding diversity, personal health, developing self-esteem, stress management, interpersonal communication, media relations, financial planning, sports agents, alcohol and drug education, gambling and social development. He also provides UA's student-athletes with community service opportunities.

Hunter, who played football at Oklahoma State from 1977-78 before transferring to Arkansas State and earning his bachelor's in broadcasting, came to Arkansas after working as an outreach coordinator at Freedom House, a drug and alcohol treatment center in Russellville, Ark., for four years. His duties included serving as a facility manager, detox specialist, and a residential and outpatient counselor.

He was named the 1998 Arkansas Counselor of the Year. He currently serves as the contact person for coaches and student-athletes for all judicial issues and assists with the recruitment of prospective student-athletes on recruiting weekends and when prospective recruits are on campus.

An all-state performer in football and basketball as a senior at North Little Rock Ole Main High School, he made the USFL's Memphis Showboats in 1983 but was released before the first game.

Hunter has four grown children. Justin Slaughter, his youngest, is a member of the Razorback football team.

BRENT LALE Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach

In his fifth year as assistant strength and conditioning coach, Brent Lale teams with Don Decker to coordinate the Razorbacks' strength and conditioning program. He is familiar with the Razorback program after stints as a student assistant and a graduate assistant prior to his hiring as Decker's top assistant.

His primary responsibilities include assisting with football strength and conditioning while heading up the regimen for the baseball squad. He traveled with the baseball team last season as the Razorbacks reached the College World Series.

Lale returned to Arkansas after serving as the head strength and conditioning coach for a year at the University of Arkansas-Little Rock. At UALR, Lale oversaw weight and conditioning programs for 16 Division I sports. He also developed nutritional programs for the various squads.

A native of Fort Smith, Lale first served two years as a student trainer working primarily with football, and track and field under the guidance of Razorback head trainer Dean Weber. In his two-and-a-half years as a graduate assistant in the weight room, he worked closely with the Razorback basketball team, including the 1999 squad that advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament. In 2001, the basketball team returned to the NCAA Tournament. He has also been a part of football squads that played in the 1995 CarQuest Bowl, the 1999 Florida Citrus Bowl, the 2000 Las Vegas Bowl, the 2002 Cotton Bowl, the 2002 Music City Bowl and the 2003 Independence Bowl.

Lale earned one degree from the University of Arkansas in exercise science in 1997 and is working on a master's in sports management. Lale is also certified as an Olympic lifting coach by the USA Weight Lifting Association and through the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association.

He has a daughter, Avory Adison, two.

ERIC LINSON
Assistant Trainer

Eric Linson is in his fourth year at Arkansas after joining the UA athletic training staff on May 14, 2001. He works primarily with football.

This past summer, he was named the state's athletic trainer of the year by the Arkansas Athletic Trainers Association.

A 1998 graduate of Arkansas, he returned to Fayetteville after working three years as an athletic trainer and public relations coordinator at The River Valley Sports Medicine clinic in Fort Smith, Ark. He worked with physicians and orthopedic surgeons at the River Valley Orthopaedic Center in the care of patients. While working at the clinic, he also served as athletic trainer at the University of Arkansas at Fort Smith, working primarily with volleyball, men's and women's basketball, and baseball.

The 1991 graduate of Fort Smith Northside High School worked as a student athletic trainer under UA head trainer Dean Weber while earning his bachelor's in zoology.

In 1994, he was the first student president of the Arkansas Athletic Trainers' Association. In 2002, he was honored by the National Athletic Trainers' Association for outstanding public relations efforts during 2001.

Linson got his start in athletic training at the Parker Orthopaedic, Spine and Sports Medicine clinic in Van Buren, working during the summers of 1990-92.

JUSTIN MALAND
Athletic Facilities Operations Manager

A native of Harrison, Ark., Justin Maland is in his fourth year as Arkansas' athletic facilities operations manager.

In his position, Maland assists with all areas of facility management, including planning, scheduling, record keeping and special events management for all athletic department activities. His duties also include managing the custodial and maintenance staffs, monitoring expenditures, planning preventive maintenance services, establishing a system for economic utility management, documenting records necessary to maintain warranties on athletic facility systems and assisting in establishing operating budgets. He also assists with a variety of facility projects and renovations in the athletic department, including the recent renovations and expansion of Baum Stadium.

Maland was a catcher at Hendrix College where he earned his business economics degree with an emphasis in computer studies in 1999 before coming to Arkansas and serving two years with the Arkansas baseball program as a graduate administrative assistant. He went on to earn his master's degree in sports management in July of 2001.

Maland, 27, is married to the former Sarah Parnell of Booneville.

JEAN NAIL
Spirit Group Coordinator

In her 23rd year as spirit group coordinator for the Razorbacks is Jean Nail. She coordinates the selection and performance schedule of the Razorback cheerleaders, pom squad, RBI girls and mascots.

As coordinator of the spirit groups and the Razorback mascots, Nail paces her student spirit leaders through daily practices in preparation for Arkansas football, basketball and baseball events. The groups also appear at various university functions throughout the year and are active in summer camp seminars and competitions. Under her direction, the Razorback spirit groups have won numerous competitive awards and will compete in both cheerleading and dance team national competitions this fall.

Nail is married to Mike Nail, the play-by-play "Voice of the Basketball Razorbacks" for the last 23 seasons. Nail received her bachelor's in 1986 and master's in 1987 in education from Arkansas.

Jean and Mike have two daughters, Michelle (Mrs. Doug) Kehn and Elsa (Mrs. Scott) Salrin and are the proud grandparents of John Michael Kehn, nine, and Aubrey Ann Kehn, six.

DONITA RITCHIE
Associate for Administration

Since 1979, Donita Ritchie has served as associate for administration to Athletic Director Frank Broyles with the exception of a year-and-a-half absence during which she lived in Austin, Texas, where she was executive assistant to the senior partner and executive vice president of one of the most prestigious architectural firms in Texas.

A 1968 graduate of the University of Arkansas, Ritchie received the senior scholar award as the top honor graduate of the College of Education.

Ritchie is in charge of assisting the athletic director in the daily operation of the athletic department as well as serving in a public relations capacity. She plays a key role in the department's communication with leaders of athletics and business communities throughout the state and nation. Additionally, under Ritchie's direction is the coordination and scheduling of the university's flight department. She also coordinates the selection of furnishings and décor for the athletic offices and facilities.

Ritchie and her husband Buddy have four sons, Will and Winston Hubbard, and Steve and Mike Ritchie. Will and his wife Emily call the Hogs in the north Dallas area along with Winston and his wife Vicki, and their two junior cheerleaders – Jessi, eight, and Reagan, five. Steve and his wife Dee Ann live in Rogers and Mike is an academic coordinator at Arkansas.

MIKE RITCHIE
Academic Counselor

In his second stint at Arkansas, Mike Ritchie rejoined the student life and academic support staff this year after spending the 2003-04 year at East Carolina as director of football operations.

Before going to ECU, he was an academic counselor at UA for four years. He first joined the staff in 1999 after working as the head men's basketball coach at Arkansas-Monticello.

As a counselor, he provides resources and assists student-athletes in their pursuit of a degree. He also works as a liaison between student-athletes and faculty members as well as assisting with on-campus recruiting visits.

Ritchie began his career in collegiate athletics at his alma mater, Arkansas Tech, where he served as a women's assistant basketball coach for four seasons. During his tenure, the Golden Suns won the 1991 NAIA national title.

He was the women's basketball head coach at Hendrix College for two years and was named the 1994 Southern Collegiate Athletic Conference Coach of the Year. He was also an assistant at Arkansas State for a year while working as a physical education instructor at the university.

Named women's head basketball coach at Christian Brothers University in 1995, he coached two seasons at the Memphis, Tenn., school, guiding his teams to back-to-back runner-up finishes in the NAIA Southeast Region. His 16-victory inaugural season was the most wins at the school in 12 years and helped him earn the first of two Tennessee Collegiate Athletic Conference (TCAC) Coach of the Year honors.

He served one season as the women's associate head coach at Arkansas-Monticello before taking over the men's program in 1998. Inheriting a team that had won a total of nine games in the three previous seasons, Ritchie led the Boll Weevils to nine wins and a spot in their first Gulf South Conference Tournament. His squad responded with an upset of top-seeded host Lincoln Memorial.

Ritchie earned a pair of degrees in health and physical education from Arkansas Tech with a bachelor's in 1991 and a master's in 1993. He is currently pursuing a doctorate in adult and vocational education at UA.

MARK SCOBEY
Ticket Manager

Charged with the supervision of ticket operations for all University of Arkansas men's athletic department-related sporting events, Mark Scobey is in his 28th season with the Razorbacks.

During his tenure at the University of Arkansas, Scobey has assisted with ticket sales for a wide assortment of events on the Fayetteville campus, including SEC and NCAA hosted championship events in baseball, tennis and track. He has also been affiliated with 19 postseason football bowl games, the 1995 & 2002 SEC football championship game, and 21 postseason basketball tournament teams, including the 1978, 1990, 1994, & 1995 Final Four clubs.

In December 2002, Scobey worked with Paciolan Systems, Inc., as the project manager for a major software upgrade of the athletic department ticketing system. The addition of on-line ticket sales is now 35% of ticket volume and has given the ticket office staff more time for customer service.

Scobey joined the UA athletic staff in 1977 as an assistant athletic ticket manager and became ticket manager in 1983.

A native of Warren, Ark., Scobey lives in historic Eureka Springs.

KERRY SHEPARD Director of Guest Services

With the expansion and renovation of Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium prior to the 2001 season, Kerry Shepard was hired on June 4 of that year as the university's first director of guest services.

Shepard, a 1994 journalism graduate of Oklahoma State, is in her fourth year supervising event service and operation activities in the premium seating areas of the stadium, and managing event staff.

She joined the Arkansas staff after working as the director of marketing/promotions and game operations at Oklahoma State from 1995-2001. After earning her bachelor's from OSU, she was a traveling consultant for Pi Beta Phi for a year.

A 1990 graduate of Edmond (Okla.) Memorial High School, she is married to Thad, a 1996 Arkansas graduate.

JASON SUITT Marketing Coordinator

Jason Suitt is in his fourth year as marketing coordinator but his sixth year overall in the marketing office after working his first two years as an intern.

A 1998 graduate of South Carolina with a bachelor's in sports administration, Suitt coordinates game program advertisement sales, assists in game management and promotional material design, helps maintain the athletic department's web site, Hogwired.com, coordinates the SBC Trough tailgating area and serves as assistant general manager of the Razorback Baseball Radio Network.

Prior to joining UA's staff, he worked as an intern in the marketing and sports information offices at The Citadel in Charleston, S.C.

Suitt is a 1994 graduate of Sumter (S.C.) High School, where he lettered in baseball. He is engaged to Laura Hulett of Newport, Ark., and they will be married in October.

MARK TAYLOR Assistant Equipment Manager

Continuity has been a feature of Arkansas' equipment department with a combined 27 years of experience between manager Tim Cheney and assistant equipment manager Mark Taylor.

Taylor is in his 14th year while Cheney is in his 15th season with the Razorbacks.

Taylor joined the athletic department in 1991 after serving in the equipment room at Nicholls State University in Thibodaux, La. He has made eight bowl trips with the Razorbacks, including the 1991 Independence Bowl, the 1995 CarQuest Bowl, the 1999 Florida Citrus Bowl, the 2000 Cotton Bowl, the 2000 Las Vegas Bowl, the 2002 Cotton Bowl, the 2002 Music City Bowl and the 2003 Independence Bowl.

An all-district football and basketball player at Harmony Grove High School in Camden, Taylor worked in the equipment room at Ouachita Baptist for four years while working on his degree. He graduated from high school in 1983 and earned his degree in health and physical education from Ouachita in 1988.

He spent his first year out of college in private business before accepting a position at Nicholls State. He earned his master's degree in education and supervision from Nicholls State while working for the equipment department.

Taylor and his wife, Kim, have two daughters, Anna, 10, and Abby, six.

FRED VORSANGER Walton Arena Manager

Managing Bud Walton Arena is a full-time job that requires a capable person to handle the many complexities and intricacies associated with operating a 19,200-seat arena. Fred Vorsanger assumed that responsibility when he accepted Frank Broyles' invitation in 1992 to become the first manager of Bud Walton Arena. Vorsanger is entering his 13th year in that position.

In conjunction with the athletic department and outside users, he oversees all arena special events and activities. Customer service responsibilities include responding to the needs of 35 private suite holders and all season ticket holders. He is also responsible for the building's mechanical operations and preventative maintenance.

A veteran of higher education, a long-time employee of the university, a friend of the Razorbacks and a vice-president emeritus of the University of Arkansas, Vorsanger's name is listed as director on the letterhead of many area firms and organizations. He is a director of McLroy Bank and Trust, and was a director of Tyson Foods, Inc., from 1977 to 2001, and is a director and chairman of Ozark Guidance Foundation, a member of the Northwest Arkansas Business Council, an advising director of Habitat for Humanity and a trustee of the Council on Aging Foundation. He is currently chairman of the Area Health Education Center Advisory Board. He is a member of the Board of Directors of the American Heart Association and was named citizen of the year in 2003.

A former alderman and Mayor of the city of Fayetteville, Vorsanger continues to be active in civic affairs. A Rotarian for 35 years, he served in 1997 as Governor for District 6110 covering parts of Arkansas, Oklahoma, Kansas and Missouri. The Arkansas Alumni Association honored him at Homecoming in 1998 by naming him an honorary alumnus of the university. He also serves on the university steering committee for the Campaign for the 21st Century, and is co-chair of the North Arkansas Region.

A native of Calumet City, Ill., Vorsanger received his bachelor's degree in business administration from Indiana University. He earned an MBA from George Washington University and did advanced study at the University of Arkansas. Vorsanger and his wife, Doreen, have three children and five grandchildren.

DEAN WEBER Director of Athletic Training

Director of Athletic Training Dean Weber is truly the dean of the football department. Other than Athletic Director Frank Broyles, Weber has been associated with UA football longer than anyone else. The 2004 football season is his 32nd with the Razorbacks.

Weber's duties include serving as head trainer for the football Hogs, overseeing operations in the training room, administration, coordinating the complex travel schedule and details associated with Arkansas' football team and organizing the 140-plus team travel party's travel and nutritional needs while away from campus.

A 1998 inductee into the Arkansas Athletic Trainers' Association Hall of Fame and a 2000 inductee into the UA Sports Hall of Honor, Weber was the trainer for the United States Olympic Team at the 1984 games. He has served on the training staff at three National Sports Festivals.

Also a member of the Southwest Athletic Trainers' Association Hall of Fame, he is noted for his work with athletic shoes as they apply to playing surfaces and his research on turf toe injuries. In 1998, Weber and former assistant Kevin Pitts were recognized by the Arkansas Athletic Trainers' Association as the state's Athletic Trainers of the Year.

Weber joined the Arkansas staff in March 1973, after serving as assistant trainer at North Carolina. He worked for the Tar Heels for five years before moving to Fayetteville.

His career as an athletic trainer began in high school at Fairfax, Va. He continued in his college days at Bridgewater (Va.) College, where he graduated in 1967 with a bachelor of arts degree.

He has participated in 24 bowl games as a trainer, including every Razorback bowl game since the 1976 Cotton Bowl. In addition, Weber has twice been on the training staff at the Japan Bowl and he worked with teams that went to the NCAA Final Four twice while he was at North Carolina.

Weber has two children, Matt and Ben, and nine grandchildren, Drew, Taylor, Taylor, Caleb, Spencer, Abby, Kendall Nicole, Mason and Emily.

STEPHANIE WETZEL

Assistant Sports Information Director

Stephanie Wetzel is in her second year as assistant sports information director. She joined the staff on a full-time basis in July of 2003 after working for 16 months as an intern.

As an assistant, Wetzel serves as the primary media contact for the 39-time national championship cross country and track and field programs, as well as the golf team. She was the assistant media director for the 2003 and 2004 NCAA Indoor Track and Field Championships. Wetzel also serves on the Razorback Image Enhancement Committee, and is a member of the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA) and the Track and Field Writers of America (TAFWA).

In addition, she also oversees tennis and assists in the day-to-day responsibilities with football.

Prior to working for the athletic department, Wetzel was the public relations director for Lewis and Clark Outfitters in Springdale, Ark., and the sports editorial assistant for the Northwest Bureau of the Arkansas Democrat-Gazette in 2001.

Wetzel, a native of Springfield, Mo., is a 2001 graduate of the University of Arkansas. She earned a bachelor's degree in journalism and is a former Razorback Belle.

THE RAZORBACK FOUNDATION

CHUCK DICUS

Razorback Foundation President

Former Razorback All-American receiver Chuck Dicus is in his 14th year as President of The Razorback Foundation, Inc. He joined the Foundation after working in the investment business in Little Rock.

As president, Dicus heads up the all-important effort of fund-raising for the Foundation. Those funds help the Razorbacks maintain a position among the nation's elite collegiate athletic programs.

A two-time All-American (1969 and 1970), Dicus finished his career with 118 receptions for 1,854 yards and 16 touchdowns.

He was the most valuable player of the 1969 Sugar Bowl when his 12 catches for 169 yards and a touchdown helped the Razorbacks defeat previously unbeaten Georgia, 16-2.

He earned his undergraduate degree in business from Arkansas in 1971 and was drafted by the San Diego Chargers. He spent two years with San Diego and one with the Pittsburgh Steelers before leaving pro football.

His football achievements landed him a spot in the Razorback Hall of Honor, on the Arkansas All-Century football team and in the Arkansas Sports Hall of Fame. In 2000, he was enshrined into the National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame.

Dicus and his wife, Cathy, live in Fayetteville. He has three sons, Neal, and twins, Charles and Jonathan.

NORM DeBRIYN

Vice President

After spending 33 years as head coach of the Razorback baseball team, Norm DeBriyn switched playing fields in 2002 and is now in his third year as vice president of the Razorback Foundation.

DeBriyn stepped down as head coach following the 2002 season in which he guided the Razorbacks to the program's first-ever NCAA Super Regional appearance. In 33 years as head coach, DeBriyn amassed a record of 1,161-650-6, which ranked him as the 14th-winningest coach in Division I history.

A native of Ashland, Wis., he guided the Razorbacks to four NCAA College World Series appearances, 15 NCAA postseason berths and three conference championships. DeBriyn earned six Southwest Conference Coach of the Year awards and one Southeastern Conference Coach of the Year honor.

Despite the mind-boggling numbers, the biggest testament to DeBriyn's contribution to the Razorback baseball program stands less than a half-mile from the Arkansas campus.

Baum Stadium at George Cole Field was named college baseball's best facility in a 1998 survey by Baseball America. The $8.9 million home of the Razorbacks was made possible by generous donations from the Charlie Baum and Willard & Pat Walker families.

DeBriyn and his wife, the former Caroline Mock of Honolulu, Hawaii, have been married for 33 years. They have two sons, Todd and Marty, and one daughter, Carrie Jo.

HAROLD HORTON

Vice President

In his seventh year as vice president of the Razorback Foundation is Harold Horton. He has played, coached and served as an administrator in the UA Athletic Department for nearly half his life.

Horton moved to the foundation from his position as director of football operations, a title he held for four years, after serving as recruiting coordinator for the four previous years. In his capacity with The Razorback Foundation, Inc., he has continued to serve as executive director of the Razorback A Club (former letter winners).

A member of the Arkansas Sports Hall of Fame, the University of Arkansas Sports Hall of Honor and the University of Central Arkansas Sports Hall of Fame, he is a native of DeWitt. He played on Frank Broyles' first three Southwest Conference championship teams at Arkansas, lettering in 1959, 1960 and 1961, and played in the Gator, Cotton and Sugar bowls. His teams combined for a 25-8 record. Horton was elected captain in 1961 in a vote of his teammates. In 2003, he received an Outstanding American Award presented by the College Football Foundation.

After earning his degree in physical education in 1962, Horton was the head football coach at Bald Knob (Ark.) and Forrest City (Ark.) high schools for three years each.

Broyles hired Horton as linebackers coach in 1968. He moved to the defensive line in 1977 and served in that capacity for four seasons under Lou Holtz.

Following the 1980 season he went into private business for a year but returned to football in 1981 when he became head coach at Central Arkansas. His teams were 74-12-5, won two national championships and qualified for the NAIA playoffs six times. The 1983, 1987 and 1988 clubs were all undefeated at 10-0. He was named NAIA National Coach of the Year in 1983.

In 1999, Anthony Lucas was the first recipient of the Harold Horton Award recognizing excellence on the field and in the classroom.

Horton and his wife, Betty, have two children. Their son Tim, an assistant football coach at the Air Force Academy and a former Razorback wide receiver, is married. He and his wife, Lauren, have a daughter, Caroline, and a son, William Jackson. Their daughter, Holly (Mrs. Brian Banister), has two sons, Bentley and Barrett, and a daughter, Charlotte.

Rashard Sullivan and the Razorbacks have four games scheduled for national television this season.

An All-SEC selection and the league's eighth-leading scorer as a sophomore, Jonathon Modica will draw a crowd again this year.

The schedule for Eric Ferguson and the Hogs includes nine games against NCAA Tournament teams and at least six more against NIT squads from last year.

GAME NOTES

> Arkansas leads the all-time series 21-17, but Alabama swept the season series last year.
> Entering the season, UA's last win over a top 10 team was Feb. 20, 2002, when the Hogs knocked off then-No. 5 Alabama, 67-59.
> The Alabama games are two of nine Arkansas plays this year against NCAA Tournament teams.

GAME NOTES

> Arkansas leads the all-time series 17-11.
> In last year's 74-52 home victory, Michael Jones made five of six throws against the Tigers. His .833 percentage is the second-best mark for an SEC game in school history.

GAME NOTES

> The series is tied 7-7 with Florida winning the last two.
> UA junior forward Rashard Sullivan is from Ft. Lauderdale, Fla.
> Ronnie Brewer had 23 points, seven rebounds, four assists and six steals in last year's 73-68 loss to the Gators.

GAME NOTES

> The first two meetings in this four-year series were decided by four points or less with Illinois winning both. Last year, the No. 11 Illini won at Chicago, 84-61.
 > Illinois is one of three UA opponents returning all five starters from last season, joining Florida and Tennessee.

GAME NOTES

> This is the first meeting between the two schools.
 > Last year, Arkansas played Jacksonville (Fla.) University, posting an 85-65 victory at Altet Arena.
 > JSU played an SEC member last year, losing at Ole Miss, 64-56.

GAME NOTES

> Kentucky leads the all-time series 18-7 and has won the last four.
 > This year's meeting with Kentucky returns to CBS television for the first time since the 2002 contest at Lexington. The game was a CBS fixture from 1995-02.

GAME NOTES

> Arkansas snapped a seven-game losing streak to the Rebels with its 86-77 victory at Fayetteville last year.
> In that game, UA set school and SEC records for free throws made in a game with 48 in 53 attempts.
> Arkansas and Ole Miss meet in the SEC opener for the sixth time in UA's 14 years in the league (1993, '94, '95, '97, '00).

GAME NOTES

> MSU returns four starters from last year but five overall with the return of Ontario Harper, who missed last season with a knee injury.
> MSU swept the season series last year to cut UA's all-time lead to 22-14.

GAME NOTES

> Missouri leads the series 16-15, but Arkansas won the last six meetings from 1993-98.
> UA set a school and SEC record, which still stands, of 18 blocked shots in a 104-93 victory over Missouri in 1996.

GAME NOTES

> The game begins a seven-game homestand for the Hogs, their longest since an eight-game stretch in 1996. UA had a season-opening seven-game stretch in 2001.
> UA leads the series 2-0 with wins in 1996 and 2001.

GAME NOTES

> UA won at Tulsa last year and has won eight of nine to push its series lead to 34-23.
> Ronnie Brewer had the second of two straight double-doubles in the win over Tulsa last year, finishing with 14 points and 10 rebounds.
> Jonathon Modica is averaging 20.0 points in two games against Tulsa.

GAME NOTES

> Arkansas has won three straight and leads the series 10-6.
> In last year's win over the then-No. 22 Commodores, Michael Jones scored a career-high matching 18 points.

ARKANSAS' SEC CHAMPIONSHIPS

(UA joined the league in 1991-92; was a member of the Southwest Conference from 1924-91)

2001 Tournament

1995 Western Division

1994 Overall, Western Division

1992 Overall, Western Division

The Southeastern Conference, with its storied 72-year history of athletic achievements and academic excellence, has built perhaps the greatest tradition of intercollegiate competition of any league in the country since its inception in 1933.

The 2003-04 academic year was another season to remember for the SEC as conference teams captured six national titles and nine national runner-up finishes. In the last 15 years, the SEC has won 100 national team championships for an average of more than six per year.

Overall, the SEC finished in the top two in 10 of its 20 sponsored sports and in the top five in 15 of the 20 sports.

In addition to the six team championships, 81 SEC student-athletes garnered individual national championships, while 498 individuals were awarded with first-team All-America honors. Student-athletes around the league continued to excel in the classroom as well with 1,954 earning recognition on the SEC Academic Honor Roll.

On the national all-sport level, the SEC placed seven teams in the top 30 of the Sears/NACDA Director's Cup rankings. Georgia led the league with a fifth-place finish. Florida placed sixth, while LSU was 11th, Tennessee finished 14th, Auburn 23rd, Arkansas 27th and Vanderbilt 28th to round out the league's top 30 finishes.

HISTORY OF THE SEC

SEC schools began athletic competition with one another more than 100 years ago as members of the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association. Seven institutions (Alabama, Auburn, Georgia, Georgia Tech, North Carolina, Sewanee and Vanderbilt) attended the SIAA organizational meeting of faculty representatives in Atlanta on Dec. 22, 1894.

The SIAA expanded to 19 institutions in 1895 with Central, Clemson, Cumberland, Kentucky, LSU, Mercer Mississippi State, Nashville, Southwestern Presbyterian, Tennessee, Texas and Tulane joining the fold, and by 1920 there were 30 members.

The larger schools reorganized as the Southern Conference at a meeting in Gainesville Dec. 12-13, 1920, including Alabama, Auburn, Clemson, Georgia, Georgia Tech, Kentucky, Maryland, MSU, UNC, North Carolina State, Tennessee, Virginia, Virginia Tech and Washington & Lee. In 1922, Florida, LSU, Mississippi, South Carolina, Tulane, Vanderbilt, Virginia and VMI joined while Sewanee and Duke became members in 1923 and 1928, respectively. The 13 members west and south of the Appalachian Mountains reorganized (UA, AU, UF, UG, GTU, UK, LSU, UM, MSU, Sewanee, UT, Tulane and VU) as the SEC at the Southern Conference meetings of Dec. 8-9, 1932, in Knoxville while the 10 coast members remained in the SC. Sewanee withdrew on Dec. 13, 1940, Georgia Tech on June 1, 1964, and Tulane on June 1, 1966. The league maintained that membership until Arkansas joined on Aug. 1, 1990, and South Carolina on Sept. 25, 1990.

As a freshman, Ronnie Brewer led the team in rebounding (5.5), assists (3.4) and steals (2.0), and was second in scoring (12.2).

Vincent Hunter was one of nine freshmen and sophomores contributing quality minutes last year, which ranked Arkansas as the eighth-youngest team in the nation.

YOUNG SQUAD SHOWS IMPROVEMENT

MODICA, BREWER, FAMUTIMI, PHARIS EARN POSTSEASON HONORS

THE SEASON: Arkansas went 12-16 overall and finished sixth in the Southeastern Conference's Western Division with a 4-12 mark, improving on the 2003 final mark of 10-18.

The Razorbacks were 8-3 in non-conference play and posted a 10-6 record at home after going 9-7 at home in 2003.

PHARIS NAMED TO ACADEMIC DISTRICT VI TEAM: Senior Billy Pharis was named to the 2004 Academic All-District VI team as selected by the College Sports Information Directors of America. District VI includes all schools in Arkansas, Oklahoma, Mississippi, Louisiana, Texas and New Mexico.

Pharis, also named to the SEC's Good Works Team for his community service efforts, had a 3.86 grade point average in political science. He started 18 of 28 games and averaged 5.5 points and 2.9 rebounds a game. He led the team in scoring twice and was in double figures eight times, and he led the team in rebounding four times and in assists three times. Pharis led the team in three-point shooting, hitting 25 of 66 attempts, 37.9 percent.

PLAYER HONORS: Jonathon Modica earned second-team All-SEC honors (coaches) and was an All-District VII selection by the United States Basketball Writers Association. Ronnie Brewer earned freshman All-America honors from both Rivals.com (second team) and College Basketball News (third), while Olu Famutimi was honorable mention on the Rivals.com list. Senior Charles Tatum was one of 14 national finalists for the fourth annual V Foundation Comeback Award.

TEAM AWARDS: At the team's annual banquet, the following awards were announced - most improved player, Olu Famutimi; free throw award, Eric Ferguson (.857, 48-56); chairman of the boards (rebounding), Ronnie Brewer (5.5); defensive player of the year, Eric Ferguson; Mr. Hustle award, Rashard Sullivan; academic award, Billy Pharis (3.86 GPA in political science); MVP, Ronnie Brewer; and the Mr. Razorback award, Billy Pharis.

HANDLING THE ROCK: Arkansas had more assists than turnovers in a game nine times in 2004. That may not sound like a big deal, but in 2003, UA did not play a single game with more assists than turnovers, although the Razorbacks did tie in that category three times.

For the year, Arkansas was (-)23 in that statistic with 363 assists and 386 turnovers after finishing (-)192 in 2003.

Ronnie Brewer was crucial in that turnaround with 94 assists (3.4) and 72 turnovers (+22) along with sophomore Eric Ferguson. As a true freshman and the team's only point guard in 2003, Ferguson had 91 assists (3.3) and 109 turnovers, but had 78 assists (2.8) and only 55 turnovers last year, going from a (-)18 in 2003 to a (+)23 last year.

SECOND-HALF SETBACKS: Arkansas was in position to win several games it lost in the second half last year. In fact, six of UA's losses came in games in which the Razorbacks led at the half. The Razorbacks had a halftime lead in 16 games, winning 10.

UA led at Ole Miss 21-16 at the half on March 6 before losing 55-45. On Dec. 22, the Hogs led Western Carolina 22-20 at the break, but lost 62-59 in overtime; on Jan. 14, UA led at Alabama at the half, 35-34, but fell 81-65; on Jan. 21, Arkansas led at Auburn, 41-28, but lost 70-63; on Feb. 11, UA led 36-35 at Tennessee, but lost 69-65; and on March 3, UA led Alabama 34-19 at the break, but fell in overtime, 72-68.

FAN SUPPORT STILL STRONG:

Arkansas' final home game of the year on March 3 against Alabama drew a crowd of 15,626. For 16 home dates, in which Arkansas was 10-6, the Razorbacks drew an average of 14,792, which ranked 13th in the nation. In 2003, during an 8-8 home campaign, Arkansas averaged 14,790 fans per game, which ranked 14th nationally. UA has ranked in the top 15 in national attendance average all 11 seasons since moving into Bud Walton Arena for the 1994 season.

ARKANSAS FIELDED EIGHTH-YOUNGEST TEAM IN THE COUNTRY:

Based on the players contributing quality minutes, which for Arkansas was 12, the Razorbacks tied for the eighth-youngest team in the nation.

Of Arkansas' top 12 players, nine were freshmen and sophomores (.750). The 10 youngest teams in the country were: Northwestern State (11-13, .850), Florida (9-11, .820), Maryland (9-11, .820), Utah (8-10, .800), La Salle (8-10, .800), Villanova (8-10, .800), Michigan (7-9, .780), Arizona (6-8, .750), Arkansas (9-12, .750) and Wake Forest (9-12, .750).

SPARE RIBS: In six games against ranked teams, Jonathon Modica averaged 19.0 points and 3.8 rebounds a game while shooting 50.6 percent from the floor (39-77). Ronnie Brewer averaged 13.5 points and 4.2 rebounds while shooting 54.7 percent (29-53). Matt Jones averaged a team-high 6.2 rebounds in five games while scoring 4.0 points per game.

UA was 10-7 in games in which the Razorbacks shot 40 percent or better from the field and 2-9 when shooting less than 40 percent.

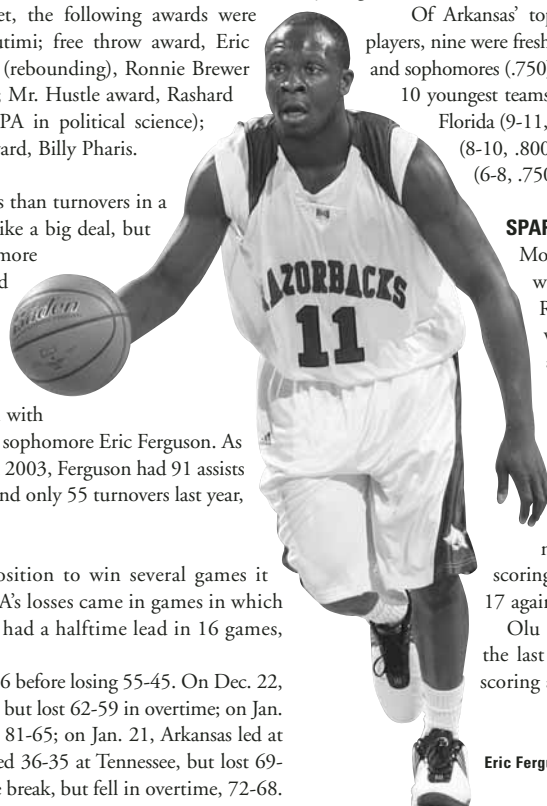

Michael Jones averaged 12.0 points over the last two games of the year, despite playing a total of 21 minutes in those two games. He had four double-figure scoring games with highs of 18 points against Vanderbilt and 17 against Auburn.

Olu Famutimi averaged 9.0 points and 3.4 rebounds over the last five games of the year, ranking third on the team in scoring and fourth in rebounding over that stretch.

Eric Ferguson was named UA's defensive player of the year last season.

Billy Pharis earned College Sports Information Directors of America Academic All-District VI honors, and earned the team's Mr. Razorback and academic awards.

* Led NCAA
 All-Time NCAA Record

Eric Ferguson had 78 assists with just 55 turnovers last year, helping the Razorbacks record a school-record low 386 turnovers for the season.

Olu Famutimi and the Hogs played tight defense last year, but allowed opponents to get to the free throw line just 622 times, which is the lowest opponent total since 1984.

The following policies have been prepared in consideration of your needs, as well as the needs of our student-athletes, coaches and staff, in hopes of creating a positive working environment for us all. As always, we welcome your suggestions and will try to accommodate special needs.

Game Credentials

All requests for media and/or photo credentials must be made on letterhead by sports editors or sports directors of accredited media outlets only. Requests should be made as early as possible and no later than two days prior to the game. Requests should be mailed or faxed (479-575-7481) to Robby Edwards at the address listed at the beginning of this section.

Credentials will be granted to working media only and granted on a game-by-game basis. No multi-game or full season credentials will be issued.

Media and photo credentials will be issued according to the following priority:

1. Daily newspapers for production the following day
2. Sports editors only of other Arkansas daily newspapers
3. Originating broadcast of the visiting team
4. Accredited photographers (same priority as writers)
5. School publications (home and visiting campus publications are limited to a total of two media and two photo passes)
6. Accredited television sports directors and photographers
7. Approved special coverage
8. Professional scouts (one per team and limited to the first six requests)

Space limitations prevent accommodation of weekly media representatives and non-broadcasting radio personnel.

Also due to a lack of space, credentials will not be issued to web sites. The only possible exception is one credential may be issued to the official web site of the opposing team and/or the web site directly affiliated with the television network granted live broadcast rights for the game, space permitting.

Only fully accredited personnel directly involved in the coverage of the game will be admitted. Credentials are non-transferable. The Sports Information Office reserves the right to revoke any credential: (1) used by an individual other than the one to whom it was granted; (2) any individual who refused to comply with press row and/or photographic guidelines; (3) any individual who is not an accredited member of the media; and (4) any individual under the age of 16.

The Sports Information Office reserves the right to issue or deny any credential request.

No credentials will be mailed. All credentials are left at media will call.

Southeastern Conference Internet Policy and Guidelines

By acceptance of a credential, the holder agrees to the following conditions for any and all basketball games hosted by the SEC and its member institutions:

1. The SEC and its member institutions grant a media organization a limited license to use certain gathered information on the media organization's own Internet or on-line site beginning at the start of an athletic event and up to the conclusion of such event, all subject to the following limitations and conditions:

A. No more than 10 still photographs may be used for news coverage of the game and other editorial purposes. Such still photographs must be used on a time-delayed basis, that is at least five minutes after the photographed happening of the event depicted by the still photo.

B. It is agreed that video tape is NOT to be used on an Internet or on-line site (except that video tape may be shown as part of a single, non-archived, on-line "simulcast" of a television station's regularly-scheduled news program.

C. While a game is in progress, the use of textual statistical information is time-delayed and limited in amount (e.g., updates pertaining to score (detail only given in halftime updates), injuries and national, conference or institutional record-breaking performances, a condensed halftime story) so that an organization's Internet or on-line game coverage does not undercut the authorized and rights-paying fee organization's right to play-by-play accounts of the game and/or exclusivity as to such rights.

2. Any proposed media use on an Internet or on-line site of the game information that is more detailed and/or more than described above will require separate written authorization by the SEC and/or its member institutions. However, such written authorization will not permit the use of game information in entertainment contexts and will not authorize game coverage that, due to immediacy or detail, constitutes a play-by-play account of the game.

3. Should any of these conditions be breached, the SEC and/or its member institutions will issue a written warning for the first violation. If this violation occurs during the last game of the institutions' regularly-scheduled season, the media organization may not be credentialed for the SEC Tournament. A second violation of this policy will result in the revocation of credentials to cover future basketball games hosted by the SEC and/or its member institutions.

Media Will Call

Located on the south side of Bud Walton Arena, just right of the main ticket window. All passes are left at media will call - no credentials are mailed.

Gameday Parking

A limited number of spaces are available in the lots south of Bud Walton Arena, located at the corner of Sixth Street and Razorback Road. All requests should be made to Associate SID Robby Edwards.

Media Work Room

BWA's work room is one of the most spacious and in the nation. It is located on the arena floor level, next to and adjoining the interview room. Weekly press briefings and Stan Heath's post-game press conferences are held in the interview room. Media members are encouraged to work from and file from the work room rather than press row. A minimum of 10 telephones are available in the work room.

Photographers

BWA features two photo "wells," which are located to the right of each goal as you are facing the court. Tripods are not allowed on the floor at any time during play. Photographers are not allowed to shoot from either sideline due to space limitations. Anyone wishing to hang strobe lights must first receive permission from the UA Sports Information Office. Sports information reserves the right to limit the number of strobe units used.

Radio Broadcasts

Visiting teams may utilize the four courtesy phone lines available in BWA. ISDN is available. Broadcasters needing more than four lines should contact the UA Sports Information Office. No banners are allowed to hang in front of any broadcast position.

Media Services

The University of Arkansas has one of the top statistical crews in college basketball. Our crew has worked NCAA Tournament regional championships and conference tournaments. Media will be provided play-by-play, halftime and final box scores, and shot charts for each half, in addition to coach and player quotes following the game.

Interview Policy

Arkansas players are available for interviews only on days of Stan Heath's press briefings, which are generally two days prior to each game, and following each game in Arkansas' locker room. Following all home games, after the 10-minute cooling-off period, Heath sits in on Arkansas' postgame radio show and then proceeds to the media room.

Stan Heath's Weekly Teleconferences

Each Monday and Thursday from Dec. 7 through March 7. The SEC teleconference features each league head coach for seven minutes on a broadcast quality hookup. The teleconference runs from 10 a.m. to 11:38 a.m. (central). Stan Heath's time slot is from 10:49 to 10:56. Media members can get the teleconference access numbers from either the SEC Media Relations Office (205-458-3010) or the UA Sports Information Office.

Razorback Satellite Services

At press time, no details were available on the uplink of highlights and interviews. The UA Sports Information Office will attempt to schedule highlight feeds following all non-televised games and possibly interviews once a week during the conference portion of the schedule. For details, contact the Sports Information Office.

Hogwired.com

The latest information on all Razorback men's athletics is just a click away on the web at Hogwired.com - the official web site of UA men's athletics. Game notes, quotes from Stan Heath's press conferences and game stories are a few of the items included. The site also offers biographical information on UA coaches and student-athletes, statistics and schedules. Fans can also access radio broadcasts of UA football, basketball and baseball games via links provided on Hogwired.com.

ARKANSAS RAZORBACK SPORTS NETWORK

The Arkansas Razorback Sports Network, a division of Little Rock-based KATV Channel 7, is in its 11th year of producing and delivering every moment of Razorback basketball to thousands of Hog fans worldwide.

ARSN, as the exclusive provider of all Razorback sports programming, produces and distributes all football, baseball and men's basketball radio broadcasts, and televises at least six live basketball games each season. Each weekday during the football and basketball seasons, Hog fans can get all the latest news on the Razorbacks by listening to the daily "Razorback Report" on any of the ARSN affiliate stations.

In addition to radio, ARSN produces all pay-per-view events of the university and coordinates special projects, such as home video production and marketing.

GETTING THE HOGS ON THE AIR

Mike Nail Play-by-Play Announcer

Mike Nail (right), who is in his 24th year as the radio "Voice of the Razorbacks" broadcast his 700th Arkansas game in 2003. Nail's postseason experience includes one national championship, three trips to the Final Four, 15 NCAA tournaments, two NIT appearances and eight conference championships. He is the former sports director at KPOM/KFAA in Fayetteville. Joe Kleine (left) is in his fifth year as the analyst following a 15-year NBA career. Kleine, a 1985 UA graduate, was the sixth overall draft pick by the Sacramento Kings in 1985 and won an NBA championship with the Chicago Bulls in 1998.

Paul Eells and Jimmy Dykes

Paul Eells (left) serves as the "Voice of the Razorbacks" for football radio and basketball television. He is also the sports director for KATV-TV in Little Rock. This year marks his 27th season calling the Hogs' action. He has been named Arkansas Sportscaster of the Year nine times. Jimmy Dykes (right) is in his 11th year on the ARSN television broadcast team. He serves as a college basketball analyst for ESPN, ABC and Raycom Sports. A 1985 graduate of Arkansas, he was a three-year letterman at UA and a member of two Southwest Conference championship teams.

JONATHON MODICA
All-SEC – USBWA All-District

RONNIE BREWER
Freshman All-American
SEC All-Freshman

on winning the 2004 NBA title:

“Winning a championship,
that’s what you play for. That’s what everyone is in this league for. To be able to call yourself the best in the world, it’s a wonderful accomplishment and I’m truly blessed.”

UA'S CORLISS WILLIAMSON

NBA AND NCAA CHAMPION

on winning the 1994 NCAA title:

“Coming from the state of Arkansas as a home-state boy, and to grow up and win a national championship with your home school is a great feeling. It meant a lot and I’m glad we were able to bring a championship to the state of Arkansas. I still reminisce about those days.”
